Nanticoke.

(Intended for last week.)
Over 100 Torpeichorean artists assembled at the second dance of the season held in the town hall last Thursday night. The dancers "chased the glowing hours with flying feet" to the strains of delightful music furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howey, until the near approach of dawn. At intermission a dainty lunch was served by the ladies. Many dancers from Port Dover and other near-by villages were present. The third assembly will be held next Wednesday evening.

Miss Margaret Evans youngest daughter of R. J. Evans is confined to her home here suffering from a fractured spine. The injury was caused by a fall on the ice of the local pond about three weeks ago. Unaware of the seriousness of her injury, Miss Evans with Spartan-like stoicism, returned to her studies at Business college in Simcoe. The increasing pain forced her to return home last week and a medical examination revealed the fact that her spine was fractured. The fracture was reduced and now the patient is progressing favorably under the care of Dr. Newell, Jarvis.

Miss T. Butterick of Hamilton, who has been the guest of Miss Lucy Ross during the past week, is returning home this week. Miss Ross will accompany her and make an extended visit in Hamilton and Toronto.

Mr. Samuel McReady and family, of Michigan, are visiting the former's aunt, Mrs. Catharine Thompson.

The members of the Women's Institute held their first regular meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. E. A. Thompson last Saturday. There was a large attendance and an excellent program prepared.

Mr. Willoughby Wilde and family passed through town last Saturday on their way to Brooklyn.

Mrs. J. Brown, of Villa Nova, visited friends in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Evans of the Woodlawn Park, visited in the village last Thursday evening.

Mr. Neil Elliott bought a carload of cattle in this vicinity last week.

A number from this village attended the dance in Selkirk on Tuesday night. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Howey, who provided the music.

Minstrel Show Thursday night.

J. H. Evans and family of Balmoral, visited Chestnut Knoll on last Sunday.

The Women's Institute met on last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Awde. The meeting was opened in the usual manner, after which a most interesting program followed. Papers were given on, "Work, Worry and Waste," by Mrs. Calvin Bush. "How to Simplify our Work," by Mrs. Hewitt. "Uses of old Papers," by Mrs. Frank Pond, followed by the Roll Call. "Thoughts on Subject," "Our Work." After the singing of God Save the King, the hostess served a very dainty lunch, after which the crowd dispersed, feeling they had spent a very enjoyable afternoon.

(Intended for last week.)
Joseph Hill spent Thursday in the city of Hamilton.

Mrs. Wm. Swent spent a few days at Chestnut Knoll last week.

Bert Inson spent the weekend at Dunnville.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Pond and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Awde visited Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Pond of Jarvis Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Evans and children of Hagersville, are visiting with friends in this locality.

Mr. and Mrs. John Awde are visiting their son Jas. N. Awde.

Mrs. John Pond entertained the officers of the Sunday School Monday evening.

Minstrel Show Thursday night.

The Sandusk Women's Institute

(Intended for last week.)

The Sandusk Women's Institute held their annual meeting and banquet in the Music Hall on Friday evening, January 22nd. The pleasure of the evening was enhanced by the presence of a few friends from the West. After a feed of oysters, the evening was pleasantly spent in games and short program. The program was very social and home-like, and the following took part:—

Music by Misses A. Westerby and G. Hewitt; also by Miss G. Thompson of Thompson of Springbank, Alberta; Messrs. Wm. and F. Booth sang solos; Little Miss Pearl Sternaman very sweetly sang a pretty solo and Mr. Victor Pond rendered "Tipperary" in good style; Readings were given by Miss Hearnst, Miss Nina Pond and Mr. C. Bush. Mr. C. Swent's whistling solos were very much appreciated. After a vote of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Westerby for the use of the hall. The program was closed by singing, "Tipperary."

Minstrel Show Thursday night.

LUX

Is For Y u Madame?

What is LUX? It is a soap of unusual purity made into the thinnest of flakes that readily dissolve in hot water. It makes a creamy, foamy lather that cannot injure the daintest fabric or the hands.

LUX is a wonderful life lengthener of all woolen and flannel garments. It absolutely prevents them from matting, thickening or shrinking in the wash.

Take One Tonight

—if you feel bilious, "headachy" and irritable—for that's a sign your liver is out of order. Your food is not digesting—it stays in the stomach a sour, fermented mass, poisoning the system. Just take a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets—they make the liver do its work—they cleanse and sweeten the stomach and tone the whole digestive system. You'll feel fine in the morning. At all druggists, etc., or by mail from Chamberlain Medicine Company, Toronto 14

THE NEWSPAPER LAW.

The law regarding newspapers has been amended so that it protects the publishers more than formerly. Any one taking a newspaper from the post office, whether they have ordered it or not, becomes liable for payment for same, unless it is marked "Specimen Copy." Another amendment is that no subscriber to a newspaper can stop same or refuse it at the postoffice until they have paid up all that is in arrears.
