The Dominion Government since April 1st last, has burned $4,500,000 worth of dirty one dollar bills, and over $3,000,000 worth of $2 bills. Since April 1st, 1911, some twenty-seven and one half million dollars in small bills have been destroyed in this way. The bills have been replaced with new clean ones.

A London magistrate says he has had 300 couples before him in the past nineteen months, airing their marital troubles, principally due to drink. He is twitted with the fact that he voted against banishing bars at a synod meeting. Well, what if he did? Abolishing bars would not prevent anyone from getting all the liquor they wished at stores licensed for that purpose.

Here is something that may be of interest to dog owners. A recent Supreme Court decision outlines responsibilities of owners of dogs. The decision was a case where action had been brought to recover damages from the owner of a dog that barked and frightened the plaintiff's horse. The plaintiff was thrown and injured, and brought suit for $1500 damages. The jury gave him a verdict for that amount and the owner of the dog appealed to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court sustained the verdict and said in strong words that the owners of barking and vicious dogs are responsible for all damage caused by such dogs, and owners keep them at their own peril.

Here is one thing you should get ready for. You won't be treated very well when you are old. So put yourself in position to treat yourself as well as possible in old age.

Letitia Pugsley, wife of Joseph Fields, formerly of Nanticoke, died at her home in Port Dover Thursday afternoon, Nov. 14. Deceased leaves a husband and two daughters to mourn her loss.

A regular storm period involves the 23rd to 28th. Watch your barometer. This period calls for violent autumnal storms. Rain, sleet and snow, fierce gales and a sweeping, cold wave following will be the order.

Do not gauge your Christmas giving. There is nothing more despicable than to work off the back numbers or the shabby, useless gifts on the girl who "needs everything" and spend a small fortune on those who can spend on themselves.

Miss Margaret Maxwell of Hamilton spent Tuesday at the home of J. A. Burwash, saying good bye to her old friends before leaving for Chicago where she will attend the marriage of her niece Miss Roseine Jones and spend the winter there with Mrs. A. T. Jones.

"What were you and Mr. Smith talking about in the parlor?" asked her mother. "Oh, we were discussing our kith and kin," replied the young lady. The mother looked dubiously at her daughter, whereupon her little brother, wishing to help his sister said: "Yeth they wash mother. I heard 'em. Mr. Thmth atked her for a kith and the thaid: 'You kin!'"

Down Hamilton way folks appear about as easy as anything on the map. The latest trick is that a colored woman groans a few times up the back alley. "Long comes Hamilton Bigwad: wants to help her ribs, and as she founders around trying to juggle for her equilibrium, she pockets of the life saver are picked clean and dry. Strange that any person wanting to unload glass diamonds or raise a little easy money should always camp in Hamilton.

At this time of the year when taxes and other liabilities are falling due we are much in need of money. Record subscribers could help us considerably if they would look at the labels on their papers and remit at once the amount due. The labels were changed this week and we ask YOU to kindly take a look at the label on YOUR paper and if it does not suit you call or send in the amount required to place you as you ought to be—1914—and you will see it changed. Don't be termed a procrastinator.

Do not worry about your hair getting thin; the only disgrace lies in not having anything on the inside by the time the outside is bare.

Mrs. Wm. Parkinson and Mrs. Chas. Parkinson left Monday to spend a week at the former's daughter, Mrs. James Pollock at Thamesville.

Seven out of ten people who visit a country town, visit it with the hope of making a profit; seven out of ten who visit a city, visit it to spend money.

"As in a game of cards, so in the game of life, we must play what is dealt to us and the glory consists, not so much in winning as in playing a poor hand well."

A few friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Steel on Monday evening to help celebrate the former's birthday. The evening was most pleasantly spent and the lunch was most delicious and tempting. We join in wishing our good friend many happy returns of the day.

The W. A. of St. Paul's church are diligently working every day, preparing for their bazaar, which will be held on Thursday, Dec. 12. It promises to excel anything ever held in Jarvis and the ladies deserve credit for their untiring efforts. Those wishing to procure a Christmas gift will do well to wait for this bazaar.

How the sound of the voice does betray a person. Don't be peevish or querulous or angry or arrogant in talking through the 'phone. If the person doesn't hear you at first it may be your fault or the fault of the 'phone. And when you hang up the receiver with a sudden snap that means "Oh, Hang it" write yourself down a boor.

Our thanks are due Mrs. William Armstrong for a nice mess of potatoes and a large parsnip which was grown on the farm of her son at Morthach, Sask. We were also treated to a fine luscious apple from the same source. The potatoes are certainly a fine specimen and we doubt if they can be excelled in Jarvis, while the parsnip will make a nice meal for ye editor's family.

Pat and Mike, who were neighbors in the "Ould Country," happened to retire from public gaze about the same time, Pat had stolen a watch from a blind man, while Mike mistook a friend's cow for his own and sold it. As luck would have, were drafted to the same prison, and at church parade on Sunday morning they had a chance for a moment's forbidden conversation. Said Mike: "Top av the mornin' to you, Pat, an' phwat might the time be? Sure an' 'tis you that knows all about watches." But Pat was to be done. "Mike, my lad," he replied, "begorra, an' 'tis just about milkin'-time."

