PHOTOGRAPHY IS A MIRROR
Which held up to life, throws back a permanent reflection. Just as a poor mirror gives a distorted likeness, does an inferior photograph liberal its original. Good mirrors cost a little more money, so do artistic photographs. Art in photography is simply the truthful reproduction of nature, that my photographs show at least a fair measure of artistic merit is due simply to an ability to cause the sitter to momentarily forget the camera.

In the present trend of the times, when every movement is regulated by a pendulum of value, there are thousands of opportunities going to waste for want of people to take them when they come. As a matter of fact the history of reverse business might be summed up in two words, "Lost Opportunities." Daily we hear the cry, "If I had only taken hold at the time!" But when Fate knocked at his door, no one opened.
