

This Beauty cold plants state? MACE-LEV, inney embraced pattern, expands to sit any arm. Fut up in lovely Fills lined ben. We give structs for selling only the owner worth of the lovellest Picture Free Calms, engreed, views, family, plants, size manufacture, which cards are bookiete; villsvines and selfunt in their proper season. These cards are of such ine quality and arginite Columns and designs that you will have no trouble selling at 6 for its and win the Healt Whichlet and also a couple of Flatteris day SET Free, and we are going to make every one of our successful agents a present of a flatteristic plant of set, according to our big advertising plan, which will be sent to you the name day we receive the $5.00. Write to-day and we will send you the cards. Address COBALT GOLD FEN CO., Dept. 3, 55 Toronto, Out.

DRAGON'S BACKBONE.

And Odd Incident of Railroad Construction in China.

When there was under the construction of the railway between Kirin and Newchwang, the scaport of Manchuria. It was proposed to make a junction at a place called Lanpien, outside the city of Mukden. For the per-mission had to be obtained from the Tertar general of Mukden. This functionary at once proceeded to call in his geomancers, a species of soothsayers, who gave informaton concerning the good fortune and il fortune of stes and were ons and dragons inhabited the earth under the surface. These men reported that the dragon whose body encircled the holy city of Mukden lay coiled up in such way that if the railway came through ties would pierce his backbone and in all probability set him to raging violently, fo the great detriment of the people of

The generalconsequently refused the application of the railway people and directed them to carry the road in a straight line from Kirin to Newchwang. avoiding Mukden. Then engineers there-upen appealed to the vicercy, showing that, as this proposed route would go through a marshy and uninhabited country, it could not be profitable for their try, it could not be profitable for their enterprise.

The viceroy wrote to the general of Munden, highly commending his for his discretion in consultion the goernancers but suggested that these sage persons go our the ground again and see if they could not find a place where the nails would not be likely to strike into the drason's back. Accordingly, at the command of the viceroy, the general had his commencers indicate a spot for the junction at Lanpien where they thought that, after all, the dragon's backbone would be safe.—New York Press.

BETTER THAN SPANNING

thing four set ours children of bolretting. There to a constitutional erape for this treatio, Ers. M. Summen, Bez W. G. Window, Gat., will send fee to what do you think I ought to do with her?" he asked, plaintively.

The practical Englishman said, "Dismiss her!" But as she was otherwise an excellent servant her master was unwilling to do that.

"Then take it out of her wages," suggested the thrifty Scot.

ser Things About Glass.

well as one of the most-neculiar things in Irishman, promptly.—New York Globe. world. It has curious and contrasictory qualities, and many astonishing stienomena are connected with it, says on exchange. Brittle and breakage as ftife, yet it exceeds almost all other bodies in elasticity. two glass balls are made to strike each other at a given force, the recoil, by virtue of their elastically, will be nearly equal to their original impetus. Connected with its brittleness are some Connected with no printeriors are yeary singular facts.

Take a hollow sphere with a hole and stop the hole with the finger so as to prevent the external and internal air fram communicating, and the sphere will the mere heat of the Vessels made of glass that have been vessels made of glass that have been suddenly cooled possess the curious property of being able to resist hard blows gives to them from without but will be instantly shivered by a small particle of flint dropped into their cavities.

flint dropped into their cavities.

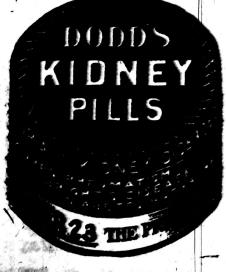

This property seems to depend upon the comparative thickness of the bottom: the thicker the bottom is the more certainty of breakage by this experiment. Some of these vessels, it is stated, have resisted the stroke of a mailet given with sufficient force to drive a nail into wood, and heavy bodies, such as musket basis, pieces of iron, bits of wood, jasper and stone, etc., have been cast into them from a height of two or three feet without any effect, yet a fragment from a flint not larger than a pea dropped from a height of three inches has made them fly to pieces.—Philadeiphia North American.

