Fire, Fire! This terrifying cry, which has been the fore-runner of death and misery for ages past, rang high above the buzz of Nanticoke's business life on Tuesday of last week. All the citizens responded, particularly the ladies, with buckets and brooms and after half an hour's strug gle, the fire which was sweeping the dry grass on Mr. S. A. Thompson's property, before a .brisk north-east wind, was entirely quenched.

The short time in which this was accomplished only goes to prove the superiority of the Regal-hosiery, and several photos were taken of it while in use to further study its merits.

No. it wasn't another German attempt, but a local supporter of the Women Suffragettes who gave them this opportunity of demonstrating their efficiency. It won't be the Nanticoke men's fault if the ladies don't get a vote next election.

Miss Eva. Thompson suffered from sore throat the fore part of last week but she has fully recovered.

Like the bear comes out of the dark misty cave to enjoy the sunshine and beauty of spring-time-so the Jarvis plutocrats sek out Nanticoke for a day's good fishing.

Is there a speed limit in the village? If so, where are Chief Ding and Constable Dong with their stop watches.

The young lady who left the village last week for a month's visit and returned the next day must have suffered from either nostayology or amoritis. The only remedies are Home. Sweet Home, and the proximity of Honey, Dear.

The Wise Ones!

The successful business man always counts on a certain percentage of his capital investment for advertising. It is a good business principle.

If you have a bunch of money tied up in a good horse, you should take care of that capital by making known your business. The way to do that is to advertise.

The Record has one or the best equipments in the way of facilities for the getting out of route cards, folders, etc.
