The Boy Scouts

An Appeal for Men

Boys eyes everywhere are keen to do the right thing, ready to play the game, and ready for the right men to lead them.

In the Scout Movement it is not any trouble to get boys. Our problem is to get the men to lead, and there are thousands of men who would be willing to help if they realized the importance of boy life upon the future of Canada. A little sacrifice, the giving of a few—for what? To assist in moulding good citizens for Canada. Men why not give a little time to the boys of your community? You will be the stronger and feel better for having devoted some little time to the training of the boys along lines which tend to better citizenship and a clean generation of boys.

The Scout movement is trying to take care of the boys during their play, each part of the training tending towards making manly men. No greater asset can we give to the Empire than a race of Up-right, Manly, Clean, Canadian boys.

Will not someone start the good work in your community for the benefit of your boys? Are there not some who will say "I will help the lads to become better citizens." Will you help? If you will take time to look into the work and training of the Boy Scouts your answer will be "Yes."

Any information in connection with the Movement will be gladly forwarded upon application to The Secretary, Provincial Headquarters for Ontario, Bloor & Sherbourne Sts., Toronto,

Passing of an Old Resident

One of the oldest and most respected residents of Norfolk died at the home in South Walsingham on Nov. 28th in the person of Mr, Ozias Boughner. He was born in Welland coudty, Sept 5, 1826, and moved to Selkirk, Haldimand county, with his parents when quite young. When a young man he married and moved to Norfolk county and for sixty-two years lived on the farm on which he then settled. Mrs. Boughner, who shared his fortunes for nearly sixty years, died about four years ago. With his own hands he cleared up the farm on which they lived and died. He was held in high respect thruout the community during the whole of the community during his long life, for he was a consistent Christian man, a member of the Baptist church, and honorable and straightforward in all the affairs of life. He was a liberal in politics, and had taken the Globe newspaper ever since its inception. The two sons, George and Henry, are worth successors of an upright father. The funeral on Sunday was very largely attended. The service at the home was sympathetic, and the last rites at the grave a. Ft. Royal were solemn and impressive.—Port Rowan News.

Claiming she had been humiliated and ridiculed because her picture was used for advertising purposes by the Monarch Knitting Co., Ltd., of Dunnville and Buffalo, Katheryn J. Bruggeman, a handsome brunette, tall, slender, stylishly attired in the height of fashion, and having large black eyes which she knows how to use to advantage, asked Justice Brown in equity court at Buffalo on Tuesday of last week for an injunction restraining the defendant company from using her photograph further and also for $10,000 damages.

Justice Brown, at the close of the case, said he did not see how he could rule with the plaintiff, but ordered briefs filed this week. on which he will hand down his decision.

Miss Bruggeman showed pictures in which her likeness appeared as attired in woolen goods on the advertising pages. These illustrations, she said, were published with her verbal consent, but not with her written consent, as rescribep by law.

However, the testimony developed, she willingly went to the photographer, donned the company's manufactured garb and posed for the photos.—Dunnville Gazette.

Mill for Welland

Welland, Dec. 11.—A proposal to erect a large cotton mill in Welland to be known as the Industrial Commissioner, and a special meting of the Council will be held to-moraow morning to consider the proiosal The trustee of the new company is L. T. Decount, of Boston, who is a shareholder in the Empire Cotton Mills of Welland. The company is capitalized at $200.00, and their proposition is for Welland to put up a building costing about $1,000.000. This amount is to be paid back by the company in ten years. Mr. DeCourt is also connected with the Sovereign Cotton Mills, which intends putting up a plant here worth over a million dollars. The Empire Cotton Mills intend erecting a large addition in the Spring, so that Welland will soon be a cotton centre of Canada.
