

THE RIGHT HOUSE

Hamilton's Favorite Shopping Place.

SEE THE $25,000 INDIAN PICTURE NOW ON EXHIBITION.

LAST Wednesday, in a special gallery erected on the Furniture Floor, The Right House placed on exhibition, among others, Cooper's celebrated $25,000 Indian Picture, "The Story of The Evil Spirit." On Wednesday, of this week, this picture is scheduled to be changed. In its place we shall place on exhibition the large, dramatic picture by the same painter, entitled, "The Home Guard." This latter is also a Indian picture—one which men, women and children, will find to be as intensely interesting as a play. Admission is free. An experienced lecturer gives an interesting description of the large picture and of the many smaller paintings which portray Indian Life and customs.

And on Saturday Next, we Shall Bring to a Brilliant Close the Christmas Preparation Sale.

This is the greatest pre-holiday merchandise event ever held in the city—a sale of NEW and seasonable merchandise to make room for the inrushing Xmas stocks which must be placed on display. Immense Savings on things you need for yourself, your home and your children will be possible.

CHRISTMAS OPENING—INCLUDING OPENING OF THE TOY DEPARTMENT— WILL PROBABLY BE ANNOUNCED ON SATURDAY OF THIS WEEK.

It will also interest the men and women of Jarvis to know that The Right House has opened a circulating library from which at a small fee, members may draw the very latest fiction. New books will be continually added. We are starting with about 500.

Who am I Anyhow

I married a woman who had a daughter. My father visited the house frequently, fell in love and married my step-daughter. Thus my father became my son-in-law, and my step-daughter my mother, because she was my father's wife. My step-daughter had a son, he was, of course my brother and at the same time my grandchild, for he was the son of my step-daughter. My wife was my grand mother because she was my mother's mother. I was my wife's husband and grandchild at the same time, and as the husband of a person's grandmother is his grandfather, I must be my own grandfather.
