Nanticoke.

This is the butchers' "lean" season for these are the days of fasting and eggs and fish are the daily diet in all the land.

During the Lenten season, mid-week services are being held every Wednesday evening in Christ Church.

Prostrated by the shock of her mother-in-law's death, Mrs. Margaret Evans is critically ill at her home here. Anxious relatives are in constant attendance at her bedside.

Mr. Isaac Truckle called at his local domicile on Monday and returned the same day to Rainham township, he and his family making a protracted visit at that place.

Mr. Stanley Porritt, who has been visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity, returned to British Columbia last week.

Coming events cast their shadows before, and approaching marriage bells cast their echoes before.

Even the inmates of a blind, deaf and dumb institution could tell that there will be a wedding here next month. Watch the "solitaires". No it's not you.

Under the influence of sun and rain the Ice King is rapidly losing his fetters on the creek and lake. Mr. A. B. Hoover is already making preparations for the approaching fishing season.

Mr. George Fratten, of Waterford, is visiting at the home of his uncle, Mr. Fred Fratten.

Eloquent, forceful preaching by Rev. J. G. Foote, of Jarvis, featured the anniversary services of the Methodist Church on Sunday last. There were an unusually large number present at the morning service and in the evening the congregation completely filled the sacred edifice, which was appropriately decorated for the occasion. There was special music at both services. The choir sang several anthems. The soloists, Messrs. Roger Dennis and Clarence Weidrick were assisted in the choruses by R. and A. Doughty, and John Long. During the day about $75 was subscribed for church supplies.

A butcher's delivery van strayed into the metropolis this week. The meat dispenser evidently forgot about the Lenten fast.

Renton

Erza Burch, of Renton, was the guest of G. E. Secord one evening last week. D. Secord spent one day last week with W. D. Pease of Port Dover.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Duncan and family entertained a few of their friends one evening last week. Everybody enjoyed themselves very much with games and music.

Miss Belle Mitchell returned home after spending a few weeks with relatives and friends in Toronto.

Miss Campbell spent Saturday in Hamilton.

Mr. Southwood, of Delhi, was visiting his mother and sister, Mrs. Roy Stone and daughter.

Geo. Secord spent one day last week in Port Dover.

Cutting wood is the order of the day in our burg.

Wheat has come through the winter good so far in this vicinity. Let us hear from other correspondence how wheat is in the vicinity.

Sandusk

Misses F. B. Long and G. Thompson Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boothe and children visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pond on Thursday night.

Mr. Chas. Ionson spent Saturday in Hamilton. We are glad to report that Mrs. Hill is improving.

Mrs. Roy Lindsay, of Dunnville, and Miss H. V. Atkinson, of Niagara Falls were visitors in the burg Saturday Sunday.

Miss Lena Beam entertained a number of young people at her home on Friday evening.

Messrs. Elvin and Claude Pond, of Hagersville spent the week end at their home here.

Rev. Livingston Accepts

Rev. H. G. Livingston, who has been pastor of Barton St. church, Hamilton, for the last decade, and who recently returned from an extended trip for his health, stated this morning that in all likelihood he would accept the call to remain as minister of the Barton street church. In previous years he had always accepted and he saw no reason why he should depart from that rule. Rev. Mr. Livingston's long holiday did him a great deal of good.

Adult Bible Class Social

The Adult Bible Class of the Methodist Sunday School, Jarvis, met on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Lundy's on the plank road. There was a splendid gathering, about 70 in all, and were warmly welcomed by the genial host and hostess. A pleasant time was spent in the early part of the evening in games and after which a splendid programme prepared by the entertainment Committee was given, presided over by the president of the class, Henry Johnston, consisting of addresses, readings music, etc. A dainty lunch was served. After thanking the host and hostess for the pleasant and profitable time they had spent with them and wishing every blessing, they retired, feeling it had been a night well spent.

THE NEWSPAPER LAW.

The law regarding newspapers has been amended so that it protects the publishers more than formerly. Any one taking a newspaper from the post office, whether they have ordered it or not, becomes liable for payment for same, unless it is marked "Specimen Copy." Another amendment is that no subscriber to a newspaper can stop same or refuse it at the postoffice until they have paid up all that is in arrears.
