The above will be read with much interest by the people of Jarvis and vicinity, the recipients alluded to being former residents of Jarvis, Mr. MacLennan being minster of Knox shurch for some time. The onglegations are to be congratulated on ecuring such an able and earnest man to lminister to their spiritual needs, and e feel certain that with the aid of his ngregations the good work will flourish d much good will be accomplished. The duet contributed by Miss Lillian Allen and Stan. Mortimore was pleasing indeed and made a deep impression on their hearers. Mr. Mortimore also rendered a beautiful solo in fine style which was much appreciated by the large assemblage. On Monday evening the weather man again favored them with ideal weather and from the first tap of the bell until long after eight o'clock a constant stream of people poured into the church. The supper tesified-like it always has done in the past to the genuineness and generosity of the ladies and friends of the congregation; there was an abundance of fowl and pastry delicacies without end. As soon as supper was ended the people passed to the auditorium of the church, which was soon hiled to its utmost capacity, chairs and benches being brought into requisi tion. The program was furnished by the Dunbar Male Quartette and Bellringers. The various selections on the bells, which was much enjoyed, were indeed quite masterly and they were heartily-enchored to which they graciously responded. The proceeds amounted to $382.
