Motherhood, according to a member of the Women's City Club of Chicago, is one of the most neglected vocations. In order to train women for the work, the club has organized what it calls a college for mothers. It will give instruction, in the form of lectures and talks, both in homes and in other convenient places, usually in the evening. The lectures will not deal with the higher mathematics, but will inform mothers how to feed and care for babies and how to train the mind and the growing child.

It sometimes pays to wait. Survivors of the Cayuga branch of the Six Nations Indians have proved the truth of this, by receiving from the U. S. government a claim outstanding for 116 years, for lands of which they were dispossessed. The original amount, —300,000, plus accrued interest, now totals the tidy sum of over $1,000,000. Judiciously doled out to the tribe annually by the Indian department, it should serve in perpetuity to drive the wolf from the door, as a substantial supplement to basket making and berry picking.

The boy who has the freedom of the street after nightfall without business or permission is cultivating a dangerous habit. Any place where a boy has no business or permission is cultivating a dangerous habit. Any place where a boy has no business is no place for him. be it on the street, in stores or in a livery barn. A boy that is all right will prefer his home, friends, books or newspapers to the class found on the street. Business men of all kinds look upon the boy loafers as the "dead beats" of the future. Boys, if you will adopt the right habits while boys, you will, in manhood be useful to the world, and a source of comfort to your parents and friends, and then you will have the satisfaction of looking back upon a well spent past.

Deaths

MURPHY

There passed away on Thursday last at St. Joseph's Hospital, Hamilton, another of Walpole's respected citizens in the person of Martin Murphy, aged 56 years. The deceased was taken sick on Thursday, just one week before his death. On Friday he was taken to the hospital when it was found he was suffering from typhoid fever and on Friday he passed away. Mr. Murphy was born in Oneida 1857. He was married to Miss Katharine Devine some twenty three years ago. Last fall he moved from Brantford, where they had resided for about two years, onto his own farm near Jarvis. Besides a sorrowful wife he leaves four brothers and three sisters; Mrs. Michael Toohay, North Cayuga, Mrs. James Downey, Will Grove; Miss Kate Murphy, Oneida; John and James of Michigan; Thomas, Oneida; Charles in the West. The funeral took place on Monday at St. Ann's Church, Walpole.

Child's Sad Death

Shall I have naught that is fair saith he Naught but the breath of flowers are sweet to me. Though the breath of these flowers are sweet to me. I will give them all back again.

—Longfellow

Thus it was that death came and claimed one of the tender plants and transplanted it in the mansions above.

Little Alice Gertrude Fryatt, whose death took place on Friday last, was the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fryatt, Villa Nova. The little girl had been ailing for about a year and about five weeks ago she was taken worse. Last week it was thought best to take her to the City Hospital where it found an operation was necessary, it being the only chance of saving her life, a tumour having formed on the brain. At about noon on Friday she was put under the anaesthetic, but never regained consciousness, passing away while undergoing the operation.

Little Alice was a very pretty child of eight years and her little friends and relatives will sadly miss her. The remains were taken to her father's home, Villa Nova, on Saturday. The funeral took place on Tuesday at St. Paul's church cemetery and was one of the largest funerals ever attended here. Mr. and Mrs. Fryatt and family have the sympathy of the whole community in their sad loss.

HARROP

Still another of the pioneers of Walpole has been called away in the person of Edward Harrop who died at his home near Exarney on Monday, June 16th, 1913, in his eighty first year. Mr. Harrop was born at Appleby, Westmoreland, England and came to Canada in 1857 with his friend James Hewitt, making a home near Jarvis. Later he moved to the farm now owned by Mr. Orloff Carrick, east of Hagersville, and in 1873 took possession of the property at Garnet. Among the devoted sitters of his soil in Haldimand, Edward Harrop with his zeal, enthusiasm and ceaseless energy will be remembered during the coming years. Not only his own family but neighbours as well will cherish the memory of his kindly help. In 1859 he was happily married to Mary Bruneshell, who with the following children survive him: Mrs. Thomas Bitter Edward, Thomas, Mrs. Thomas Wilson, Wesley, Mrs. John Swings and Miss of New York State, James V. of Alberta and Mr. Martin Fuiz of New York State. The funeral, which was attended by a large number of relatives, neighbours and friends, took place on Wednesday, June 18th, service at the house and at the Garnet Methodist Church being conducted by Rev. Arthur Clare Eddy. The body was laid to rest in Hagersville Cemetery, the following acting as pall bearers: Albert Miell, Wm. McMurry, David John Lindsay, Robert John Catherwood, George Dales and Risdill.

