BELGIAN STRIKE

Populace Fears the Possibility of Disorders.

Brussels, April 14.-All the hopes that the general strike for manhood suffrage would be averted have vanished one by one, and it now seems certain that the most sweeping attempt yet made in the world's history to apply the methods of organized labor for purely political ends will begin Monday. The leaders of the movement display the utmost confidence and the trike fund now amounts to approximately $3,00,000, and fresh contributions garded it with concern, are now beginning to be badly seared, and their fears are increased by forebodings of disorders and brigandage, with which a certain section of the press is filled. Many storekeepers as a consequence have announced that they would close their establishments and place their valuables in security. The rush to obtain stocks of provisions is increasing.

The Sccialists, however, laugh at these terrors. They profess to believe that the measures they have taken are fully adequate to prevent serious trouble. They urge prohibition of the sale of liquors and the closing of saloous, and have themselves borbidden parades and meetings of their adherents.

The Marconi Inquiry Brings Startling Disclosure.

the Ministers.

London, April 14. - The Marconi committee yesterday furnished a startling surprise. The following is from the full report in The Daily News of the evidence of Godfrey Isaacs, a brother of Sir Ruius Isaaes, whose testimony was o long delayed. He entered the witness a statement which was a model of lucidity, and delivered it without the aid of a single note. His evidence changed the situation completely. Step by step he led up to the dramatic disclosure of what, in his opinion, was the original of the rumors regarding British Cabinet Ministers, Amid considerable excitement which he invited the closest investigationtion. One of these was from a stock broker, Mr. Hawkins, who was prepared to come before the committee and swear to the statements. Therein he states that in the summer of last year he was present at a dinner party. when a gentleman, whose name he was prepared to disclose under oath. and who whe also a stock broker.

be prevented by an attack on the Min-isters. A further letter stated that in a dinner table conversation this gentleman, whose name may be made available, mentioned two members of Parliament, who, he said, were to attack the Marconi contract in the Many Changes Affecting he is prepared, if summoned to the witness chair, to state the names of the two members who were mentioned at the dinner. The revelations came with greater force because of previous events. Mr. Isaacs had given a masterly review of the strategy whereby in a fortnight he had organ pany, absorbing the United Wireless, but more persinent to the inquiry was his solemn declaration that never had he or his company (the British concern) a deal in shares beyond the single act of placing them, while his own holdings, 2,500 shares of which were still retained. were merciy the same as those of his co-directors. He did not know until October that Sir Rufus Isaacs, Attorney-General had taken over 10,000 of the shares allotted to Mr. Henry Isaacs, and did not know of Mr. Lloyd George's holdings until the Matin case. He did not engineer the boom, and did not want it, but he still believed in the future of the Marconi Wireless in Suffragette Demonstration in Albert Hall Orderly.

Funds For the Campaign Grow Rapidly.

London, April 14.—The Suffragettes held their demonstration at Albert Hall to-night without the presence of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who is still in Holloway jail, although she announced at the time she was sentenced that she would be at this demonstration. Mrs. Pankhurst said she would "break the prison bars" by, or before,

The public did not interfere with the meeting, at which there was the usual suffragette enthusiasm and vows to continue the attacks on property. Prominent persons who attended the meeting or sent letters regretting their inability to be present included Mr. Healy, the Irish M.P.; J. F. L. Rolleston and wife, and Lady Maitland. The tickets announced that Mrs. Pank-Robert Milliken, B. Mr. Lansbury, a former member of Parliament, appealed to the men to form a militant league and emulate the women in destroying property of every kind.

A RECORD HAUL.

A record haul of subscriptions was announced, the total with the results of the "self-denial week" reaching $75,000. Many of the subscriptions came from various branches of the Women's Social and Political Union, but there were some big individual gifts. One woman These present at vesterday's session some big individual gifts. One woman were: Rev. Drs. Carman and Chown, gave $6,000 and another $5,000. Still another contributed her wedding ring and a gold chain. Several gave watches ind jewelry. The announcement of the total subscriptions was greeted with tremendous enthusiasm, "General" Drummond exclaimed: "That is our answer to the Government's Cat and Mouse bill" the Suffrageties' designation of Home Secretary McKenna's bill to make them serve out their sentences. "Money speaks, and members of the Cabinet who dabble in Marcani shares know it. This money will be used by the organization. It does not take much to buy a match-box and a little parafile. "BURN HOLLOWAY JAILA" A woman in one of the galleries nouted. "Let this meeting go now and

Rome cable: The change for the better in the condition of Pope Pius X. was absolutely certain to-day. and the amelioration is so marked tonight that if no complications intervens the speedy recovery of his Holiness to normal health seems practically assured.

There was a complete absence of fever to-day, and signs that the Pope's strength is beginning to return, and the reappearance of cheerfulness in the patient are all indications that even the felapse of influenza which the Pope surfered on April 8 has been mastered.

In fact, the Pontiff was again able to hear Mass this morning and to take Communion. He even sat up in bed while hearing a report from the Papat Secretary of State, Cardinal Merry del

His Holiness also granted a longer conversation than usual to his sisters nd niece, who, although dressed entirely in mourning because of the recet don'th of an elder sister of the Pope, showed unmistakable signs of relief at the apparent improvement in the Pope's health

THE DOCTOR'S STATEMENT. Prof. Marchiafava made the following statement to-night "The Pope is much better. If there are no complications he will have entirely recovered in a few days. The Pope's constitution is robust, and he has never wasted his strength. The heart and other organs have done their duty and are performing their functions normally.

"The Pontiff and completely re covered from the original attack of influenza: even convalescence was over, and perhaps the relapse is due to the repeated changes in the temperature these last days, during which the Pope gave several audiences.

"The present illness from which th Pope is suffering is merely a recurrence supervened, and no clarming symptoms has been present. Certain symptoms, however, which remain, and which we must eliminate, are incident to influenza and the age of the patient.

"The Holy Father has always been energetic and a hard worker, and suffers when under restraint in bed, but we hope that all symptoms of his and Mrs. Israel Zangwill, Timothy present trouble will soon disappear and that he will regain his customary vigor and charming good humor. Probably, if the advice of the medical attendants is followed, as I am sure will be the case, the attack will not leave any ill effects of cause any change in his mode of life.

"The Pope certainly needs a period of rest. He must take great eare, but I can affirm that within a few days-perhaps two or three-if nothing unforeseen occurs, he will be able to resume, at least in part, the ordinary eccupations of his high ministry."
