Concrete Sidewalks are Safe, Sightly and Everlasting

LUMBER used in damp places and on wet ground—as, for instance, in walks—has a very short life. It requires almost constant repairing and, in a few years, needs replacing.

Concrete, on the other hand, improves with age, and the very dampness which destroys lumber calls out the best qualities of the cement by making it harder and harder—until neither time nor traffic can affect it.

The best of wooden walks keep getting out of repair, and are a continual menace to life and limb. They are also a frequent source of expensive doctor bills and lost time. Then again, they are likely to eat up the original cost in repairs before they are replaced.

Concrete walks are sightly, everlasting and safe. They cost less to build and need no repairing nor painting.

Write for our free book, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete."

It tells in plain, simple language how you can save money on farm construction by using cement for Barns, Dairies, Foundations, Fence Posts, Troughs, Feeding Floors, Hitching Posts, Stalls, Silos, Stairs, and so forth. The Book is well illustrated with photographs, plans and diagrams. Fill out the coupon or send a postal to-day.

JARVIS, ONT., JAN. 10 1912

Around About Us.

D. F. Caley has sold his farm, south of Waterford to Mr. Potts, of Woodhouse.

Mrs. Geo. B. Mattice of Simcoe passed away on Saturday, Dec. 30, 1911, at the age of 24 years.

George Benson has been sworn in as chief constable of Tillsonburg and as a constable of Oxford county. Fred Tripp has also been appointed a constable of Oxford county.

A very quiet wedding took place at Delhi, at the home of P. Danely on Wednesday, Jan. 3rd, when his daughter, Edna, was united in marriage to Arthur Hyde of Ashabula.

J. Robb of Selkirk left on Wednesday to take the management of the Bank of Hamilton at Selkirk, Man., B.C., and T. R. Griffin, former teller at Hagersville bank, took charge at Selkirk in place of Mr. Robb.

Miss Agnes Benson was awaited upon at her home Thursday afternoon by representatives of the R. F. U. and Baptist Sunday School, of Tillsonburg, and with a very handsome check.

The residence of Mrs. Martha Tremblay of Delhi was the scene of a pretty wedding last week when Miss Lillian Davies, of Delhi, was united in marriage to Louis Gabriel, of Bangor, Sask., by the Rev. T. L. Armstrong.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on New Year's Day at "Fern Dale Farm," Courland, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peterson, when their daughter, Major Ellen, was united in marriage to Charles Robert Marshall, of Tillsonburg.

A very quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. John Hertzog, on Tuesday, Jan. 2nd, when his daughter, Miss Mildred Brown, became the bride of James Conn, the ceremony being performed by Rev. J. J. Brown, all of Tillsonburg.

While playing hockey on Monday afternoon, Harry Moran of Delhi was struck in the mouth with the puck. It struck with such force that his upper lip was cut so badly that it necessitated three stitches. One tooth was knocked out and several loosened.

Death occurred on Friday to W. E. Young, one of the best known men in Tillsonburg after an illness of about a week from blood poisoning and pneumonia. The disease originated from a pimple on his nose which became poisoned, and pneumonia developing rendered the case beyond human aid.

Fred M. Wainess of Dunnville, one of Haldimand County's best known residents, died suddenly on Wednesday of this week, after a short illness, the cause of death, in the presence of a physician on his nose which became poisoned, and pneumonia developing rendered the case beyond human aid.

On Dec. 24, Edward L. Hodgson, merchant of Simcoe, died in Dr. Hicks' Sanitarium, Port Dover, after a short and painful illness in his 45th year of his age. Mr. Hodgson for some time was in business in Chicago, but owing to failing health he came to Tillsonburg, where there about three years ago, and upon the death of his father the late Robert Hodgson, succeeded to his business.

E. C. Carpenter of Simcoe is moving to Rochester, N. Y. where he and Mrs. Carpenter will in future make their home. Mr. Carpenter and his stepson, Clarence Carpenter are entering into business in that city, having purchased a hardware shop. Mr. Carpenter has been one of Norfolk's most prominent residents, and for twelve years was the Liberal member for Norfolk in the Provincial Legislature.

Sunday morning, Dec. 24th, Margaret Gordon, wife of Mr. James McBurney, of North Bay, formerly of Simcoe, passed away. Death came as the result of an accident sustained on Friday Dec. 8, while working about the house. She was engaged in Christmas preparations and her usual household duties, when, being very near the top of a flight of steps, she slipped up to turn on the light and in some way lost her balance, plunging down the stairs.

A leather pavement has stood a successful trial of a year near Birmingham. The material is leather waste, shredded almost to pulp, and treated with bitumen and tar. The road is not affected by heavy wheels, gives off little dust, resists wear, and is not influenced by weather. Its noiselessness and springiness give a novel kind of comfort to horses and drivers.

Medicines that aid nature are always most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allows the cough, relieves the lungs, opens the secretions and aids nature in restoring the system to a healthy condition. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. Sold by all dealers.

A happy event was solemnized on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Winger, of Springvale, when their daughter, Miss Esther Lewis, was united in marriage to Russell Campbell Walker, of Villa Nova. To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March the bride entered the parlor on the arm of her father, and looked charming in a white hand-embroidered gown of marquisette over white silk, with silk fringe trimming. She carried a magnificent bouquet of white roses and lily of the valley and was unattended. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful gold watch and fob. The music was played by the bride's sister, Miss Laura Bell, and the nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. H. Cadwell, of Hagersville. The happy pair were the recipients of many beautiful presents from a large circle of friends who were in attendance. The groom's friends from the bride's home were away gone, but the bride's friends were present. After a short honeymoon trip to Toronto and other points east the happy couple will take up their abode at the home of the groom, Walnut Grove Farm, Villa Nova.