Minard's Ligiment for sale everywhere

RADIUM EMANATIONS (Phusdelphia Record)

A discovery of far-reaching importance to medical science has been lately an-nounced by Sir Frederick Treves as a notinced by Sir Frederick Treves as a result of investigations made at the London Radium Institute. The experts working at the institute have succeeded in "bottling" radium emanations in such a "bottling" radium emanations in such a way that they can be used for curative nursoses in place of the radium itself. Hitherto, treatment by radium has been limited to comparatively few owing to the enormous prices of the medium. In future the doctor will be able to obtain the bottle rays at small cost, using them in exactly the same way, and with the same results, as the radium itself. Further, a way has been found of charging water with the emanations, and re-Further, a way has been found of charging water with the emanations, and remarkable cures have been effected by its means: When the fact is taken into consideration that the rays given off by pure radium in nowise diminish the radioactivity of the original mass, the value of this great discovery may be the better understood.

"Do you ever talk back to your wife?" "Yes, there are occasions when I don't dare not to. "Indeed!" "Otherwise she might think I'd gone asleep."-Boston rent of the Flowing Veil. In the old days, as now, the bride gen erally dressed in white. From early Saxon times down to the eighteenth century a bride of the poorer classes came to the wedding arrayed in a plain white robe as a public warning that since she brought nothing to the marriage her husband was not responsible for her debts.

Brides soon began to add some little touch of color. Blue was for constancy and green for youth, but in some places these might not be used because of feuds between families having these tints in their liveries. Yelow might not be worn, as it stood for jealousy; golden might not, as it meant avarice.

The Anglo-Saxon bride went to the wedding with her halir hanging loose as The Anglo-Saxon bride went to the wedding with her halir hanging loose as a sign of freedom, but open reaching her new home imediniately bound it up as a sign of submission. In the days of Shakespeare the veil began to take the place of the flowing tresses, but this, however, was not original with the Britishi for centuries earlier the Romans and Hebrew brides had worn yellow veils, while the early Christians of southern while the early Christians of southern Europe had enveloped both man and wife in one large cloth.

Whatever was lacking, however, in gorwhatever was lacking, however, in gorgeousness of dress was compensated among all the nations by the profusion of flowers chosen for their significance.

—Uncle Remus's Magazine.

A WELL-KNOWN MAN

Minard's Liniment Co., Limited.

Dear Sirs,-I can recommend your MINARD'S LINIMENT for Rheumatism and Sprains, as I have used it for illy vigor, and when they are not only both with excellent results. Yours truly,

T. B. LAVERS. St. John.

A Batch of Smiles.

A young gentlemen of the colored persussion had promised his girl a pair of white gloves for a Christmas gift. Entering a large departmental store, he at last found the counter where these goods were displayed, and, approaching rather hesitatingly, remarked: "Ah want a pair ob gloves."

"How long do you want them?" quired the businesslike clerk. "Ah doesn't want fo' to rent 'em; Ah wants fo' to buy 'em," replied the other, hudignantly.-Harper's Magaizne.

Employer-About to marry and want more salary, eh? Who is the girl? Clerk-The daugnter of President Spilcins, of the Squedunk road.

Employer-Oh, you won't need more selary, then. He's just had his raised,-New York Globe.

An Irish member of Parliament is telling a story of a man who complained to three friends an Englishman, a Scotchman and an Irishman-that his servant was constantly breaking chins. "What do you think I nught to do "That wouldn't do much good," was the reply, "for her wages are less than collisions. This is the case in double swear that he will remain single until track, but in a single track installation. the date agreed upon for the next lot-

Microbes.

A microbe is an imaginary being invented by doctors to scare people out of dying a natural death. Microbes have taken the place of the evil spirits in vogue before the period when people grew so intelligent that they wouldn't believe anything they didn't hear.

Microbes come in assorted packages, and epend their entire time in multifly to pieces by the mere heat of the plying, adding, subtracting and dividing. They multiply serums, add to the fears, subtract you from your money and divide all the profits among the doctors.