MILLENBACHER

Jarvis people generally learned with deep regret of the death of Julia Ann, wife of Benj. Millenbacher, whose death occurred on Friday last. There were few of the friends and neighbours who knew of her illness, she having just been taken sick on Monday morning. Her illness caused no alarm, until Thursday evening, when she became much worse and her sufferings unbearable. On Friday morning she passed into a deep sleep from which she never awakened and about one o'clock she breathed her last. At noon on that day a consultation of three doctors was held and it was then the husband and daughter realized that death was standing very near, and all hope faded from the hearts of those who had so tenderly and anxiously looked after her, when the doctors informed them she was dying. What seems to me doubly sad was that she all through their married life they had struggled to obtain a little home that would be all their own. A few months ago Mr. Millenbacher purchased the late John Rodger's homestead and there in March they moved, together they toiled to make it cosy and comfortable and seemingly as the last touches had been given the Reaper came and left the husband alone. Mrs. Millenbacher, whose maiden name was Julia Ann Benj. was born in Villa Nova, August 9th, 1851 and on September 1st, 1868 she was married to Benj. Millenbacher of Hainham. In 1880 they moved to Jarvis where they have resided ever since. Mr. Millenbacher being engaged in the jewelry business and is the third oldest business man in Jarvis. The deceased leaves to mourn her loss, two sons and three daughters, Cris, of Charlotte, Mich., Gordon, Kinderley, Sask., Mrs. Jonathan Porter, of this town, Mrs. R. Hinchcliff, Detroit and Mrs. Wm. Hinchcliff of Milwaukee, Mich. She also leaves two brothers and two sisters, Robert Buck, Paynton, Sask., Joseph of Rockford, Mrs. Orson Beemer of Tyrrell and Mrs. E. Ingalls of Jarvis. The funeral was held on Monday, the service being at the house. A large concourse of friends followed the remains to their last resting place in the Methodist Church Cemetery. The husband and friends have the sympathy of the whole community.

Announcement.

Dear Sir or Madam: It gives me great pleasure to inform you that I have been successful in securing the Sole Agency for the Canadian Edition of the Modern Chart of the Royal Family for this territory. The Chart is the only one of its kind in existence; costing over $4,900 to produce in England, it is composed of 110 Royal Copyright Photographs which are traceable in the following manner:—First a red lineage cord is run from the late Queen Victoria and her husband; suspended from it, in green and gold frames, are their family; from each of these a black lineage line is run to their children; should one of these be a crowned head of Europe, he and his wife are distinguished by a red square frame, with a further black lineage line running to their sons and daughters. The same method is followed with regard to the late King Edward and the Queen Mother and likewise to our present King and Queen and their family. So you see by this up-to-date Chart you discover some very interesting information that is unknown to the majority of people. Dates of births, marriages and deaths are given under each photograph; the whole work complete in the form of a Framed Oil-finished, 22 x 32 inches in size, and is delivered duty and carriage free for the nominal sum of $2.50 and $3.50.

Yours faithfully

Strawberry Festival

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church have still another successful gathering to add to the list of social functions held under their auspices, the Strawberry Festival which was held last evening on the Church Lawn being one of the best ever held in the community. The night was ideal and the ladies with their helpers were kept busy at the tables and also at the refreshment and Bazaar Booth which, with designs and decorations had been erected for the occasion. The grounds which were well lighted and presented with the great throng of happy people a picture not soon to be forgotten. The program, which was an excellent one, was preceded by the singing of the Doxology and the Invocation. The Jarvis Band which had previously enlivened the evening's proceedings gave the first number. Vocal music was contributed by Miss Thompson of Sanduski, Miss Verna Walters, a male quartette consisting of Messrs W. J. Robertson, John Hinwick, Ainsley Jackson and Marshall Roberts. Miss Lillian Allen, Mrs. Andrew Miller and Mrs. Howard. Instrumental music was furnished by Miss Wymer of Rockford, violinist, and Miss Frances Newell and Verna Walters. Misses Meta McMurry, of Garnet, Miss Newell and Mrs. Andrew Miller acted as accompanist. Recitations were given by Miss Marion Davidson and Leah Robinson. Interesting and appropriate addresses were delivered by the resident ministers, Revs. J. Hirst Ross and J. R. McCrimmon. Mr. Chas. McCarter generously provided the piano for the evening. The financial returns amounted to about $150.

Tight shoes may be stretched by filling them half full of oats, dampening with water. Plug the top of the shoes with paper, and the dampness will soften the oats, stretching the shoes. Let the oats remain until thoroughly dry.

The newspaper is to-day the most potent element in civilization. Its audience is practically unlimited. It reaches every class and condition of men. It penetrates to every hut and hovel on the farthest confines of human society. The schools have an influence and gather the children of the high and low. But after schools are outgrown, teachers forgotten, and books mouldy and dusty, the newspaper is still a constant companion. No public speaker, be he preacher or political orator, can draw an audience of one-tenth that which greets the average newspaper today, and thus the tone of the press becomes a matter of vital importance to the welfare of the community. The influence is widespread and is also lasting. Therefore we say, study well the contents of the paper you are taking and if it contains that which tends to lower the scale of morality and humanity and not to the elevation of that which is good and right, better off are you by far without it.
