Social Evening and Presentation in Garnet Methodist Church

On Thursday evening of last week a very pleasant and interesting social gathering followed the devotional exercises and discussion of the topic in the Methodist church at Garnet. The program included readings, recitations, music and two "contests." The first contest consisted in the locating from memory various verses of the Bible; the second in recognizing from pictures a large number of world-famous men and women. In the former Watson Roulston was declared the winner and presented with a volume of "Little Dorrit," by Dickens. A dainty luncheon preceded the later contest. Perhaps the most interesting feature of the evening, however, was the reading of the following address by Howard Harrop and the presentation which followed.

The members of the Garnet Methodist congregation desire to express their appreciation of the services of Miss Ada Risdill, organist in the church here.

We feel that under her leadership the choir has done much to brighten and help the services. We appreciate the value of the work done so well and without remuneration. We would therefore ask Miss Risdill to accept this small gift as a token of regard and appreciation and to wish her at the same time much blessing and long continuance in the Master's work.

The gift proved to be a very handsome leather hand bag, the inside "fitting" of which included a sum of money. The presentation was made by the pastor, Rev. A. C. Eddy, on behalf of the Garnet congregation. Miss Risdill who was taken completely by surprise was nevertheless able to briefly express her appreciation in reply. The recipient of the gift richly deserved it and The Record congratulates the Garnet people in showing their appreciation of her faithful services.

Black squirrel shooting opened on Nov. 15.

What is Your Family Worth.

If your family is worth the best you can afford in house and food and clothes, is it not worth the best reading as well? And the best reading—best for boys and girls, best for men and women—is to be found in The Youth's Companion. Of stories alone The Companion will print nearly 300 in 1912. With all the rest of the paper thrown in, and counting the glorious long serial stories, they cost the subscriber less than a cent apiece. Moreover, you will look long before you will find stories so varied and interesting: stories in coolness in the face of peril, strange adventure with creatures of the forest and the sea; moving stories of life, obscure heroisms; stories breezy with good-natured humor, quaint and curious character sketches.

Now is the time to subscribe, for the new subscriber in Canada will receive free from the time his $2.00 is received all the issues for the remaining weeks of 1911, containing the opening chapters of Ralph D. Paine's great serial story of the "Boxer Rebellion," "The Cross and the Dragon," and there is the gift of The Companion Calendar for 1912, "On the New England Coast," lithographed in ten colors and gold. Only $2.00 now to Canadian subscribers, but on January 1, 1912, the subscription price will be advanced to $2.25.