Just as everything was once, represented by a deity, so everything is now represented by a microbe. Some men are born with microbes, some achieve microbes, but all at some time have microbes thrust upon them .- Life,

Minard's Liniment Relieves Neuralgia

Bulgarian Servants Scarce.

Englishwomen who complain of domestic servant sirficulties should thank goodness they are not Bulgarians. Only extreme poverty, Mr. William Miller says, will drive a Bulgarian into domestic service. As a rule widows are the only dovice. As a rule widows are the only domestic servants to be got, and they will only become coons or housemaids if they may bring all their family with them. Servants insist upon being introduced and shaking hands with all visitors, and will leave upon the least rebuke. The only way to keep them is to let their wages fall into arrears. "So strong is the sentiment against doing anything in the nature of menial work that I know of a case where a girl refused to fetch medicine from the chemist for her own mother. But the same girl would work in a stranger's garden or do needlework, n a stranger's garden or do needlework. because these occupations are considered honorable for Bulgarian Women."—Lon-

Manslaughter in Second Degree

Cutting corns with a razor is dangerous and useless. The only remedy is Putnam's Corn Extractor, which removes corns and warts in one day. Because painless and safe, use only "Putnam's," 25c per bottle at all dealers.

DOWN ON COLORED RACES.

(Philadelphia Record) We may be ungenerous to the dark-skinned races, but we are not any worse skinned races, but we are not any worse than the Engish colonists, nor are we much worse than other white nations which have not—as some have—intermarried with Indians, Asiastics and Africans.—British Columbia is just as hostile to the Japanese as California is, and Melbourne and Sydney are as much averse to the Chinese as San Francisco. Australia has resorted to strigent legis-lation to exclude Asiatics, even those who are British subjects. The Premier of British Columbia has gone to London to convince the imperial authorities that his colony will have no Japanese, no matter what concessions Downing street would like to make to Tokyo.

The Most Graceful Act. Wesleyan Methodist missionary A Weslevan Methodist missionary in India wrote home to the girl he was in love with, asking her to come out and marry him. The girl's aunt had the merry him. The girl's aunt had the same name. She got the letter and went sut. The missionary met her on the quay, and such was his delicacy of mind that he married her, he married the niece. This is the cassis graceful act among the western Methodists.—Manchester Guard-

Baby's Own Tablets are the ber ieine a mother can give her lit-ones. They are absolutely safe, being guaranteed by a Government analyst to contain neither ep ates, murcotics or other harmful drugs They are good for all children from the newborn babe to the growing child. They cure constinution, indigestion, exper worms, break up enidered make teething easy. In fact, they are a cure for all the minor illaof little ones, and a box should always be kept in the house as a safeguard against sudden attacks of stomach or bowel troubles. Mrs. J. P. Richard, St. Norbert, N. B., says: "I have found Rany's Own Tablets all that is claimed for them. My baby suffered from his stomach and bowels, and the Tablets certainly did him good." They are sold by all medicine des lers er by mail at 25e. box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Character by the Eyebrows.

An arched eyebrow does not indicate the highest order of intelligence, but is expressive of great sensibility. it is. lack of vitality; on the centrary, heavy, heavy, thick eyebrows indicate a strong constitution and great physical endurance. They are not beautiful on a woman's face, however much they may signify either mental or bodheavy, but droop and meet at the nose, they are disagreeable, and said to accompany an insincere and prying nature. Long, drooping eyebrows, lying wide apart, indicate an amiable disposition. Where the eyebrows are lighter in color than the hair, the indications are lack of vitality and great sensitiveness. Faintly defined eye-brows, placed high above the nose, are signs of indolence and weakness.

Very black eyebrows give the face an intense and searching expression; when natural, they accompany a passionate temperament. Very light eyebrows are rarely seen on strong intellectual faces, although the color of the eyebrows is not accepted simply as denoting lack of intelligence; the form gives the key to the faculties and their direction. Red eyebrows denote great fervor and ambition.

