Best Wishes for A Merry Christmas AND A Happy New Year

Christmas Song

O'er Bethlehem town
A star looked down
When shepherds watched by night
And wise men gazed
With hearts amazed
To see the wondrous sight.

"Beloved star,
We follow far,
They said. An angel voice
Upon the air
Rang full and clear.
I sung: "Rejoice! Rejoice!"

"A child is born!
"The Christmas morn!
Then sing, dear children, sing,
For history's page
In every age
Shall hail the Child a King."
—Lydia Avery Conroy.

December

December is a joyful month,
Which is known far and wide,
In it there comes the bright New Year,
And the happy Christmas tide.
To us it brings the sleigh-bells,
The snow, in the moonlight glitters,
And when I think of this great joy,
I'm sure I scarce can wait.

On Christmas Eve, the children
Before the grate, their stockings fix
In hopes that dear old Santa,
Will fill them with candy-sticks.
The snow, in the moonlight glitters,
And both young and old are enticed,
All the land is rejoicing,
And celebrates the Birth of Christ.

The mother who allows the blues and the walks to overshadow the home, who allows herself to be moody and depressed, who fails in her duty and places a hardship on her husband and children in the race of life.

There are men who will cringe and scrape and bow to the women in their own spheres, or abase them in social halls, who are hoarse enough to only talk to the women who have not their social prestige. Such a man is thoroughly ill-bred and by so doing he lowers himself fifty per cent. in the estimation of all sensible people.

Tom Longboat, the great Indian long distance Marathon runner, may never race again. He fell the other day while in the bush and broke one of the bones in his right leg. Every attention is being given to the injury at his home on the Caledonia Reserve but the doctors fear the Indian may never come back to form.

We receive many complaints from subscribers that they are not receiving their papers after notifying us change of address. Almost invariably we find the names entered correctly on our list. So many new changes are being made on account of rural delivery that errors by post masters cannot help but be made. As soon as the names become familiar there will probably be no cause for complaint.

The person that tries each day to do a little something that will cause smiles to dawn on a sad heart; that will win a word of associates better and more cheerful and happier, that person is one of God's noblest of creatures and is a benefactor to all mankind. Smiles and cheerful words in this world are worth so much. Like the pebble dropped into the lake, they cause the wave to go on and on and on, rippling merrily, and find lodgment in hearts. They are God's best agencies.

No More Sulphur Gas?

A report comes to hand this morning that the Government has forbidden the Gas Companies supplying sulphur gas to their patrons from the Tilbury fields. Consumers are rejoicing all along the line, but feel that the Government were truly justified in their action in the interest of the public health.

The Late James Henson

In the past few weeks a beautiful Christmas tree, the people of Jarvis, Ontario, have been looking forward to with great interest. It was a tree of peace and goodwill, and it was a tree of hope and joy. It was a tree that was planted by the late James Henson, a man who was a true friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great character and a man of great faith. He was a man who was a true friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great character and a man of great faith. He was a man who was a true friend to all who knew him. He was a man of great character and a man of great faith.

Christmas Home With Mother

Christmas in the city, with its streets of light and color, Christmas in the village with its quietude and peace, Christmas in the home with its warmth and love, Christmas in the heart with its joy and hope. Christmas is a time when we are reminded of the love of our mother, the love of our home, the love of our life. Christmas is a time when we are reminded of the love of our mother, the love of our home, the love of our life. Christmas is a time when we are reminded of the love of our mother, the love of our home, the love of our life.

With all good will we wish you the old, old cheer, "A Happy New Year."

May good cheer attend you and may the new year usher in for you a season of great prosperity. For the favors of the past year we thank you heartily and look forward eagerly to so attending to your wants the coming year that you will feel it increasingly desirable to trade with HOFFMANN, the house furnisher, Simcoe.

Hockey Meeting

A very enthusiastic meeting was held last Thursday night in the parlors of the club house at Jarvis to organize Gannet's hockey team. After a good deal of discussion concerning practice rights and other matters, the following were elected: Captain—Gordon Stewart; Vice-Captain—Gordon Stewart; Secretary—Gordon Stewart; Treasurer—Gordon Stewart; Manager—Gordon Stewart. The meeting was a success and it is hoped that the team will be a success.

Life Passes

Mr. and Mrs. L. Davidson of Banfield street, have the deep sympathy of the whole community in the great loss they have sustained through the death of their youngest daughter, Beatrice Isabel, in her 12th year. The little girl was one of the brightest children in our town, being talented in several ways, and very popular with all her young acquaintances. As a member of the Presbyterian Sabbath School and excercises and concerts, Beatrice was always one of the most active and talented participants. A great many floral offerings bore evidence of her popularity, the Public School children, the S. S. Class and many others sending wreaths and sprays. The funeral services to-day were conducted by the Rev. R. G. MacBeth, and were largely attended.—Star Transcript.