The Massey Harris Co. is constructing a new $65,000 office and warehouse at Yorkton, Sask. We received a copy of the Yorkton Enterprise in which it shows a cut of the mammoth building beside a write up of the building business and staff. The following taken from the write-up has reference to a former Jarvis boy and a son of Wm. Henning of town: "J. L. Henning, who has been with the company for the past sixteen years, is branch manager and recently moved to town from Saskatoon to organize the business. He will be assisted by L. P. Fortin as Chief of the Collection Department." Mr. Henning is one of those young men who are bound to reach the top of the ladder and it certainly gives us much pleasure to note his steady advancement. We congratulate J. L. and for him we bespeak a promising and successful career.

Miss Frances Le Pan who has been spending the past two weeks in Guelph, returned home Monday.

Dr. R. J. Baxter, uncle of Col. Baxter, of Cayuga, was elected Coroner of Ashtabula County, Ohio on the Democrat ticket by over 300 majority.

The family of the late Charles Lawrey desire to thank the friends for their kindness and sympathy during the illness and subsequent death of their brother.

There is a fatal flaw in the moral character of that young Toronto bank clerk, whose only excuse for passing worthless checks was that, as others did it without being caught, he thought he could do the same.

During the month of October there were 104 workmen killed and 324 injured in Canada, according to the records of the Dominion Labor Bureau. This emphasizes the necessity of some effective method of compensation.

Have you ever thought of all the papers printed in Ontario, there is only one Farm Business paper? That is The Weekly Sun, Toronto. For Farm news and market reports it is without an equal. If you want to make the farm pay you cannot afford to be without this paper.

Mrs. Geo. Bates of Welland was a guest at the home of Mrs. Elva Rodgers, Saturday evening and Sunday. Her son Walter is the popular young vocal teacher, who visits Jarvis weekly, but for the past two months has been touring the west.

An unfortunate Essex county woman lost her life through cutting a corn with her husband's razor. There has been many a joke cracked over this custom, but at least this fatality should tend to discourage a practice that militates against a clean shave.

A farmer's wife who had no very romantic ideas about the opposite sex, and who, hurrying from churn to sink, from sink to shed, and back to the kitchen stove, was asked if she wanted to vote. "No, I certainly don't," she said. "If say if there is one thing them men folks can do alone, for goodness sake let 'em do it."

Why should rowdy Toronto University students receive different treatment from the authorities than that meted out to any other kind of rowdies? If some of those chaps who destroyed property and scare people were sent down five or six months, they might change their conduct. They have been treated too long as if they were a lot of suffragettes parade.

Navigation on the Erie Canal came to a close last night. The report that its collector will present for the season is not a gratifying one—in fact, it is said to be the poorest in its history. It will prove depressing reading for our neighbors in New York state, and is regrettable. Prospering ourselves, our next thought should be for the welfare of others.

We have made a specialty of the auction sale bill business for several years and have received a liberal patronage to repay us for our efforts. This year we are prepared better than ever to satisfy the needs of those intending to have an auction sale. Do not give your list to be printed till you have called on us. Mail and phone orders given prompt attention.

At the morning service in St. Paul's church on Sunday the reciter chose for his theme "The Land of Sinim," taking his text from the book of Isaiah, chapter 49, verse 12. The subject was ably handled and as he expounded the scriptures his hearers were greatly impressed. The reciter explained the meaning of his text, being the land of China, a land to be evangelized, bringing out his remarks more vividly by several touching illustrations. He also pointed out the urgent need of missionaries in this dark, unchristianized land and that we use our every effort, time and money as God has prospered us. In round number he sought to impress the congregation of the millions in China who were yet in heathen darkness. In the evening Rev. Ross backed his remarks on the subject of "grey hairs" which was listened to with much interest.

Silent contempt often speaks louder than words.

Your friends are not as devoted to you as you think they are.

We not only believe in honesty, but that the people are not honest enough. If we knew how many of the people are only half honest, we would not give the figures, they would be so disgraceful.

An Iowa editor was asked, "Do hogs pay." He replied, "A good many do not; they take the paper several years and then have the postmaster send it back marked 'refused' or 'gone west'."

There are no less than 238 widows of the war of 1812 yet on Uncle Sam's pension roll. Must have been quite a lot of those old warriors who decided late in life that it was not good to live alone.

The Rev. Alfred Waller, vicar of St. Paul's, Southend, has allowed neither postmen nor milkmen to come to his door on Sunday for a quarter of a century. The household cooking is all done on Saturday.

Enough money went up in tobacco smoke in the United States last year to pay the entire cost of the Panama Canal and leave a handsome surplus over for its fortification. And the money spent is only one of the costs of a bad habit.

Rural mail delivery routes are being extended gradually, and it is expected that by the end of November 900 will be in operation in different parts of the country, while 200 more are being advertised. Ontario leads in the number of applications for the services.

The new rates for wireless telegraphic messages off the Canadian coast, announced some time ago, will become effective on December 1st. A feature of the new regulations is the provision that all telegraph companies must accept messages for transmission by wireless.