TRAVELLING IN SAFETY Safety first is an urgent consideration with the railwaye; but the Canadian Pac fie Railway is losing no time in supplementing its protecting agencies. to a minimum, if not to eliminate them of the evetem with an automatic electr'e block signal. This is somewhat similar to the ordinary semaphore, which is a white iron or wood standard, some cross-arm for daylight purposes, and the signale are so worked that a train in a block will set the signal against following and opposing trains -thus making itself immune from the dauger of either head-on or rear-end collisions. The C.P.R, now has these signals operating on its lines between St. John and Mattawamkeag; Montreal and Vaudreuil; Montreal (Place Viger) and Ste. Therese: Rumford Junction and Sudbury: West Toronto, . Bolton, Islington and Streeteville Junction: Fort William and Moleon: Stephen and Field (B.C.): Crow's Nest, McGillivray (B.C.) - the whole making a total of 638 miles. The line between Montreal Farnham is now being equipped as fast as the material can be put up.

THE GOSSIP PARTY.

Latest Craze for an Evening's Entertainment.

The gossip party is the latest craze in Cienna.

It may be introduced into America

The chief object of the goesip party is to find out who among the assembled spirit, the idea soon developed into an guests is the best conversationalist, and, incidentally, to learn the latest bite of seandal and gossip.

At the beginning of the evening the hostess gives each guest a card and a pencil. Partners are chosen as if for a dance. Each couple then is seated on a government deemed the time had come sofa or on one of the groups of chairs for interference. arranged throughout the room. For five minutes the couples converse. Then a bell is rung. It is a sign to change part- punished accordingly. ners for the subsequent conversation. There are ten conversations, each five minutes in length.

During the five minutes' conversation the gueste are pledged to tell the truth. Any question providing it is not about the questioner or the one questioned. may be asked, no matter how personal it is. All startling information received is written on the cards.

At the end of the evening the guests vote for the best conversationalist, who is awarded a prize. Refreshments are served then and the cards are passed around and read, so that all present may share in the latest gossip written on them.

Minard's Liniment Cures Burns, Etc.

Three Castes in Bolivia.

Bolivian society is composed of three strata. Firstly, we have the "gentle becente," or white people who show no trace of Indian blood. This class is small, but necessarily infuentia; indeed, all the government of the country is in the lands. Next comes the "choios"—those of mixed Spanish and India blood—and lastly the pure Indians who form an immense submerged class—superatition, ignorant, down-trodden, yet splendid workmen and one of the chief sources of national wealth. It is essured. splendid workmen and one of the chief sources of national wealth. It is estimated that of the 3,000,000 people who comprise the Bolivian nation only about 200,000 can read and write. The great mass of these literate people belong to the "gente decentre," while the "choio" and Indian classes are almost totally subd in ignorance. Christian Herald.

Scribbler-How is the best way to succeed in literature? Wigwag-Keep to the write.

as charms to avert the evil eye, and some people in our own land wear a string of amber beads, not because they are fashiounble, but to ward off sore throats.

Turquoise is held to be a protection against sudden injuries and falls, and topaz used to be very highly prized because it was believed to have magical powers of dispelling enchantment and calming frenzy.

A piece of agate is held by some to be an infallible gnard against light-ning and a cure for thirst. The perry was believed by the ancients to cure leprosy and to promote happiness between man and wife.

Superstition still attaches itself to the opal. The ancients considered that this gem had the power of rendering its owner lovable, and also of bestowing on him the gift of invisibility; but when it was found that the stone easil- became loosened in its setting and lost, the idea that it was unlucky was established, and this unluckiness was supposed to affect all excepting persons born in October, whose birthstone

UNION Stock Yards TORONTO

Largest Canadian Market

For Beef and Feeder Cattle, Calves, Hogs, Sheep and Horses

WRITE FOR INFORMATION

STRANGEST CLUBS.

Some Queer Ones Have Been in Existence.

Perhaps one of the most eccentric Jubs now in existence is the Black Bean devised to reduce the danger of accident club in London. The membership of this select community is strictly limited to altogether. The company has made a forty persons, each member paying an vigorous commencement in the equipping entrance fee of £10 and an annual subscription of £10.

