That's Why a Thankful Woman Recommends Parisian Sage

T. E. Morrow will sell you a fifty cent bottle of Parisian Sage and guarantee it to banish dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp, or money back.

"In the spring I was recovering from a severe case of erysipelas, which left me virtually bald on the front of my head and next to my ears. The hair kept coming out rapidly and nothing I used stopped my getting entirely bald, until I used two bottles of Parisian Sage. This tonic made my hair start to grow in and, in fact, grew me a good fair amount of hair, and it has entirely stopped my hair falling out."

It is with pleasure that I give a public recommendation to Parisian Sage, which I know is a wonder." Mrs. Ella Gilchrist, W. Pitt St., Bedford, Pa.

On Thursday it looked as if we were going to have a January thaw. It was quite mild and rain fell incessantly all day. But the weather man put a stop to it during the night and Friday morning the citizens had more snow to shovel, with Jack Frost by his side.

A large and merry crowd was in attendance at the C. O. F. ball on Thursday evening considering the very inclement weather. The music was all that could be desired and a very pleasant evening was spent by all who braved the storm. The next ball will be held on Feb. 1. Music by the Kindree Orchestra.

From week to week people call and ask for a spare copy of The Record with a mere thank you. We don't mind being generous but we wonder what kind of an answer they would receive if they were to ask the postmaster for a stamp, or ask the merchant for a paper of pins or a spool of thread. Our motto is live and let live.

A very interesting program is being prepared for the Union Literary Society meeting, to be held in the Sunday School room of the Methodist church next Friday evening, Jan. 26. It will be an "Ireland" evening throughout. Short addresses will be given on its situation, physical characteristics, etc., its history, its patron saint and national emblem, its poets and authors, its legends and folk lore and characteristics of the Irish people. Irish songs and recitations will also be given. C. H. Nelson has kindly consented to occupy the chair. The public are cordially invited. Program sharp at 8.

A social evening under the auspices of the Adult Bible Class of the Methodist church was held at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Sanderson on Friday evening of last week. After a number of games and contests had been thoroughly enjoyed lunch was served, after which a toast was made to the host and hostess, Charles Walters and a number of others giving short addresses. Mr. Sanderson made an appropriate reply. Then followed a program consisting of duets, recitations, etc. As Mr. Sanderson had handed in his resignation as superintendent of the Sunday School, after many years of service in Jarvis, Stratford and other places, his friends took advantage of the occasion and presented him with a handsome leather upholstered Morris chair, the presentation being made by Andrew Rodgers.

CHURCH NOTES. METHODIST CHURCH. Sunday School Anniversary services were held on Sunday when the pastor addressed the girls and boys at the morning service and the adults in the evening. On Monday evening a supper was served in the Sunday school rooms after which a program was given. Members of the church and congregation came from far and near and the social gathering was thoroughly enjoyed by young and old. Among the interesting features of the program was the reciting and singing by Master Eddie Miller who delighted the audience immensely. Addresses were given by Wm. Machell and Andrew Rodgers. Miss Mabel favored the audience with a solo and Miss Marion Davidson a recitation. The contributions exceed $40.00.

Subject for to-night's service "Charles Wesley." Miss Agnes Johnston will lead the discussion. Everyone invited. J. W. Chapman pastor of the Decewville circuit will preach morning and evening next Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddy will be at home to the members of the Quarterly Board and their wives on Friday evening Feb. 2.

ST. PAUL'S CHURCH. The announcement was made on Sunday that Archdeacon Belt intends going to the General Hospital to-morrow for treatment. The prayers of the faithful are asked on his behalf. He will be absent, probably, for three or four weeks, but hopes to return much stronger to resume his work. In the meanwhile the services will be carried on as usual. A clergyman from Hamilton is expected for Sunday.

The W. A. will hold their annual meeting for election of officers etc., at Mrs. Holmes next Tuesday.

The A.Y.P.A., will meet at the residence of Miss Ethel Snider on Monday evening next, instead of Tuesday, the usual night of meeting.

Lofthouse-Elliott

One of those interesting events which in human life mark the parting of the ways and open the portals to domestic felicity and future happiness occurred on Wednesday, Jan. 17th, 1912 at the Methodist parsonage, Jarvis, when

Before the pastor now they stand The bridegroom and the bride And who can tell what lovers feel In this their hour of pride.

