The Western Fair
 SEPTEMBER 18th TO 18th.

The Western Fair of London, Ontario, as an agricultural exhibition occupies a prominent position in Western Ontario, and throughout the entire Dominion. This will be the 48th annual exhibition without a break, and every dollar of prize money won during that time has been paid. The management has been increasing the prize list from year to year and this year through the assistance of the Dominion Government they are enabled to add over $3000 to what was already a liberal list. Live stock men should avail themselves of the privilege of exhibiting this year in larger numbers than ever. Exhibitors always report good results from showing at London, as buyers are plentiful. The Dairy and Poultry Departments will be of special interest this year. If a prize list, entry form or any other information is required about the exhibition write the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ontario. The dates are September 18th to the 18th.

Mrs. Lowe, of Toronto, is a guest at the home of C. E. Bourne.

J. C. Belbeck and son, of Hamilton, were the guests of Mr. A. Belbeck on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.
