Turner—Wood

A wedding of especial interest to our readers, in which an old Jarvis boy figures quite prominently. We refer to Frank L. Turner who has joined the great army of benedicts. This happy event took place on Tuesday, Sept. 26th, 1911, when Mr. Turner won the heart and hand of one of Montreal's charming young ladies, in the person of Miss Henrietta Maud Wood. Rev. Dr. Roy performed the ceremony, the wedding taking place at St. Martin's church, Montreal, at 5 p.m. Although the wedding was intended to be of a quiet nature carriage after carriage of interested spectators wended their way to the church. The bride looked winsome in a neat and becoming travelling suit of grey, with hat of black velvet and white osprays. She was attended by Miss Janet Thacker, while Percy Bowman did the duties of best man. At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party was driven to the residence of the bride's mother, 2085 Esplanade Ave., where an inviting luncheon was partaken of, after which the bride and groom left at 8 p.m. by boat "S. S. Dundurn" to Toronto, to spend their honeymoon in Hamilton, Grimsby and Jarvis. Space will not permit us to enumerate all the gifts suffice to say they consisted of several handsome pieces of cut glass, silverware, enamel ware, table linen and china. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful anything brooch; to the bridesmaid a pearl brooch and to the groomsmen a diamond stick pin. The Record joins with the host of well wishers and we predict for Mr. and Mrs. Turner a long, happy and prosperous wedded life, and may they ever behold the silver lining in the cloud.

Anniversary Services in Methodist Church Sunday, Oct. 8th

Next Sunday, Oct. 8, will be Anniversary Sunday in the church. Rev. A. E. Lavell, B.A., of Norwich, will preach morning and evening. Mr. Lavell began his ministry on this circuit sixteen years ago and has distinguished himself as pastor, debator and lecturer. A very interesting article from his pen appeared in a recent issue of the Christian Guardian concerning the work at Chatague where Mr. Lowell delivers a series of lectures each summer. He has occupied the position of District Financial Secretary of Conference and is now Chairman of the Norwich District. His friends of this community and the public generally will be delighted to hear him. The Anniversary offering, subscriptions and collections will be received.

Anniversary and Thanksgiving Dinner

Very inclement and unfavorable weather accounted for the small attendance at the anniversary services, under the auspices of the Baptist church, Chapside, on Sunday last. At 10 a.m. was the Sunday School Rally. Rev. F. C. Elliott, pastor of the Waterford Baptist church occupied the pulpit both morning and evening and his discourses were listened to with rapt attention. On Monday evening the weather was somewhat brighter and a goodly number turned out to enjoy the dinner. It was one of the best spreads that the ladies of the Baptist church ever provided. The tables fairly groaned under the weight of good things placed upon them and everyone did justice at the hall. After tea all gathered in the church to listen to the well prepared program, which consisted of music and recitation... rendered by Mrs. F. C. Elliott of Waterford, Miss Lillian Allen of Jarvis and Mrs. Fred Lindsay and the singers certainly deserved the hearty applause which was accorded them. The Chapside Quartette added much to the entertainment and they were liberal with their selections. The addresses by Revs. F. C. Elliott, Mr. Monsinger, and D. Catchpole were witty and exceedingly interesting and taken altogether the evening was very pleasantly and profitably spent. The proceed amounted to $60.

Garnet Anniversary

Pouring rain and roads deep with mud did not damp the spirits of the Garnet people, who gathered at their Anniversary services last Sunday to hear their former pastor, Rev. Harnwell, who was in good health and heart for the occasion. He prepared his sermon with the remark that sometimes anniversary preachers were expected to be a sort of suction vacuum cleaner to be placed over people's pockets to draw the money out. He knew the Garnet liberality to bring along a "suction" sermon. He then spoke from Ezek. 37: 6 "And ye shall live" developing the idea of "wonder" as shown forth in the Bible, incident as one of the deepest emotions of the soul and a soul that had lost the emotion of wonder was as these dry bones.

