THE RICHT HOUSE!

Hamilton's Faverite Shopping Place.

The Annual Advance Sale of Furs is now in Successful Progress Here--Sale Closes Saturday, September 16th.

THIS annual sale is one of these helpful merchandise events that enables the woman who take advantage of the underpriced offerings to dress better, on the same or a smaller amount of money than her friends

In the first place, the entire NEW FUR STOCK is subject to a ten per cent. discount during this sale. In addition to the regular lines, we have made a number of special purchases, including FUR LINED, HUDSON SEAL, and BEAUTIFUL BLACK RUSSIAN PONY COATS.

It is not necessary to pay the entire amount at the time of purchase unless you care to. A small deposit is sufficient to have us hold your purchase, free of charge, until such time this winter as you care to wear it.

Could any offer be more liberal—more helpful? It, with the reductions in price, explains how the women who takes advantage of these offers can dress better than her neighbors AT LESS COST.

You will note that all the new styles in FUPS—wide neck pieces, large Rug or Pillow Muffs, and fringe trimmed Pieces—are here. Fox, Mink and Persian Lamb will be the leading set Furs. They are all here. The daily Hamilton papers will give you the price details.

Those who are having costumes made will be glad to know that our new Trimmings for Fall and Winter Gowns are in.

vent was started two years ago and two highly successful tours of the West have been made. Special trains were used and the result has been to draw the ties of trade and neighborly intercourse much closer, and to develop a stronger spirit of unity among western communities. The trip to Great Britain was proposed when the Business Men's Excursion was at Banff this 'year, and the matter was elinehed at a meeting of the expansion committee of the Winnipeg Development and Industrial Bureau, which has charge of all the arrangements for the trip each year. When the 1912 excursion is made up, it will include the very best of Winnipeg business, the leading financial and commercial representatives of this city and those of all other Western cities who choose to join the excursion. The tour will extend over six weeks of time and will include as much of the British Isles as it is possible to cover in the alloted time. This year's crop seems to be destined to success in spite of all offsetting occurrences. The black rust scare was peremptorily checked by the advent of hot, clear weather, and the recent nearfrost was damaging to only a very slight extent. Harvesting is being pushed rapidly all over the country, and the most reliable reports that can be had-reports from the harvesters and threshers show that the forecast of an enormous crop was in no wise exaggerated. 14 of the biggest districts show phenomenal yields, among them being 45 bushels of wheat and 80 bushels of oats to the acre from Swift Current. six districts which will give 40 bushels of wheat and ten that will have from 30 to 40 bushels. The summing up of 500 reports indicates 50% of yield averaging over 25 bushels to the acre, and the present estimate of the crop experts is a grand total of from 215,000,000 to 220,000-000 bushels of wheat from the three prairie provinces. Already, preparations are being made for next year's crops. In districts where harvesting is nearly, or quite finished, immense tracts are being broken. 60 steam and gasoline plowing outfits were unloaded at Kindersley, Saskatche wan, this season, and these highlyeffective engines of agriculture have been busy all over the West. In all sections, the plowing outfits will be kept at their work until winter puts a stop to farming operations. The increase of acerage under erop in 1911 over 1910 was about 2,000,000 acres, but it is certain that next year's increase will be far greater.

Col. A. D. Davidson, of the Canadian Northern Land Department, said, after a recent trip all over the West:

"This, is, indeed, a prosperous era spasmodic about it, It is the result of ten years' growth, with an increased acreage each year from which to draw reven ue. And the half of Canada's possibilities have not yet been demonstrated. There is as much building going on in the little country towns all through the West as there is in the cities, and no more satisfactory sign than this is needed from an economic viewpoint."

Wheat farming has taken hold upon the Rainv River Valley, and the first wheat cut there was received in the Canadian Northern offices in Winnipeg recently some remarkable yields have been reported from this fertile valley, and this shipment marks the transposition from cord-wood farming to wheat farming in the Rainy River valley.

The Canadian Northern have at present under contract 1,823 miles, and by the end of this year will have under construction nearly one-sixth of the present railway mileage of Canada.

The largest round-house in Western Canada was commenced last week by the N. R. at Saskatoon. Canadian Northern construction work is proceeding rspidly in British Columbia. Grading is folowing closely on the heels of the bridge work, and many thousands of men will be employed on construction all winter.

Strawberries in August illustrate the great possibilities that have so long lain atent in the climate and soil of the West. This fruit is being produced in good quantity and excellent quality at Strathmore. Alberta, on the Canadian Pacific demonstration farm. The berries were grown in the open and prove what can be done by the application of up-to-date methods

Who Sent That Postal Card?

Last Saturday afternoon The H. S. Falls Co., received a Postal Card "Signature omitted." It was evidently from a who complained that when he came for Men's Half Hose that were advertised on Sale Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, the counter where they were displayed was surrounded with store employes. It was the 900 pairs of "Sample" Half Hose tempted. most of all, the people who best know goods.
