Vareney

Robins are plentiful in this section. The wheat fields in this section are not showing any signs of winter injury. Rural mail delivery is in sight but natural gas is not even a rumor. Miss M. McSorley spent the week-end at her home near Cayuga. Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Miller are spending a few days in Toronto. The former is attending the A.O.U.W. Grand Lodge.

Sandusk

Frank Lofthouse spent Monday in this burg. L. Lougherty and wife spent Tuesday evening at the home of Harry Fleming of Erie. John Shuter entertained a number of men of this burg at his home Thursday evening. Oysters were served and other dainties, after which games and music were indulged in. The guests returned to their homes feeling they had spent a most enjoyable evening. Although they did get soaked coming through the rain, Mr. and Mrs. Long of Hamilton are visiting friends in this locality. Mr. Darnett of Kansas visited at Freeman Sernaman's last week. Miss Amy Jepson is visiting her grandparents at Cheapside. Messrs. Elvin and Leo Pond entertained a number of friends on Friday evening. Games, contests and music were indulged in, after which a dainty lunch was served. All departed to their respective homes, all reporting a good time. Misses Mand and Annie Westery gave a little party in the hall Monday evening. The evening was spent in music and games. Miss Jessie Mitchell of Simcoe visited with Miss Leslie Atkinson last week. Mrs. R. Pond of Jarvis is visiting in this burg.

Nanticoke

C. Brewer returned from his visit to Brantford on Friday. E. Thompson of Simcoe is visiting friends here. Owing to Rev. Munsinger not being able to occupy the pulpit in the Methodist church, Rev. Mouton had charge of the services on Sunday. Mrs. Munsinger will have charge of the services on Sunday. C. Brewer had the misfortune to lose one of his jersey coats on Friday. Owing to the funeral of the late A. Jackson, the service in the English church was withdrawn in the morning. P. Diet of Dunville has engaged with A. Hoover to help him fish this summer. Suckers will soon begin to appear in the creek again. DEATH.—On Friday morning last the grim reaper death again visited our midst taking away a loved one, in the person of Arthur Jackson. Although he had been in poor health for some time nevertheless his death came as a shock to all who knew him, death being due to heart failure. Deceased, who was in his 32nd year, has left all his life on the farm where he was born, and was highly respected by all who knew him and will be greatly missed in the community. The funeral, which took place on Sunday, March 16th, at Christ Church, Nanticoke, was very largely attended. He leaves to mourn his demise a wife and small daughter, his mother, Mrs. J. Jackson, three sisters, Mrs. Jesse Thompson and Mrs. Wm. Husted of Pt. Dover and Mrs. Ed. Aiken of Kenton, and three brothers, Wm. of Saskatoon, Frank and Leslie of Nanticoke.

Rockford

Rev. Lomax gave a splendid talk Sunday evening on "St. Patrick" and the church of Ireland, taking for his text, Cor. 15:10. Next Sunday being Easter Sunday we may expect an Easter sermon and some special music. Miss Maggie Smith has kindly consented to prepare a paper on the life of David Livingstone, the African missionary and explorer, and to read it at the ladies' meeting on Wednesday night. The Ladies' Aid is giving a poverty dress tea at the home of Harry Paskins on Good Friday evening. Come out and enjoy it. Mrs. Hambly has returned home from a visit her sister Mrs. Decoe of Bloomburg. Mrs. John B. Thompson of Villa Nova is visiting at Mrs. John Gilbert's. Miss Ebel Howard spent Sunday with Miss Maggie Smith. Miss Jessie Smith gave a party to a number of her friends on Friday evening. David Petheram was sawing wood for Lindsay Irwin and Joseph Lang on Friday. Chas. Cline has sold his farm, and had his sale Tuesday. At the Farmers' Club meeting, held in the school house Thursday night of last week a mock trial was exhibited by members of the club and everyone acted his part well. Although the evidence given against the prisoner was very convincing, yet out of sympathy for Mrs. Snowball and family the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty. The characters in the trial were: Judge, Harry Paskins; Crier of Court, Peter Bauslaugh; Clerk, Alva Irwin; Counsel for Crown, Wm. Hamoly and R. Irvine; Counsel for defendant, L. Irvine and W. Thompson; constable in charge of prisoner, Frank Hawke; police, Wilbert Howard and Harry Howden; plaintiff, Jas. Priest; Witnesses for plaintiff, John Wilson, Jay Fryatt, Andy Back, Morley Ward, Dalton Sumers and Len Herron; prisoner (Jim Snowball) Harry Honey; witnesses for defendant, John Thompson, (Mrs. Snowball) Vernon Hunter, Frank Tyler, Ira Caswell, Ellison Honey, Nat Miller and W. Bauslaugh; jury men were E. Somers, G. Cook, H. Stone and W. Somers. The plaintiff is unsettled and talks of repeating the case to a higher court. It was decided to have another debate Thursday evening. Resolved that dairying is more profitable than the raising of beef cattle.