Rev. Arthur Clare Eddy, B.D., united in marriage Miss Lillie Maud, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elliott of Garnet and Andrew Lofthouse of Sandusk. Miss Amber Elliott, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid while the groom was supported throughout the trying ordeal by his brother, Omer Lofthouse. The bride looked quite pretty in a beautiful and becoming suit of plum-colored Henrietta cloth with long coat and hat to match. The bride is one of Garnet's most popular young ladies, is a kind and loving disposition and we know that where she may be her home will be filled with sunshine from the fact that her sunny disposition cannot help but penetrate the dark clouds and chase all gloom away.

Mr. Lofthouse is a prosperous young farmer, in a model young man, industrious and well worthy of a good companion to share his joys and sorrows, assist him in the battle of life and cheer him in the time of trouble, and such he has, and to them we predict a happy and prosperous sail over the matrimonial seas. May Heaven's choicest gifts be showered upon them in the wish of their friends and they are legion. The happy couple left on an evening train for their wedding trip which will include Hamilton, Stony Creek and Van Wazer's Beach. On their return they will reside at Sandusk.

Jarvis Defeats Cayuga

Local show some form. Archdeacon J. A. Belt opened the game facing off the puck, he also gave the boys some good advice on this manly sport and how they should keep their temper at difficult moments, not only being a help to themselves but being a help to their team as well. It was a great struggle, but it must be admitted Cayuga was slaughtered 14-5. The referee was good and must be congratulated on the manner in which he handled the game. Quite a noticeable feature of the game was the absence of any rough play, so much in evidence during the game with Hagersville, when that team lost to the locals 9-4 on Wednesday evening of last week. Jarvis certainly beat the burrs of Hagersville and they are known as some bear catchers. Jarvis has a great team. They also have the support of the rooters for a good crowd were on the local rink. Monday night and they made themselves heard during the game. McAlpine was again the pick of the locals but the whole team played splendidly; Smith and Burkhardt were apparently playing in a little hard luck at times. Voigt guarded goal in the form while Reynolds and Miles did themselves proud as did also Lindsay. The boys showed they had the stuff and had Cayuga guessing in both halves and gave the immense crowd present a chance to yell themselves hoarse. At times Cayuga had very bad scares and had about five men defending goal and at times when they did get the puck they seemed afraid of it. People of Jarvis when you have a winning team get out and encourage the manly sport; don't be dead people, it only costs 25c.

NOTES. Stacy Burwash—Say, Campbell what do you think of your new man, now? Campbell—If he plays like this he can get off to play whenever there's a game. Miss Jones—I think Mac's a wonder! Miss Snyder—Didn't Burkhardt and Smith play well, but didn't they have bad luck?

Obituary

As the sacred old oak trees which have reared their heads and stood the battle of the breeze for the past ages are now few and far between, so are our hardy, industrious and energetic pioneers who faced the many storms and disappointments with cheerful and patient hearts to make this "Land of the Maple" what we, their sons and daughters, boast as the ideal country. They are now numbered in the Celestial city receiving due reward for their life this side of the river. The roll is now increased by another of our most worthy women in the person of Catherine Abercrombie, relict of the late Thomas Parkinson, who, after some months of illness, which she bore most patiently and hopefully, finished her earthly pilgrimage to enter the Golden Gates at three o'clock Friday morning, Jan. 18th, 1912, in her 73rd year. Some two years ago deceased suffered a stroke but partially recovered, only to be again stricken about a year and a half ago, which rendered her an invalid. She was born in Fernanburgh, Ireland but in the year 1861 she, with her mother, emigrated to this country, settling in Walpole township. In the year 1863 she became the happy bride of her departed husband. As the years rolled on children blessed their union, until eight merry little hearts made the hearthstone ring with their laughter and mirth. Of these children six are living, namely, Mrs. James Fryatt, Mrs. Robt. Wilson, Richard Parkinson, Mrs. R. C. Miller, Doc and Thos. Parkinson. Deceased was a good mother and wife and a woman who was the best of neighbor and by her death we lose a near and dear friend. While it is hard to say good bye to our earthly friends yet we must agree with the poet who says "What seems to me but sad funeral tapers may be Heaven's distant lamps" and also "Of times Celestial benedictions assume this dark disguise." The funeral was held on Sunday, and despite the very inclement weather a large concourse of sorrowing friends turned out to pay a parting tribute to their departed one; the service and interment taking place at the English church, Jarvis. Our deep sympathy is extended to the family and to Mrs. Catherine, sister of the late Mrs. Parkinson.

A western physician says there is no such thing as "blood purifier." Then our family forced sulphur and molasses upon us under false pretences.
