A MAN AND HIS WORK.

Without Interest In the Task Efficiency

A man's luck is as hard as adamant if he is not in love with the work he does as with a maid he woos. It is a Parlor. We have just what you pation merely because it shuts out the want. Ice Cream and Ice Cool the thoughts that burn like irons if you think." Any trade or profession you could name is a poor affair if it is but a time killer, a stop gap, an opiate, the ballast of the dirigible life. You hear a man start his work with a faint tap at a clock stroke, and you hear him drop it with a loud thud at another clock stroke, and you know his soul and his brain are not alive in the thing that he is doing. Why? A thousand men are a thousand reasons why.

Any man who can be accurately stigmatized as efficient (dreadful word!) brings all of himself to the task in hand. He brings not merely his sixth sense and his fourth dimension to bear on his concerning handful, but every bit of vital electricity in the storage batteries of his whole being. When he has done his level best he is, as we ironically say, "played out," and he is supposed to take a rest, which may assume the form of harder labor than ever in a wholly different field of en-

In fact, the man who has formed the habit of work is never happy to be idle. It is no use to extend to him the prospect of complete hiatus in the name of a vacation. The program of the null and void would assure him an acute uneasiness. There is a saying that nature abhors a vacuum. So-does a real live man, the son of nature.-Philadelphia Ledger.

"The War Summary" Almost from the very day the great European war began in August last, the outstanding feature in Canadian journalism covering the conflict last, the outstanding feature in Canadian journalism Svering the conflict has been "The War Summary" daily on pages 1 and 2 of THE GLOBE. In the concisest possible form the writer has given his readers a pen picture of the developments in all parts of the world. While the details of the movements along the extended frontiers have not been overlooked, the readers of THE GLOBE have been enabled to follow intelligently and with confidence the general outlines of the stupendous conflict. "The War Summary" of THE GLOBE is reproduced daily by several papers throughout the Dominion.

The Editorial Page

THE GLOBE on its editorial page has striven to place before the public in proper perspective the broad background of the titanic stinggle. This series of articles has attracted the attention not only of the Canadian people, but of leading men and journals in all parts of the world. The causes leading up to the war, the elements entering into its conduct, and the results likely to flow from the cessation of hostilities have been dealt with in that bold and clear-cut form characteristic of THE GLOBE'S editorial page.

News Service

The above features, in addition to a cable and letter service from the front unmatched in Canada, have placed THE GLOBE far in the lead of Canadian papers, and partly explain the phenomenal increase of 331-3 per cent, in THE GLOBE'S circulation during recent months. Other Features

The sporting pages, the financial and commercial pages, the woman's pages, etc., etc., with the additional pages in Wednesday's issue devoted to "Farm asit Country Life," are maintained at a high standard of excellence, a standard that has justified THE 6LOBE in its title of Canada's National Newspaper, and has given it by many thousands the largest circulation of any morning paper in the Dominion.

Local and City Papers

By all means take your local paper, but in the field of metropolifan sewspapers THE GLOBE unquestionably offers you the greatest value be bed in Casada. Order it to-day. 25 cents per month—one dollar ber four months—three dollars per year.