In the evening there was a good congregation and a most interesting service held. A number of the Jarvis people were present despite the bad roads.

The subject at night was the Bible story of Jehu killing Jehoram King of Israel, text 2 Kings 9: 24. The preacher said that first appearances always count and briefly related the great enthusiasm following the secret anointing and after this the scheme of Jehu's victory. The points of individuality, with his full strength, and with definite aim were emphasized concerning this hero of the target and practical lessons were drawn therefrom in Mr. Harnwell original and illustrative manner. The choir was at its best and sang with splendid effect. They had Mr. Chas Howard associated with them in the morning singing in good voice the solo "The Way of Peace" and in the evening in sweet and beautiful voice Miss Shirley Rodgers of Jarvis delighted the audience with "Lead Thou me on".

The Thankoffering far exceeded the amount required greatly to the credit of the Garnet congregation.

The best plaster. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Liniment and bound on over the affected parts is superior to a plaster and costs only one tenth as much. For sale by all dealers.

October

In this month, summer seems to linger as if loth to depart, though early autumn mounts the throne of the swiftly changing season. Gradually a transformation comes over the landscape. The foliage of the trees grows dark and sombre; the freshness is gone, and here and there the leaves are tinged with yellow and red and drop easily in response to the command of the breezes; the grass grows long and dark, and tall weeds and wild flowers peculiar to this month, spring up and bloom along the margin of the dusty highways, and in the mown fields. The pleasant autumnal breath of nature comes in through the open casement, and dries still more the parched gardens and the drooping shrubs; the chirp of the cricket sounds more sad and monotonous than ever, and one can almost fancy it saying perpetually, "Summer is gone! gone." But much of October is very beautiful, pleasure seekers and excursionists have not to "trust to the uncertain glory of an April day" but the sky if azure in the morning is seldom else at set of sun, and it is neither too warm nor too cold for enjoyment. It is true that nature is expiring, but so gradual and beautiful, that it partakes more of a triumph, and the glorious colors that adorn the landscape crown her departing days with a splendor like that which accompanies the sun at its setting, and seems as an evidence of a pledge of future resurrection. Beautiful also is the scenery along the seashore. No change comes over that wide expanse, (save in temperature) whose boundaries are the rock strand. Spring, summer, autumn and winter have little power over the mighty ocean. Onward ever onward roll the restless billows and their voice is ever the same; true the surface of these briny waters reflect changing sky of the different seasons; but little else than this is the ocean conscious of the great transformation; the elements are effecting no mother earth. Solonally and calmly in the still air fall upon the ear, wafting thoughts of the past, the future and the sublimities of eternity.

Good tea is the result of care and experience in blending—must be the combination of fine flavor, smooth strength and richness. Because all these elements are so generously included in Red Rose Tea it well merits the term "good tea." RED ROSE TEA. NEVER SOLD IN BULK. Your Grocer Will Recommend It.

Women's Missionary Convention. On Thursday of last week the Women's Missionary Societies and Mission Band of the Simcoe District held their annual Convention in the Methodist Church. The District Organizer Mrs. E. M. Kitchen of Waterford presiding. About fifty delegates registered. The morning session was largely devoted to the hearing of reports from the various Societies and Mission Bands of the District. Mrs. Kitchen warmly congratulated the Jarvis Mission Band in winning the banner. Various missionary topics were ably discussed in the afternoon session. Special messages were read by Mrs. McLaren of Villa Nova and Mrs. Mabel Parkinon. Miss Collyer of Old Windham contributed a missionary recitation. Words of kindly greeting were given by Mrs. (Dr.) Jaques who represented the Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church and Mrs. Chambers of the Anglican church. Rev. and Mrs. Geo. T. Shields were the speakers in the evening. Both gave exceedingly interesting accounts of their experiences in China and Tibet. Mr. Shields gave a warm tribute to loyalty and devotion of the native Christians of China. The missionary offering at the convention was a liberal one. Before the evening session closed the delegates expressed appreciation of the generous hospitality of Jarvis homes. The next convention is to be held in Port Dover.