A Detroit Moving Picture manager announced from the stage the other evening that there was a man with a gun at the entrance waiting to shoot his wife and her male escort. The manager suggested that the couple could avoid the angry husband by going out the rear door. And they did eleven pairs of them.

Mother, have you seen the new games that The Record Office is advertising. I wish you would buy some of them. They have, snap, King in the nose, comical tivoili, old maid, finch, shoot the hat, Uncle Josh's trip, Punch and Judy, paracheese, dominoes, checkers and I don't know what all. What a lot of fun we could have this winter with any of them.

A treat is in store for those who avail themselves of the opportunity of attending the concert in the Music Hall, Jarvis, on Thursday evening, Nov. 28th which will be under the auspices of The Park Improvement Committee. An evening of Scotch song and instrumental music will be rendered by Mrs. Coutts-Bain, the Scotch prima donna and Harold Stauffer. Come out and give this well deserved committee lift.

James Whitcomb Riley, whose birthday was celebrated in the schools of Indiana last month, does not like to talk about his age. To those callers who asked him how old he was he smilingly replied that he was "on the sunny side of forty." The answer is in the spirit of the sunny side of forty." The answer is in the spirit of the poems that have made Mr. Riley beloved throughout the land, and the age he named is one that any person who has attained it is wise to cling to.

The attendance at Sunday school and the preaching services on Sunday last, considering the condition of the roads, was very encouraging. The singing of Miss Shirley Rodgers at the evening service was a most delightful and helpful feature. Mrs. Andrew Miller acted as accompanist.

Topic for to-night's service "The song of the Redeemed." Psalm 107. Service at 7:30. A cordial invitation is extended. Temperance and Moral Reform services will be conducted by the pastor next Sunday. Subject: "Isaiah's Duty—and Ours" On Dec. 15th the morning service will be devoted to the Trade Toll and Home Department of the Sunday School.

The Ladies' Aid will meet on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 27th.

The practices for the S.S. entertainment, Dec. 23, are progressing satisfactorily.

Fall Fair Prize Lists

The following article, republishing fall fair prize lists, was contributed to the Printer and Publisher of Toronto by Chas. F. Stone, of the Perth Examiner and will be heartily endorsed by the newspaper fraternity all over the Dominion. Mr. Stone writes as follows: "In the last issue appeared an article relative to the advisability of publishing the list of prize winners, at the several county and township fairs, in the several papers in the district, and asking for discussion on the same. I may say that not only do I publish a paper but am also unfortunately enough to be Secretary of a fair. I believe the publishing of the lists is a great imposition on the publishers who have to do it for nothing, while it is only read by a few of those who have exhibited. There is another point. It is practically impossible to have a strictly correct list prepared for the press, and the result is that no end of annoyance is caused the Secretary and directors in fighting the errors, while the Treasurer is also annoyed sometimes. If there were just one fair in a district, and it was a hummer, it would pay the society to have the list published, not so much because it would be read generally, but because of the advertisement. It would show the number of exhibitors, and the widespread interest taken. Cut out the publication of the fair lists unless it is paid for. The papers give enough free advertising for fairs, and the hundred and one other organizations.

To clean coffee-stained linen soak in cold water to which has been added a little borax. All coffee, chocolate, tea and fruit stains will disappear if boiling water be poured over and through the spot before the linen is washed. It is best to do this while the stain is fresh and damp.

To Whom it May Concern

This is to certify that the business of General Merchant, here to fore carried on by J. F. Smith and has this day been formed into a general partnership under the firm name of The White House Co., the head office at Jarvis, Ont., and branch stores at the village of Chesapeake and at the village of Nanticoke. All accounts due the said J. F. Smith and all debts, must be paid to and by The White House Co., J. F. SMITH

Printing too Cheaply

At a recent convention of master printers and newspaper proprietors of Lincoln and Welland counties, held at St. Catharines Monday, John Imrie, Sec'y of the Canadian Press Association, gave a talk on the cost system, which set those present thinking. It is quite probable that there will be a general increase in the price of job printing as it was shown that considerable work is now being done below cost.

EXTRA

The Record comes out this week as a ten-page edition, two pages being devoted to the H. S. Falls Co., Ltd., of Simcoe. A perusal of these pages will reveal the marked advancement and prosperity of this well-known firm. They are now being settled in their new home, a view of which can be seen in this issue, also the premises they occupied twenty years ago. Read their "Good will Offering" the prices will astound you and every reader will be convinced that the values offered will suit the poor man's pocket book.

Death of Rev. Robt. Carson

Rev. Robt. Carson, a superannuated minister of the Methodist church, died at his home in Rockford on Monday, Nov. 18. The deceased entered the ministry in 1867 as a probationer in the Methodist Episcopal church in Canada. After the union of various Methodist denominations in 1883 he became a member of the Guelph and subsequently of the Hamilton Conference. For some years he has made his home at Rockford, having been superannuated in 1902. He has been an invalid for some time. The funeral service was held to-day in the Rockford church, interment taking place at Hagersville.
