Stung Again!

"A gypsy woman landed in Simcoe on Friday last and succeeded in unloading dollars and dollars worth of machine made lace as the real hand made article. Several of her customers invested as much as $15.00. It was very aggravating for them to find out afterwards that for the same amount of the same quality of lace, any drygoods store in Simcoe would have gladly supplied their requirements for about 50 cents. A number of customers laid a complaint on Monday afternoon and had the two women before the Police Magistrate Beemer, and very willingly returned the handmade lace for their good money. This should be a good lesson for our citizens not to buy or deal with strangers."—British Canadian.

Wins Prize As Oldest Lady

The London Free Press contains a picture of Mrs. Jean Andrews, of Renton, with the following interesting mention: Mrs. Jean Andrews, of Renton, Ontario, is the winner of the prize for the oldest lady attending the Scotchmen's picnic on Saturday. Despite her 86 years, she is still actively interested in life, and spends a large part of her time in reading, sewing and embroidery, and at the latter is quite an artist. She was born in New Deer, Aberdeenshire, Scotland, and came to Canada in 1861. She is an aunt of Mr. P. J. Watt, of Riverview avenue, and widow of the late James Andrews of Renton. The prize for the oldest Scotchman on the ground was won by Mr. William MacLennan, of London, whose age is 80 years.

Hicks' Forecasts for July

A Reactionary Storm Period centers on the 3rd, 4th and 5th. The last stage is a regular storm period, starting the closing days of June, will barely have subsided before the barometer will again fall the temperature rise, cloudiness, rain, and showers will pass eastward across the country. These conditions will be prolonged, culminating in excessively high temperature, with thunder storms in many sections, on the 6th, on which date the moon crosses the celestial equator. A brief change to cooler, with moderate rise of the barometer, will follow these disturbances. A regular storm period is central on the 9th, involving the 8th to 12th, inclusive. The centre of the Mercury period fall on the 12th, extending from about the 5th to the 19th, and this fact will increase probabilities of rainfall during this period. On and about the 10th, 11th and 12th, a series of sharp thunders, with black, blustering clouds, will be general over most parts of the country. Some localities will get heavy downpours, but we figure that moisture will fall short of the general necessities of growing crops. A very low reading of the barometer during this period should be regarded and heeded as a danger signal. The barometer will react to higher, and change to cooler will follow behind these storms.

The annual meeting of the Women's Institute met at the Music Hall Saturday. Dr. Hamilton was called away so was unable to be present. Miss Margaret Allen of Jarvis gave a very interesting talk on "Home Nursing" which was thoroughly enjoyed by all. She also gave a reading "Aunt Doleful's Visit" in a most pleasing manner. A Suggestion to Correspondents

The following article is published exactly as written except that we cannot imitate the handwriting. This is just as well, however, as probably not more than one in one hundred could read it if we succeeded. We ask our contributors to read it, and if any wonder sometimes why their articles never appear in The Record, a few at least will find the reason below. We do not publish this in a spirit of fun-making—we sympathize fully with the friend who has evidently done his best to help us out with something interesting. But we wish to emphasize the fact that we cannot spend time to decipher and rewrite such articles, even though they contain something worth the while. If one cannot write legibly, spell correctly and express himself grammatically, he should get someone to write for him. Many otherwise good articles go into the waste basket because not properly written. There is no name at the end, merely "Hedges" may 1912" but a Canadian stamp indicates that it is from Canada. Punctuation for rather lack of it, and capitalization are just as written: "One Hundred Years ago and now one hundred years ago my Father Sarterd from London Derry to Philadelphia a Was sixteen Weeks on Sea on Landing had to give two Thousand Dollars Ball was prest out and three weeks in Camp was the only one that knew to Salute his officer was off not two Dollars per hour refused Then and now It is Said there Was a Poor Boy Walked into Philadelphia one morning with a penny Lofe under each arm that Boy turned out to be Sir B. Franklin Taught of God and Loved of men the first to invent electricity my Father Saw him working his Kit of tools was a Black Rottel Straw rope and a Chunk of Bees Wax. Then and now the Sney was Small then there was a man came there to Preach by the name of Girdin Cusley the Bildings war small and they had to Bild a stand he got up to Preach opened his Bibel last it on the Laid it on his Bibel there came a Breeze and took it over in the Crowd a man rose to get it he said Stop Friend if ita that lile let it lie I will Preach without it he Preached one of his Bist Sermons he had ever Preacht it is not the man that makes a minister My Father had the Sermon Then and now. D. P."

