Mr. Business Man, have you noticed how the farmer is using the advertising columns of the papers of late? If he has anything to sell he makes it known in the Jarvis Record. If he has an auction sale he no longer relies upon posters but pays additional cash to have it announced in the paper. It was not so a few years ago. The lesson is that the farmer reads closely the advertising columns and knows that his fellow-farmers do likewise, hence that advertising pays. Yet some business men are slow to learn. There is not a business in town, no matter how small or of what kind but would benefit and grow by advertising.

Does advertising pay? is a question which needs scarcely be asked in this age.

In order to make advertising successful, however, it is necessary to back the advertisement by proof of its correctness. If a man advertises that he has certain goods at certain prices and fails to have them he need not be surprised if advertising fails.

Death of Mrs. Forrest

This week it is our sad duty to chronicle the death of one of Walpole's most esteemed citizens, another wife and mother has been called to pay nature's debt. We refer to the death of Caroline Snell, beloved wife of John Forrest, whose death occurred on Wednesday, July 2nd, after an illness of many weeks. The deceased was taken ill early in the spring and for many weeks her life hung as on a thread, her friends looking hourly for the end. All that medical aid and fond and watchful nursing was done but the hand of death could not be stayed and with that Christian fortitude and implicit confidence in the Divine plans of the Great Architect, of the Universe, which had always characterized her life, she faced the inevitable calmly, peacefully and bravely and on Wednesday she passed peacefully away. Mrs. Forrest was a life long resident of Walpole and her death will be felt by all who knew her. She was a member of the Methodist church, was a woman of noble character and of whom it may truly be said, did her best to leave the world better than she found it. With her the claims of God and righteousness stood first and those in distress or sickness found one for whom they could call for sympathy and help. Deceased was married to John Forrest, of Walpole, twenty-three years ago and one daughter, Miss Viola, blessed their married life. She also leaves a husband, five sisters and two brothers. The sisters are Mrs. Chas. Stallwood, Mrs. Geo. Harrison, of Walpole, Mrs. James Swing, Hagersville; Mrs. Featherstone, Hamilton; and Jemima, unmarried. There are two brothers, George and Henry, of Walpole. The floral offerings were exceptionally beautiful, consisting of wreath from husband and daughter. Cross from sisters and brothers, Spray, Home Circle, Jarvis; Spray, Erie Woman's Institute, Star, Mrs. Kalzenmore and Mr. and Mrs. Stillwell Bouquet, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Swing, Anchor, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dick and family, Crescent, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Moore and son. The friends have the sympathy of the whole community. The funeral took place on Friday and was one of the largest ever attended in this vicinity. A short service was held at the house and also at the Methodist church, Jarvis with Rev. Mr. Foote conducting the services. The pall bearers were Jas. McCarthy, Jas. Dochastler, Wm. Start, F. J. Inoson, David Hill and Wm. Devine. They laid the body to rest in the Springvale cemetery.

Nanticoke.

Miss E. Bryant spent Thursday and Friday of last week.....The White House Co., will have their store in the Town Hall until further notice.....David Vokes had his barn raising Saturday afternoon.....Confirmation was performed by Bishop Clark in the English Church Sunday morning.....Rev. Mr. Shields, the new Methodist preacher, gave his first sermon Sunday morning.....A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Hughes last Thursday. (Intended for last week)

On Friday evening, June 27th, almost the entire congregation of Nanticoke Methodist church assembled in the basement of the church to bid farewell to their pastor, Rev. H. Monsinger. A very pleasant evening was spent in social intercourse and singing and at the close Mrs. W. H. Evans read an address while Miss M. Hind made the presentation of a purse of $30.00. As was stated in the address the congregation did not feel that they could in any way repay their pastor for his love and kindly sympathy during the four years he has spent on this circuit but they wished to convey him in a small degree the love that each one bears to him and to Mrs. Monsinger expressing their sorrow that he can no longer be their pastor. Mr. Monsinger then made a short address thanking the people for their kindness and Mrs. Monsinger also made a brief address. A lunch was then served and the evening closed by singing "God be with you till we meet again." Miss M. E. Thompson is spending a week at Villa Nova and Bealton.....Mr. and Mrs. Corrigan and Clyde have arrived town to spend a few days at their pleasant home.

Announcement.

Dear Sir or Madam: It gives me great pleasure to inform you that I have been successful in securing the Sole Agency for the Canadian Edition of the Modern Chart of the Royal Family for this territory. The Chart is the only one of its kind in existence; costing over $4,000 to produce in England, it is composed of 110 Royal Copyright Photographs which are traceable in the following manner:—First a red lineage cord is run from the late Queen Victoria and her husband; suspended from it, in green and gold frames, are their family from each of these a black lineage line is run to their children; should one of these be a crowned head of Europe, a red square frame, with a further black lineage line running to their sons and daughters. The same method is followed with regard to the late King Edward and the Queen Mother and likewise to our present King and Queen and their family. So you see by this up-to-date Chart you discover some very interesting information that is unknown to the majority of people. Dates' titles births, marriages and deaths are given under each photograph; the whole work complete in the form of a Framed Out-finished, 22 x 32 inches in size, and is delivered duty and carriage free for the nominal sum of $2.50 and $2.50.

Yours faithfully