Vaccination

This Gives an Idea as to Whether it Pays Whether many anti-vaccinationists can be moved by facts is a matter of some doubt. But the health department has hopes that some who after years of demonstration of the value of vaccine still oppose inoculation may be not beyond hope. It therefore takes the occasion of recent increase of smallpox in the country near Chicago to narrate the following history of events near Dundee. Christmas holiday week—Miss Opel Helm, school teacher at country school on the Penny road, near Dundee, Ill., visits friends in Minnesota. Jan. 6, 1913—Miss Helm returns from Minnesota and resumes teaching. Children from seven families attend the school. Jan. 13, 1913—Miss Helm taken sick, a diagnosis of smallpox made two days later. Miss Helm never was vaccinated. Feb. 1—Mother of Miss Helm comes down with smallpox. Mother never vaccinated. Father, vaccinated some time previously, remains well. Feb. 5—Two children of Chas. Fritz, pupils of Miss Helm's school, come down with smallpox. Never vaccinated. All other members of Fritz family had been previously vaccinated. All remain well. Feb. 5—Two children of Theo. Fink, pupils at Miss Helm's school, come down with smallpox. Never vaccinated. Other members of Mr. Fink's family, all previously vaccinated, remain well. Feb. 5—Two children of Mr. Coats, pupils at Miss Helm's school, came down with smallpox. Never vaccinated. Other members of the Coats family, all vaccinated, remain well. Feb. 12—One child of August Price, pupil of Miss Helm's school, comes down with smallpox. Never vaccinated. Other members of Price family, all vaccinated, remain well. All six children of the other three families who attended Miss Helm's school had been previously vaccinated. None contracted the disease. Vaccination is not only a duty to oneself. It is a duty to others.—Chicago Tribune.

Rural Mail Delivery

It will be of considerable interest to the public to learn that the advantages of the Canadian Rural Mail Delivery System have recently been increased, under a new regulation of the Post Office Department, which requires Rural Mail Couriers to transact Money order and postal note business for box-holders on their respective routes, and also to carry a supply of postage stamps, sufficient to meet the requirements of the patrons, and to accept letters for registration from box holders, and give receipts therefor. In this way the rural delivery system will become a post office on wheels, and will add much to the increasing conveniences of rural life. Patrons of rural delivery will be supplied with blank applications for money orders and postal notes, to be used as occasion arises. The patron will prepare the application and hand it, together with the purchase money, to the courier, who will give a receipt therefor, and will purchase the money order or postal note at the distributing office, and deliver it to the box holder on his next trip; or the courier may be entrusted with the open letter in which to enclose the money order or postal note, and thus save time. In the case of registered letters for box holders, the postmaster of the distributing office will notify the box-holder of the arrival of the article, and the box-holder will be required to give the courier an order on the postmaster to deliver the article to the courier, and the box-holder will be expected to meet the courier on his next trip, and give a receipt on which the postage and registration fees have been fully paid; will be accepted by the courier and receipt given therefor.

The school savings bank system is spreading in Canada. There are now twenty-six places where these banks are in existence, with deposit from the children aggregating $223,574.93. The great object at the back of the penny bank is to inculcate the virtue of thrift among the boys and girls, and to make them self-reliant and careful in money matters.

There is no spice like laughter at one's meals, the most salutary of all the bodily movements. It involves both body and soul. A good hearty laugh stimulates the circulation, promotes digestion, and enlivens every vital organ. It is in short, a sort of shower bath of the spirit, invigorating the whole man, and it is the cheapest luxury at our command. Moreover, cheerfulness is largely a matter of habit, and there is nothing that yields larger returns for the effort involved.

Horses Repay Kindness

Take advantage of every opportunity that offers to give your horse a friendly word or pat. It will encourage him to greater efforts and incidentally will place you on more friendly terms with yourself, argues Orchard and Farm. The horse freely realizes when one speaks to him kindly, and if he trusts his master he will do anything he can for him. One of the secrets of all skilled trainers and teachers is that a low, well modulated voice is much more effective than harsh words or a whip. This is most especially true of the horse whose sensitive, excitable nature makes him so miserable and unstrung when angry words are yelled at him that he loses his head entirely and the lesson such words were intended to convey is not lost, but a bad effect is produced. Another very inhumane practice that we have observed in the extreme use of the checkrein. Many supposedly civilized users of horses check the horse's head up to such a degree that he is compelled to hobble along as if he were walking over plowed ground. And then the driver gets out of the buggy, ties the horse and goes on his business or "has a good time. Does not take time to think about his horse and the accompanying pain and the part he has had to play in this averted to him.

Letters sent in Newspapers

(Toronto World) The statement was made by W. B. Rogers, Toronto's postmaster, Friday, that the practice of enclosing letters and other articles of mail matter in newspaper and periodicals had recently grown to a great extent. The principal offenders are evidently new comers to Canada, as most of the mail matter discovered with the enclosures has been addressed to persons in the United Kingdom. A warning is given to the seriousness of the offense, which renders the sender liable to a fine of from $10 to $40 for each offence. On the discovery of an enclosure in a newspaper, which is liable to a higher rate of postage, it is sent to the dead letter office and the sender made liable to prosecution by the postoffice inspector. Newspapers also are being mailed without sufficient postage. This is especially the case with the weekly editions of the Toronto papers. The proper rate on these is one cent per four ounces.