It is amusing to see how the desire to be "genteel" in speech is a pitfall to the feet of the uninformed. There are persons who think it a mark of refinement to say it has been "proved," instead of it has been "proven," and to use "gotten" in place of got. The latest fad seems to be the use of "may" where "can" should be used. "Caning" the "mavs" in the manuscripts that come to him is a task that every careful editor has to perform. "Why do you always use 'whilst' in place of 'while'?" asked the city editor of a new reporter. "Because I think it a nicer word." "All right," said the editor. "I think you'd better work in the janitorial department for a whilst."

$5 Bills

On Dominion day the new five-dollar Dominion bills were issued. The new note has been prepared and considerable numbers were given to the public on Monday. On the obverse side it has an extremely well executed Canadian scene—the Wentworth Valley in Nova Scotia, with an intercolonial train coming down the famous grade on the Folley Mountain. On the reverse side the numeral represented by the bill is repeated over and over again. It is a remarkable specimen of paper money, the denomination being evident at a glance, and the scene depicted being at once beautiful, artistic and thoroughly Canadian.

It Fits

A neighboring newspaper man's gasoline engine busted the other day. The editor being away, the devil explained the accident as follows. "When we started to run this edition off, the engine gave way, allowing the guiderlute to fall and break as it struck the plunger rod. This, of course, as anyone who knows anything about benzine can tell you will understand, left the gas, which with only the flipdip to support it, which also dropped and broke of the wapperchoke. This loosened the fluking between the ramrod and the fibre snatcher, which also caused trouble. The report that the trouble was caused by over indulgence in Peruna by ourselves is an issue of falsehoods, the peelen appearance of our right eye being caused by our going into the hatchway of the ashpan in our anxiety to start it and pulling the coupling pin after the slapping was broken, which caused the dindus to rise up and welt us in the optic."

Gala Day at Cheapside

Arthur Evans' beautiful park "Woodlawn" presented an animated scene on July 1st. The annual occurrence of Mr. Evans' Dominion Day picnic is now looked forward to by many in the vicinity as one of the pleasantest days in the year. On Monday the weather was ideal. A large number of horse vehicles and automobiles filled the approaches to the grounds while the grounds were filled with pleasure seekers. Three motor boats on the water to the north and out on the expanse of Lake Erie gave pleasure water trips to those who wished them. Sports and booths were well patronized. The New Credit Band entertained the proceedings with music. An evening shadow drew on, the pleasure seekers wended their way homeward well pleased with the day's recreation and voting Mr. and Mrs. Evans the best of hosts and hostesses.

The Improvement Committee have every reason to feel proud of the success which attended their strawberry festival and garden party at Orchard Lawn, on Dominion Day. The weather was ideal and all that could be desired and the immense crowd thoroughly enjoyed themselves. About six o'clock the crowd began to arrive and the tables were crowded till long after eight. There were abundance of strawberries and cream and the tables fairly groaned with the weight of good things placed upon them, to which every one did ample justice. The New Credit Brass Band was present and entertained the proceedings, being quite liberal with their selections, which were much appreciated. The program was also thoroughly enjoyed. J. J. Parsons acted as chairman in his usual happy manner and to the entire satisfaction of all. Rev. Monsinger and Dr. Sherk each delivered an interesting address. The Misses Mand and Annie Westerby delighted the dancers with well rendered selections from the piano and violin, thus proving themselves clever musicians. John Loug and J. C. Hare were heartily encoered after their solos which was indeed given in excellent style. Two young ladies from Jarvis, Misses Ethel Snyder and Shirley Rodgers sang into the hearts of the people with a power that few singers possess. Each singer possesses a sweet, well-trained voice of great compass and their singing was heard to great advantage. Jarvis may well feel proud of its clever young singers. The proceeds amounted in the neighborhood to $200.
