Save Systematically

By regular, occasional saving seldom accumulates much. It's the steady, persistent, regular depositing of so many dollars a week, or month, or season, in the Union Bank of Canada, which makes one financially independent. The money accumulates all the more rapidly, too, because of the interest which is added every six months.

The household of the Messrs. Campbell Bros. florists, had an unpleasant experience early last Wednesday morning. One of the Miss Campbells was suddenly awakened by a bright light. She called out, "Who's there?" awakening her brothers. Her alarm caused the burglar to decamp. At the time of his discovery he was coming up the stairs, using a searchlight to find his way. He was luckily located before he had had any opportunity to possess himself of any valuables. —Simcoe Reformer.

Brantford, Ont., June 16.—Marie Cahill, aged 17 years, was struck by a freight train while taking a short cut across the G. T. R. She rested easily over night and her recovery is expected.

Californians this summer are eating Australian meat, which can be delivered in San Francisco more cheaply than American beef from the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains. Americans on the Atlantic coast may soon be eating beef from Argentina, for that country is now producing much more beef than it can use. In 1911 it exported more than fifteen times as much as the United States did.

The Jarvis Band

By Charles T. Newell.

About a month ago, The band was organized. We practised hard you know. To meet demands for Jarvis show.

Bruce Hair, the leader Shock his leader's stick, And shouted—ready boys? Get ready quick.

Bill Watson played his cornet, As hard as he could play, While "Big George Miller" hit the drum, To keep the crowd away.

Fuzzie and Mac went pump-pump-pump, On the 'tello horns so bright, While Davey hit the little drum, With a rap-tap-tap so light.

And Stace Burwash played bass, With slurs and blurs, etcetera, Just to fill in space, And make the music better.

Here! we can't forget D. Boyds, Playing a baritone horn, He's played the horn for years and years—Ever since he was born.

Next we see Otterman, Who boasts for his playing, Who plays solo cornet, In a manner so swaying.

Then comes young Stewart, From Hagersville band, You'd think that to hear him, 'Twas the best in the land.

Now we play music, In a manner so sweet, A march and a two-step, As we march down the street.

A sunshiny husband makes a merry, beautiful home, worth working in and for. If the man is breezy-cheery, considerate and sympathetic the wife sings in her heart over puddings and mending basket, and counts the hours till he returns at night and renews her youth in the security she feels of his approbation and admiration.
