KNOX CHURCH

The first meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society, under the new organization, held on Saturday, 8th inst., in the Sunday school room of the church, was a very interesting one. The subject was "David Livingstone" and the ladies who had charge of the meeting were all in their places. After the opening exercises, conducted by Miss Abraham and Mrs. Butcher, Mrs. Booth sang a solo, "Dear Little Flower." A paper on "The Early Life of Livingstone" was read by Miss Lenora Allen, best part of the evening.

His boyhood, his education and the friends of his youth. He was born in Blantyre, Scotland, in humble circumstances and at the age of ten had to leave school to work in a mill. He went to night school and by hard work and application to study received a very good education. He afterwards studied medicine with a view to going out to Africa as a medical missionary.

Miss Margaret Allen followed with a most interesting talk on "Livingstone's Missionary Life." She told how he refused the offer of a church in Capetown as soon as he arrived in Africa and took that perilous trip to the interior; how he worked among the natives, ministering to their physical needs as well as teaching the gospel. A significant fact about Livingstone's work was that he had more opposition from the Boers and Portuguese than from the natives, because he tried to suppress the slave traffic which was a very lucrative business to the traders.

Another great obstacle was the deadly fever prevalent in that country, but notwithstanding all these difficulties the veteran missionary gave thirty years of his life to the work and finally died in harness. His remains being taken to England and honored with interment in Westminster Abbey. Miss Lillian Allen sang "The Perfect Day" and the meeting was closed with singing the hymn "Go ye into all the world." The Social Committee then served refreshments and the calendars for the year's work was distributed. Each family connected with the church should receive one of these calendars.

Rev. Mr. McIlroy of Hagersville will conduct the service next Sunday, Feb. 16th, morning and evening and will also preach at the Stone Church in the afternoon.

The preliminary hearing in connection with the robbing and assaulting of an Indian named Roger Montour on Saturday, Jan. 25th, was held in the council chamber on Saturday last. Mr. Montour, or train No. 37, was in the company of Charles Doolittle of Belmont, and with the case. After hearing the evidence, Chas Doolittle was acquitted and the other two were held for trial.

About 35 from here attended the O.H.A. hockey match at Simcoe on Friday evening last. Harry Reed, of Regina, is spending his winter with his relatives in town. Mrs. Pinkerton of Toronto, and Misses Barry, of Niagara Falls, are the guests of Mrs. Kent. Mrs. Ethel Smith, of Brantford, is the guest of Mrs. Stanley Alward. Neil Evans, of Danville, spent the week end in town with his parents. What might be called a fortunate accident happened at the M.C.R. tracks on Saturday evening. Passenger train No. 37 was just pulling out of the station when the axle on the drive wheel of the engine broke and threw the engine off the track. Had the train been going at full speed it would have been a terrible accident. The C. T. R. trains were held up for about an hour until the train could be pulled off the diamond.

The sudden death of Mrs. Robt. Chislett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fowler, occurred on Monday at her home in Buffalo. The end came with startling swiftness. She had not been in good health for some time but on the day of her demise was sitting at the table and being seized with a sinking spell expired before a physician could be summoned. Deceased was of a bright and happy disposition and was beloved by a wide circle of friends. She was in her 26th year. The funeral took place from the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Fowler, Hagersville, Friday afternoon, Feb. 7th. Interment being made in Hagersville cemetery. J. McCraw, formerly G. T. R. Y. P. A. Warrie Jackson's horse took fright the other day at some object and ran away throwing Mr. Jackson and his two sisters out into the ditch, but we are pleased to state that no one received any injuries. The horse ran until it came to the church shed where it turned in. W. Ward captured a large mink after tracking it for three miles.
