Springvale

We are sorry to report the illness of John Kenner. We trust he may soon recover.

John McKean, Earl Sinek and Fred Keefe, who have been sojourning in the prairie provinces for some time have returned home.

After an extended and pleasant visit with relatives at North Bay, Mrs. E. Holbrook has returned home.

Mrs. Clarinda Howard left last week on a few weeks' visit to her son Thomas at Buffalo.

Rev. A. C. Eddy of Jarvis will occupy the pulpit in the Methodist church on Sunday next at 2:30 p.m.

Owing to the resignation of Alf Smith as postmaster Lorne Bowman was officially sworn in to fill the position.

James Riedill is moving to our burg this week. Welcome Jim.

It is rumored that our teachers have resigned, the resignations to take effect at the Xmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKean spent a few days at Toronto last week.

A large number from here attended Sir J. P. Whitney's meeting in Hagersville Thursday evening and listened to an able address. Dr. Jaques, the candidate, made a striking speech, as did also F. R. Lalor, M.P., and Mr. McGuire of Waterford, North Norfolk's candidate. It is a forgone conclusion that Dr. Jaques will be elected by a substantial majority.

Sudden Death.—The angel of death is no respecter of persons, old and young, together with middle-aged in snatched away by its relentless hand. Another home is left desolate and another mother has completed her life work on earth. We refer to the death of Mrs. John Cook, who sudden death took on Saturday. She arose in the morning as usual and proceeded with her daily duties, when about two o'clock a blood vessel burst in her head, thereby rendering her unconscious. In this condition she remained until the evening when she passed away. She had reached the age of 49 years. Mrs. Cook's death has caused widespread regret as she was a woman much beloved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. As a wife and mother none could be better, and to-day her beloved husband, one daughter and two sons miss her kindly ministrations and feel that her place can never be filled. She will also be missed in the Methodist church, where she always took an active interest. The funeral took place on Tuesday morning, services being conducted in the Salem church, interment taking place afterwards in the Hagersville cemetery. We join our sympathies with the many friends for the bereaved ones.
