News has been received stating that the war has claimed two of the most popular artists who have ever appeared at the French Opera House, the tenor Fontaine, and the baritone Combes. Fontaine was reported to have died from the complications arising from amputation, the result of a wound in the arm. Combes was stated to have been killed while acting as telegraph operator.

Anything in the form of leather is valuable nowadays and is going higher and higher. Even the belting parts of hides that used to sell for a short time ago for 12 and 15c a pound are now up to 32c, and the seller does not urge a purchaser to take it even at that price. What is called leather straps that the venerable cobblers of other days used to burn instead of coal or wood to keep their shops warm has a value now that would make the old fellows moan in their graves over their extravagance in burning such precious stuff.

Death of Mrs. Furlong

Death of Thos. Evans

It is our sad duty this week to record the death of Mrs. William Furlong, widow of the late William Furlong, and one of our oldest Canadians. She was born near Port Huron in 1831. Her father, Capt. Rhyer, and her mother's father, Capt. Rhyer, were captains in the British Army during the war of 1812, coming from England to take command of certain regiments.

She married the late William Furlong and came to this part of the country in 1848. Then the country was covered with boundless forests, countless wolves, bear, and deer roamed the woods, while the roads were mere bridle paths. But, since then, man has made many changes. Towns have sprung into existence, roads have been built, auto and flying machines have appeared upon the scene.

Her maiden name was Tamer Ellen Kiffen and out of a family of seven she leaves to mourn her loss five children, two sons and three daughters.—Com.

Sackrider - Kellick

A very pretty wedding took place at the Rectory, Nanticoke, on Feb. 15th, when Miss Alice Kellick of Nanticoke, became the bride of Mr. Wilfred G. Sackrider, of Burgessville. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Brand. The bride looked very pretty dressed in her travelling dress of blue satin, with hat to match and brown coat. Immediately after the ceremony, the happy couple left for Niagara Falls and Buffalo, where they will spend their honeymoon.

Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Sackrider will reside in Welland, where he holds a good position. The bride had lived in the home of Mrs. Howey at "The Cave" for some time, and will be much missed by them, but who wish for her, along with her many friends at one and happy life.

A Successful Year

The annual meeting of the patrons of the West Creamery held at the residence of Mr. Parsons was well attended, and after receiving a thorough report of the business of 1914, the patrons decided to continue the business of butter making during the year 1915. At the close of the meeting, a vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Parsons for the very satisfactory manner in which he had conducted the business of the past year, and for the clear and full report given to the patrons of the methods of conducting this branch of the dairy industry.

Death of Francis Heartwell

Word was received on Monday of the death of Mr. Frank Heartwell, who for many years was a resident of Jarvis. He had been a few weeks ill until about two weeks ago when he was taken down to his bed, and gradually grew worse until Sunday, Feb. 21, when the end came, kidney trouble being the cause of his death. The remains were brought to Jarvis on Monday evening to the home of M. C. Priest and laid to rest on Tuesday in Knox Church cemetery. The funeral services were held in St. Paul's church, attended with Masonic honors, of which society he had been a member for 41 years. He was also a member of the A. O. U. W. for 33 years.

Deceased was born in Glamford in the year 1837, and had lived in Jarvis nearly all his life. When a very young man he married Miss Nora McDowell, of Oswego, N. Y., and into them was born one daughter, Mrs. Grise, of Penetang, with whom he has lived since the death of his wife some four years ago.

At one time he was a member of the firm of Gowen & Armour, dry goods merchants in this town, but at the time of the big fire in Jarvis, he was burned out. For many years he held the position of Bailiff and only resigned when he left Jarvis to make his home with his daughter, Mrs. Grise. He was of a kindly disposition and was much respected by those who knew him. He was in the 77th year of his age. Besides a daughter, he leaves two sisters and two brothers, who have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends in this hour of bereavement.

May Quarantine Indians

Brantford, Feb. 22.—The Indian Department at Ottawa is taking steps to stamp out the smallpox epidemic on the reserve, and a special officer is expected here at any time to meet the requirements. If necessary the whole reserve will be quarantined. Brantford's smallpox cases have practically all been traced to the reserve Indians with the disease having been seen on the local streets.
