RAVAGES OF CHOLERA

Constantinople, Nov. 18.— (By way of Kustendje)—The Cholera epidemic ng the Turkish troops holding the line of fortifications at Tchataija in front of Constantinople is rapidby becoming worse. Over 500 cases are reported daily, and the total umber already exceeds 6,000.

Whatever hopes the Turks may have held of maintaining the line of defences at Tchatalia have been dis-signed by this outbreak of cholera. Ane eys-witness declares that he saw 268 corpses buried in one big trench at Hademkeui, the headquarters of the Turkish commander-in-chief, on Tuesday. The bodies were dragged to the spot on hooks and dropped into the trench, which was not nearly deep enough for the purpose, the covering of earth being very shal-While cholera is undermining the Turkish defences, it also at the same time constitutes a most formidable opponent to the Bulgarian advance, and it is generally believed here that the cutbreak has disposed of the question of even a temporary occunation of Constantinople by the Bulgarian troops. DISCUSSING ARMISTICE. Sofia, Bulgaria, Nov. 18.—The Turkish request for an armistice addressed by Kiamil Pasha, the Grand Vizier, to King Ferdinand, was discussed to-day by the Bulgarian Council of Ministers.

It was decided to reply that the Bulgarian Government would inform the other nations of the Balkan alliance of the step taken by Turkey, and would give them its reply as soon as possible after coming to an agreement with

After the allies have consulted, it is believed, negotiations for an armistice will be carried on by the commanding generals of the opposing armies, purely from a military point of view.

The negotiations can begin only after the Turks have accepted the conditions laid down by the Bulgarians, that in the meantime no further reinforcements of Turkish troops may be brought into the field of operations.

The Bulgarians are successfully break ing down the Turkish defensive lines at Tchatalja. The situation of the defenders is critical according to a despatch to Rochester, Nov. 18 .- At the close of day of addresses by fraternal delegates from Great Britain and Canada and representatives of religious and philanthropic associations organized in the interests of labor: President Samuel Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, defended the non-political policy of the federation and declared that the only thing that will end the struggle between capital and labor is recognition of the right of the toilers to the best of all that is produced. Earlier in the day addresses had been made by J. A. Seddon, of England, and Robert Smillie, of Scotland, represent-ing the British Trades and Labor Congress, and J. W. Bruce, representing the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress. Conditions of workers under the British flag were described as no worse than those in the United States. All three delegates declared that with slight differences conditions of laborers the world over were the same.

BEST FERTILIZERS

On Best Methods.

Toronto despatch: The Ontario Fruit Growers' Association resumed its sessions yesterday morning with a series of practical talks in the Horticultural Building at Exhibition Park, where the big fruit, flower and honey show is being held. Mr. P. J. Carey, Dominion Government packing and orchard demon--trator, discussed the question, "What Constitutes a No. 1 Apple?" He dwelt on the troubles that many packers have in making selections of the different grades defined by law. One difficulty that often confronts the packer occurs at times when his apples are not high grade, and this influences him to put inferior apples in packages intended for a higher grade. According to the speaker a No. 1 apple must have character, good size and good color for the variety.

Prof. J. W. Crow, of the Ontario Agricultural College, gave an address "What Fruits Shall the Ontario Shipper Put Into Boxes?" In the first place, nothing but No. I's should go into a box. When it is necessary to box No. 2's they should be strictly No. 2's, and the package should be labelled so. Only good varieties should be packed in boxes, because the box is coming into favor as a package for high-class fruit. If lower grades are boxed the reputation of the box as a container of first-class

The other beneficiaries, who are said to be well-to-do, are Sophia, aged 63, wife of Peter Williams, a Napanee, Ontario, lawyer, and Elizabeth, aged 65, wife of James Irvine, a farmer of Antverp, New York State.

It is nearly two years since Mrs. Hunt died in San Francisco, and the executors of the estate have searched persistently since then for Mrs. Simmone, only locating here here in Syracuse a few days ago. Mrs. Hunt's will provided that the estate should go to her husband and son, but as they predeceased her, a clause naming the three eisters as contingent beneficiaries became operative.

Mrs. Simmons was asked to sell her claim in the estate, which is tied up in Canadian real estate to a great extent, and may take some time to settle, but this she declined to do. Her two sisters have been here to see her in

AFTER THE BELL CO.

Independent Phone Companies to Renew Trouble.

Toronto despatch: The Canadian Independent Telephone Association, in seventh annual convention at the City Hall yesterday, devoted several hours to discussing the terms of a proposed standard form of agreement for an interchange service with the Bell Telephone Company. This agreement was before the Dominion Railway Board when the late Judge Mabee was chairman, and, with the exception of two clauses, the Independent and Bell Companies have agreed upon its terms. These clauses were suggested by Judge Mabee, and the Independent Association considered that the matter was practically settled, but General Manager Sise, of the Bell Corporation, in a recent communication to the Independent Association, declined to agree to these clauses as they now stand, and is said to have held out the threat that if the matter is taken to the Railway Board again his company would refuse to accept the other clauses, which are said to have already been agreed upon be-tween counsel of both parties. The convention decided to instruct its counsel, Mr. H. D. Gamble, K.C., to resubmit the whole matter to the Dominion Railway Board.

It was maintained in the convention at the disposition of Independents in the matter had been to secure an agreement which would be absolutely fair to both parties, and that every effort had been made to conciliate rather than antagonize the Bell Company.
