Rockford

There was a large number out to Sunday School last Sunday morning, it being the occasion of our temperance lesson. As Mr. Howard had the misfortune to sustain a fracture of the ribs through the re-lease of the Bible Class. Mr. Hamblin kindly consented to take his place, which she did in a very satisfactory manner, several speaking of the splendid way she handled the lesson. After the lessons were over a number of the scholars favored us with a splendid temperance exercise, much thanks being due to Miss Perkins for training the children. Afterward Miss Ethel Howard read her report of the Provincial Convention at Owen Sound, which was certainly fine. We as a school might do well to put in practice more of the ideas that have been developed. In the evening Rev. Loudon delivered a very touching sermon from the words "And the people stood beholding," bringing to a close a real temperance day. League on Wednesday evening led by the president, the topic being "Moultin and Eater" which will be taken by Wilbert Howard. There will also be a reception service. Every Welcome.

Wilbert Howard and Jas. Frost attended the Laymen's Convention last Thursday and heard some very able addresses

Five weeks till Xmas. Do your shopping early. Advertise in The Record. Renew your subscription now. If you do not like a town and are sure that it is going to retrograde, the proper thing to do is to leave; but if you intend to live in town, do all you can to boom it, to build it up and to make it a desirable place to live in. This is the way to insure progression and to increase the value of the prosperity of the town.