The club assembles once a year, and at these annual meetings a bag is passed around containing thirty-nine white twenty-fve feet high, with a painted beans and one black bean. The member who draws the black bean is bound by red, yellow and green lights for night the rules to get married during the enuse. The track is divided into blocks at suing twelve months, the committee unthe end of which is a signal. A train dertaking to furnish a house for him etanding or running in given block, will and to defray the expenses of his wedset the eignal in the block immediately ding and a honeymoon. Before the meetbehind it, against following trains—thus ing is dissolved, each of the remaining ensuring perfect safety from rear end thirty-nine members has solemnly to terv.

And then, again, there is the Sighing And then, again, there is the Sighing Dealer. Show a tare veur-old child. Ciub, an institution founded solely for picture of a person without arms and the the benefit of love swains. Silence is strictly enjoined at all meetings, and tice strictly enjoined at all meetings, and the members who sit in solemn conclave, each holding a piece of ribbon, a lock of hair, or some possession of his beloved, are required to sigh at least local was the first to first between the constant of the lower grades in a public school. The other day I had the class from 1 to 12. To my great surprise, the most backward calld in the local was the first to first loved, are required to sigh at least five times within a quarter of an hour under penalty of a fine.

Suicide clubs have been comparatively common, The Man Killing club, however, was a London institution somewhat out i of the ordinary, members being confined to persons who had slain opponents at duels. On guest nights a separate table was reserved for visitors, who had to be friends of members and have drawn. at any rate once, an adversary's blood.

But of all the curious clubs of bygone times perhaps the most famous, or rather infamous, was the Abduction club. This was started in 1776 by a number of young Irish "bloods," who banded together to arrange for themselves forced marriages with wealthy heiresses, each member promising to assist the others.

Originating, no doubt, from a joking accomplished fact. But when in April. 1779, two young men, named respectively Gerald Byrne and James Strange Villard, forcibly removed from their home and married the two daughters of a wealthy land owner in Waterford, the

So abduction was made a capital coffence and guilty members of the club

Another celebrated club that was started but did not last was also in London, where the members were to meet once in three months solely for the purpose of dining backwards. That is to say, the dinner began with cigars, coffee and liquors, and finished up with sherry and oysters. One such repast, however, seemed to prove quite sufficient for all the members, and on the morning after the inauguration banquet the club was informally disbanded.

TO CLEAN EMBROIDERIES. How the Work Can Be Done Successfully at Home. It would cost a small fortune to send It would cost a small fortune to send all our embroideries to a professional cleaner these days when they are many, for clothing and household thing are plentifully adorned with them.

To clear them at home most successfully place a half-pint of bran in a pan and sid the same amount of cold water. Allow it to boil slowly for 20 minutes and then strain through a fine cloth. Add a pint of boiling water and use this mixture to wash fine embroideries and laces for the first time. Squeeze them gently to wash fine embronderies and laces to the first time. Squeeze them gently with the hands, and kif they are much soiled, soap jelly can be added to the mixture. This is made by dissolving mixture. This is made by pure soap in boiling water.

If the embroidery is done with colors, add salt to the rinsing water, which should be clear and moderately hot. That will set the colors of silky or cottons so they will not run. It is a wise precau-tion to imemuse colored embroideries in salty water before washing in the bran

... Embroidered articles should be dried quickly and ironed on the wrong side.

ISSUE NO. 44, 1913

HELP WANTED

WANTED-GIRLS FOR FINISHING underwear. Apply, Kingston Hostery Co., Ltd., Kingston, Ont.

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—CHEAP; UNDER MORT-with buildings; only $200.00 required down. Apply to M. J. Kent, Box 419, London, Ont.

Suffrage in the Home. "What right have women got to vote?"

I sternly asked my wife. Of politics they take no note And little know of life. Why ,they could not select good men! Said she: "My dear, that's true, must confess I proved it when I picked out you!"

