WANTED---MORE FRIENDS

SALESMAN who urge and persuade us to buy things we ought to have are our true friends. More friends of this sort are wanted.

Many men in and about Jarvis have their lives assured due to the persistency of the representatives of good life assurance companies.

Merchants who inform us concerning what is best to buy and when to buy are our good friends and save us money.

Merchants who are our real friends advertise—tell us what is good for us to have and what is the right price to pay.

To the Merchants of Jarvis

Perhaps you haven't looked at this matter in this light—haven't seen your obligation with respect to the dwellers in this community. Be a friend and make friends—by helpful advertisements in the Weekly Record?

Who are your Friends in Jarvis?

Having bells pealed right merrily in the Plymouth Rock Hall at the Daily West Corner of the Bank Road and Main Street avenue, a few evenings ago. The angels were again repeatedly chanting that we dare not do more than hint at the identity of the principals. However, the affair resembled a Low-suit or a chapter from one of John Pennington-Guyper's novels. "More Than a Marriage Ceremony."

The magnificent emolument of one thousand dollars will not be given for the solution of the following puzzle: "If you were a Nanticoke girl and were asked to chaperon a Hank, Hank, Hank, Hank Party, would it or would it not be proper to ask one of the members of the Store Stoop Club to accompany you on the pre-matrimonial tour? Address all answers to the Etiquette Department of the Nanticoke branch of The Record."

Gasoline wagons are becoming so vulgarly common in this bustling metropolis that they are constituting a nuisance to Chief Dong and Deputy Chief Ding and their minions of the law. Ours for an Aeroplane and then we'll be above the law.

Local option beer is stronger than water if the inebriated condition in which several of our prominent citizens arrived home from the Dominion Day celebrations is any criterion.

Just because Jupiter Pluvius threatened hostilities, two Jarvis boys got cold feet last Sunday evening and motored home to Mama long before the hour set for Madam Gundry. Take a straight tip, Hank and Mac. "Faint heart ne'er won a fair lady."

Once again the achievements of a Nanticoke boy have reflected honor on this little burg. This time the laurels rest on the brow of John R. M.A., who after only two years on the staff of the Seaford High School, has been appointed principal of that institution of learning. Congratulations, Seaford, and three cheers and a tiger for John.

A double christening was celebrated in Christ Church last Sunday morning, when Mildred Lillian infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Jackson, and Gilbert Clayton, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Field, were baptized by Rev. D. Brand.

Two fellows were captured at the corner of Main Street and Main Street last Friday evening. As a result the angles and corners of these streets were closed until the undergrounds were cleared for traffic. The wreck was caused by a mistake in the electric signals. Fortunately, no one was injured.

Bureh! At last a solution has been found for the old scientific puzzle—Can a human being metamorphose into a bank-note? The answer is "Yes, if the Librarian is young and attractive." Charlie, of Sanduski gets the prize money.

What local level can swim ambled down to Sanduski last Sunday evening and got caught in the showers of blessing. Ask Harold.

Frozen lactical fluid also banana-splits were dispensed by the Women's Auxiliary on Christ Church lawn last Saturday evening. A good crowd partook of the refrigerated refreshments.

Coming events cast their shadows before. This harlet is due to wake up some morning soon and find itself the proud possessor of quintuplets. The best things are the ones you wait longest for.

Next week's issue will contain a full account of the Wilde family reunion.

Jesse Finch and family, of Ridgeway, motored into town last Sunday and visited at the home of R. J. Evans.

Mrs. James Desser is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. J. Evans, and other relatives in this vicinity.
