ARE YOU VERY BUSY?

Every little while you read in the paper that so many persons have died from Consumption.

It is all very far-off and matter of fact and possibly it scarcely arrests your attention.

Do you ever realize that each one of those "cases"—more items in an official report—is a black tragedy to somebody, that behind each one of these lies long, hopeless days of pain, feverish nights of agony, agonizing fears that must be laid to rest, agonizing fears, perhaps a wife to be left alone, perhaps a child to be left without a father in the world?

Just imagine it was your tragically ill brother, sister, mother, your child, or perhaps your sweetheart, and you with the hospital doors close in your face, winging your hands in utter helplessness while the crowds hurry by, engaged in their own affairs.

But not you are in that crowd and you don't hear either because you are busy—But wouldn't you give—and gladly—if you knew that what meant a little to you would go far to bring back the gladness somebody's near one or the laughter of somebody's child?

Just do, and think of the one you love best in the world. Think "If I do by this" or "If I do by that" and you have it made. What would be some of your plans and your busy days then?

For eleven years now the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives has cared for those whom others love best, and hundreds of them have gone home again well and happy. It keeps its doors open because a few busy people like you stop for a moment and remember.

Are you going to remember this Christmas? Don't put it off. Use the attached form in sending your contribution.

Making a Newspaper

The making of a newspaper is something like building a house. The reporter and editors furnish the lumber and brick and stone and mortar and the printer lay the foundations, build the walls and do the finishing. Should they so desire they can raise a beautiful structure, or they can throw together an abomination in the sight of all. They can ruin all that beautiful material; they can spoil the best story ever written; they can wreck the fondest hopes; a careless error on the printed page can make an editor the laughing stock of his town and yet the fault is not his.

Fame is a bubble, but blowing a fellow up won't always bring it to him.

Close Season for all Game.

Attention is directed by Game Warden Vokes to the fact that the close season for all game closed on Monday Dec. 15th. From that date, until the open season arrives next year, no rabbits nor other animals may be shot or trapped, nor any birds other than the crow, blackbird, English sparrow and hawk.

Save Your Money

WHAT a man earns is not as important as what he saves. An office boy making $2 a week, of which amount he saves $1, is actually earning more than the $2 a week man who saves nothing. The boy's business is paying a dividend; the man's is a failure.

No matter how small your salary may be, you make a serious mistake when you fail to save part of it. When you get your next week's salary, make up your mind to deposit a certain percentage of it in the bank, where it will draw interest at the highest current rate.