"Pshaw! that is different." said L. "For in affairs of state One should not judge officials by The standards of one's mate.

"Perhaps I shouldn's, dear," said she; "I'll ask you to advise, Well knowing, since you picked out me, That you are wise!"

How silly is such talk!" I cried. "That method would not do!" Indeed?" the guileless one replied, "Unwise-to trust in you?" You make a fool of mc!" I said. Said she: "Nobody can. You are, if I've not been misled, A self-made man!"

ORGANS CHEAP

We have some fifty first-class organs on hand, at prices from $12.50 to $35. These instruments have all been overhauled by our own workmen and are in first-class condition. A few great bargains are: James organ, walnut case, 5 tops, $15. Deminion organ, 8 stops, $20. Bell crgnn, 9 stops, $25. Send for complete list, giving full description stating what terms you would like. Heintzman & Co., corner King and John streets, Grasping an Opportunity.

"Children are not to be called stupid plain to their elders," writes a school teacher, according to the Cleveland Plain Dealer. "Show a tore-veur-old child a child will not notice anything wrong with the picture. A 6-year-old child will no-oom was the first to finish the task his paper was absolutely correct. This boy as considered dull and he was two years too old to be in this grade. "Very good, William," I said, "how did you manage to do it so quickly?"

"I copied 'en off the clock," he an-"He was the only pupil in the room to

NA-DRU-CO 2 CUCUMBER WITCH HAZEL CREAM A soothing, cooling lotion-the very best thing you can use for the chafed skin, chapped hands and cracked lips which raw cold weather brings. 203 25c a bottle, at your Druggist's.

NATIONAL DRUG AND CHEMICAL CO. OF CANADA, LIMITED, MONTREAL.

HOUSE"ORK'S DREARY ROUND. (Niagara Falls, N. Y., Gazette)

The wife and mother of a working household is seldom considered as she should be by the other members. There are the thousands and one details of the day, every day. Sunday and Saturday, to be attended to. The others have a change of scene a phance to see and hear new fcaes and voices, but with the household worker it is the same old round for hands and feet and eyes and mind.

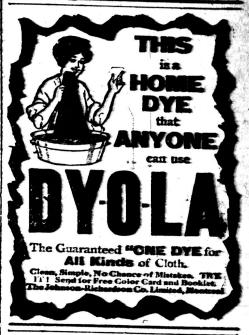

PURE FOOD EDUCATION NEEDED. (Detroit Free Press)

In fact, here is the root of the trouble in all legislation looking to the regulation of the sale of foods. Municipalities may do good work in guaranteeing good milk to the consumer, for instance, but they carnot regulate its handling in the fam-ily. That can only come of education in the importance of proper keeping, and of the danger and the false economy of buying foods that are cheap because they are on the verge of decay through being through being kept in unwholesome places.

Discouraging an Orator.

"Mr. Chairman," said the orator, who had already occupied the platform for 20 minutes, amid many interjections from the audience. "Mr. Chair may I appeal on a point of order? There is really so much desultory versation going on in parts of the that it is impossible for me to hear word I am saying."

Voice from the back of the hall: 'Don't be downhearted. You're not missing much."—Exchange.

Evening.

From upland slopes I see the cows file by. Lowering, great-chested, down the homeward trail,

By dusking fleids and meadows shining pale With moon-tiped dandellons, flickering peevish night-hawk in the western sky Beats up into the lucent solitudes.

Or drops with girding wings; the stilly woods Grow dark and deep, and gloom mysteriously. Cool night winds creep and whisper in mine ear;

The homely cricket gossips at my feet;
From far off pools and wastes of rece

I hear
With ebb and change the chanting from break sweet
In full Pandean chorus; one by ene
Shine out the stars, and the great night

Rend What Mrs. Marris Says Afr Mrs. T. Harris, of Tyneside, Ont., knows all about GIN PILLS. "I am now taking my third box of GIN PILLS," che writes. "The pain across my back and kidneys has almost entirely gone. I was a great sufferer from Rheumatism, but it has all lef me. I strongly advise all women, who suffer from Pain in The Back and Weak Kidneys, to try GIN PILLS."

