The Jarvis Record ISSUED WEDNESDAYS. Subscriptions—One dollar per year strictly in advance; if not paid in advance a dollar and a half will be charged. United States papers 50c extra, strictly in advance. We are at all times pleased to receive local news. Send or bring in the facts, we'll do the rest. The earnings and goings of Hamilton and Norfolk people are always welcome items of news. If you wish your address changed, give old as well as new address. ADVERTISING RATES. Yearly contract rates on application to publisher. Reading Notices—No reading notice advertising any entertainment or matter by which money is to be made by any person or cause will be inserted in The Record without charge, except when the job-work for the same is executed at the Record Job Department, when one small reader will be given gratis. The price for the insertion of business announcements is five cents per count line each insertion. Judicial, Legal, Official and Government notices—Eight cents per line (12 lines to inch) for the first insertion, and five cents per line for each subsequent insertion. Small Ads.—Condensed advertisements of such a nature as "Lost," "Found," "Situation Wanted," "To Rent," "For Sale," etc., not exceeding six lines 25c per insertion; 5 insertions $1.00. Advertisements ordered for insertion without written instructions will appear until written orders are received for their discontinuance. Notice to Advertisers.—Changes of copy for contract advertising must be in the hands of the printers by Monday noon, at the latest, each week. While willing at all times to do what is possible to accommodate patrons, we must, in justice to them and to ourselves, insist on a strict enforcement of this rule. MRS. ELVA RODGERS, Publisher. C. W. Butcher is home for his holidays. Italy has been invaded by refugees from Serbia. Only three British soldiers were wounded in the Anzac withdrawal. The license of the Aberdeen Hotel, Essex, was suspended for one month. Gen. Sir Ian Hamilton, if was announced, will not return to the eastern theatre of war. President Wilson sent Col. House to Europe with secret messages to the American envoys.

Allen, 1-6 Road Deb. No. 1 200 16 The Clock Was All Right. A man went into a clock store and handed out the pendulum of a clock, which he wished to leave for repair. The clockman asked him why he didn't bring the whole clock. "The clock is all right," was the reply. "It's the pendulum that won't go. As soon as I pulled that out the rest went like the very dickens."—Judge. Equal to the Occasion. "Did you ever try to board a train?" asked the facetious man of the boarding house lady at breakfast. "Oh, yes!" said the lady without a suggestion of a smile. "A man named Train stopped here at one time."—Yonkers Statesman. Coming Back. It was the beginning of their wed- ding trip. "Dear," she inquired anxiously, "in the excitement of leaving did you say goodbye to papa and mamma?" "No," he replied, "I said au revoir."—Puck.
