Military Notice

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

A false rumor is being spread over the County that Officers, N. C. O.'s and men of the 114th Overseas Battalion C. E. F. receive a cash allowance from the Government for every man which they enlist. This is an absolute falsehood in every sense of the word, as no person in this service, or connected with the service in any way has ever received, or will ever receive one cent of remuneration for men enlisted. The Officers, N.C.O.'s, and men receive their daily pay, and nothing more, and any person or persons who in the future are found guilty of circulating false reports in connection with the service will be dealt with according to the law.

Wabash Brakeman Killed

Simcoe, Dec. 13.—The body of Chas. Weidrick, trainman, from Windsor, who was killed in the yard here last night about ten o'clock, is lying here in the undertaking rooms awaiting an inquest. As far as can be laerned the unfortunate man was alighting from a westbound train entering the yard when he slipped and went under the wheels.

Soldier a Suicide.

St. Thomas, Ont., Dec. 13—Walter Smith, one of the guards at the wireless station at Port Burwell, was found hanging dead early Sunday morning from a tree near his beat. Smith was a well known resident of Port Burwell, and signed for home defennce as soon as the war broke out and has been on duty ever since. He was apparently in good health, and no cause can be assigned for the deed. Smith went on duty at five o'clock Sunday morning, and, as he did not meet the other guard at the junction of their beats for a second time, an alarm was given. When Smith was found life was extinct, his neck being broken. A widow and several children survive him.