50c a box, 6 for $2.50. Sample free if you write National Drug and Chemicai Co., of Canada Limited, Toronto.

VOLTURNØ LESSONS. (Chicago Tribune)

The catastrophe of the Volturno seems to teach another lesson or two in the field of marine security.

The first of these is the need of a new equipment for ships, the breeches buoy and apparatus. A hundred feet or more of rough water was all that separated the neeple of the Volturno from safety on the deck of the Carmania, but that narrow span would have meant death to them all if the sea had not abated. Boats are of little use in a sea, as we were told. to them all if the sea had not abated. Boats are of little use in a sea, as we were told, not very pertinently, after the Titantio disaster. But with wireless to summon oid, the rocket and breeches buoy outfits, such as life saving stations are supplied with, a gathering of ships as came to the rescue of the Volturno would not have been helmless, as they were for to the rescue of the volturno would not have been helbless, as they were for hours, and might have been till too late. Onother suggestion, less novel, is given by the demonstration of the value of oil by the demonstration of the value of oil to prevent combing and make the use of small, safer. The problem of carrying enough oil to be effective involves several factors, but it should be considered. along with the many others presumably to be settled at the coming international maritime conference

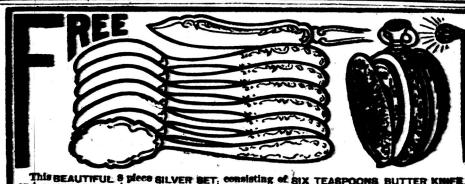

Minard's Liniment Cures Dandruff

Foods That Remind Us:

Mushrooms-of a polite Swede. Bacon-of a Maine guide. Cheese of a talkative old maid. Watercressof an Irish girl. Potatoes-of a bookkeeper. Opions-of a forest fire. Planked steak—of a limousine. Rum omelette-of a garage. Tapicea pudding-of a Unitarian lergyman.

Green peas-of a schoolgirl .- August mart Set.

The leap-year sisters now enter the homestretch of 1912.—Washington

This BEAUTIFUL S piece SILVER BET, consisting of SIX TEASPOONS BUTTER KNOFE and SUGAR SHELL is one of our most popular premiums. We have sent out thousands of sets and never had a complaint. We give them FREE for selling only $3.00 worth of the sets and never had a complaint. We give them FREE for selling only $3.00 worth of tile lovellest Picture Post Cards. Views Comics Floral: also Thanksciving. XMAS: cards and booklets: Valentine and Easter in their proper season. These cards are of such fine quality and Artistic coloring that you will have no trouble selling at 6 for: 10c, and win the lovely silverware and you can also win a Flashing Electric Diamond Pin without having to sell any more cards, and you will be surprised how easily you can win, in addition to the silverware and Electric Diamond Pin, the MAG. Nificent watch, ladies or gents size, seem wind and set, according to our dig. advertising plan, which will be sent to you associately FREE the same day we receive the $3.00 for the cards. Write to-day and we will send the cards. Address COBALT GOLD PER CO., Dept. 8, 35 Toronto, Ont.

Balak's honore: to flee kept th Balak : did he at; he comes f to rece greativ and oils God's w we met in the time richt-u wdes to edge

sure rea!

fort

11).

gera

a hi

Was

heat holdi

eoule

ity t

Woul

armie

to B

(23:1

ready nad

quire

when word

Israe

eurse

he w messa

his de

by B

Balak

nounce

upon his de

constr

other seven ask th

111.

sent a had so might fore hi by the nounce

aid.

on God' lead the the wor Was ret sented b men-H Shall por of Jucon preted a mult, me shall do would he and pros have do preted to a these unfolding blesed o became la over all. whitive s his prom id win b fought the to be con with the Whilefon. CHINE W

Moah? I Baldam I Paldam? Baidan p LOW READ n Balak's trai impor was Balak Give vour tor; and st . P Topic,--

L Clingi II. Triffi I, Clingi have in B of an atte