Counting Out

A little more fixed at close of day. A little less anxious to leave our way. A little less ready to snarl and

A little more care for a leather's name. And so we are nearing the journey's end.

Where time and eternity meet and blend. A little less care for bonds and gold

A little more jest in the days of old. A broader view and a saner mind. And a little more love for all mankind. A little more careful of what we say. And so we are faring and won the day.

A little more love for the friends of youth. A little less zeal for established truth.

A little more charity in our views. A little less thirst for the daily news. And so we are folding our tents away. A passing in silence at close of day. A little more leisure to sit and dream.

A little more real the things unseen. A little bit nearer to those ahead. With visions of those long-loved and dead. And so we are going where all must go.

To the place the living may never know. A little more laughter, a little more tears.

And we shall have told our increasing years. The book is closed and the prayers are said.

And we are a part of the countless dead. Thrice happy, then, if some soul can say,

"I live because he has passed my way."

A good home is not purchased with money nor can it be maintained by hirelings. In the most magnificent mansions are sometimes found the most desolated and unhappy hearts. The children of today are to be the founders of the homes of tomorrow. Are they being trained in lines that promise perpetuation of the joys of this most sacred place? Are the scenes and surroundings of their lives such as to make it easy and natural to travel in those paths that lead to long and continued peace? Are not some of the so-called best parents thoughtlessly teaching their wayward dishonesty and falsehood, and by their example establishing in the child's mind the same habits of life? The parent who makes a tempt he does not intend to fulfill, is planting seeds of untruthfulness in the youth's mind that if they do not yield a crop of falsehood will one of disrespect for the unwine parent.

Many a bare-faced lie is old enough to have wrinkles.

CHRISTMAS APPEAL FOR THE HOSPITAL FOR SICK CHILDREN

COLLEGE ST., TORONTO

Dear Mr. Editor:— Thanks for your kindness in allowing me the privilege of appealing at this Christmas time on behalf of the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto. It would take more space than you can spare to tell of the good work done for the sick and deformed children of this Province. Let me, however, in a few words, tell you of the progress of the work of the Hospital.

One nurse, six little white beds, a few dollars, a few friends—this was the beginning. The beds have grown to 250, the dollars to thousands, the friends to hundreds. 1875, the first year, 44 in-patients, 67 out-patients; 1913, last year, 1,648 in-patients, 25,507 out-patients; 1875, 1 nurse; 1913, 79 nurses.

Since 1875, thirty-eight years ago, the Hospital has admitted within its walls 21,018 children as in-patients, and 159,231 as out-patients, a total of 180,249, or an average of 4,745 per year. Of the 21,018 in-patients, 15,200 came from Toronto, and 5,818 from other parts of the Province; 19,150 of the total in-patients were cured, and 6,367 were improved.

In the Orthopedic Department last year, of the 1,648 in-patients, 278 were treated for deformities, 25 hip disease, 37 Pott's disease, 2 knock-knees, 19 bow-legs, 62 club feet, 3 lateral curvature of the spine, 44 infantile paralysis, 6 wry neck, and 75 tubercular disease of knee, hip and ankle. In 1913, the Surgical Apparatus Shop manufactured 427 appliances for in-patients and out-patients, including ankle braces, spinal braces, hip splints, bow-leg splints, club-foot splints, plaster jackets, etc.

In this Department in 38 years nearly 800 boys and girls have been treated for Club Feet and 654 corrected. Half of these came from places outside of Toronto. Surely we have a fair claim for help from the people of this Province.

Will you, the reader of this letter, help to give crippled children a fair start in life? Busy dollars are better than idle tears. The sympathy that helps is good, but the Hospital has to have the sympathy that works.

All Clothed in. Christmas Attire Ready to Greet You.

This can be a Beautiful Christmas

If all we do, we do with cheer and courtesy. If all we buy, we buy with thought and care. If all we give, we give with loving kindness. And if all our thoughts can go outside of ourselves into the happiness of others.

Take a little recess to-day and get at your Christmas choosing. Two hours off to-day will be no more than two hours some other day, and the probable easier choice with the larger assortment and the easing of your mind of the feeling of a duty to be performed is something.

All our stocks are large and attractive and yet every day we sell out of certain imported things that cannot be replaced in the short period before Christmas.
