All the heroes are not fighting in Europe. Nanticoke boasts one quite worthy of the Carnegie medal. Last Thursday evening, two disciples of Isaac Walton were plying their art from the deck of the yacht, Osculatee. In the excitement of landing "a big fellow" one of them fell over-board. He uttered one piercing scream for help, and sank below the dark waters. Although he could not swim, the other angler plunged to the rescue.

Grasping his drowning comrade's hair he attempted to regain the safety of the yacht. To his horror, he found himself sinking—down, down, down to the strangling depths until the water reached his knees. Then rescued and rescerer shamefacedly waded ashore. But the gallant lifesaver received his reward. A young lady who witnessed the heroic deed from the dock publicly declared, anyhow, he "looked" braver.

ment the Board of Directors have decided to make a cash addition to the prize list of $2000. Good as it was before, this will certainly make Leonard's prize list very attractive. The lot is now in the hands of the printer and will soon be ready for distribution. Thousands of advertising maps and banners have been sent throughout the country during the past week announcing the dates, and arrangements are being made as quickly as possible to assure Exhibitors and visitors alike, that this year's exhibition will be the best ever held in London.

THE WESTERN FAIR.
 September 10th to 18th.

The Western Fair of London, Ontario, will maintain its reputation this year as being one of the best Live Stock Exhibitions of the Dominion of Canada. Live Stock Exhibitors are always loud in their praises of the treatment they receive at London and the amount of business they do there. Buyers are always plentiful, surrounded as London is by the best agricultural district of Canada. Although large cash additions have been made to the prize list, for the past three years, this year will surpass them all, when $3000 will be added to the Live Stock and Poultry Departments. This has been made possible through the generous assistance given by the Dominion Government. The amount has been distributed throughout the different classes and some new classes and sections added, which will be of special interest to the farmers and live stock breeders. The prize lists will soon be ready for distribution. Send to the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ont., for prize list or any information regarding the Exhibition.

EVERY Engaged GIRL

Looks Forward With Keen Delight To Furnishing Her Future Home

THE PICTURES IN HER OWN MIND just how each room will look. The carpets, the curtains, the style of furniture must be all in good taste, and must harmonize with the general color scheme. Naturally, she would like above everything to be allowed to select these furnishings herself.

Often she has her own way, but the result is not just as she planned it. Her inexperience in buying such things is against her. She has no real idea of just how much money should be spent on each particular room. She chooses the furnishings for part of the house, then finds she has expended more than she intended. To make her allowance cover everything, she must economize on the rest of the house by substituting cheaper furnishings, that she does not like and never will.

Now, my dear young lady, you will never have this trouble if you will take me into your confidence.

Come in and tell me all about the house; your idea just how it should be furnished; how much you are prepared to spend.

I have had twenty year's experience in furnishing homes for young ladies like you. It will take but a few moments to tell you just how much you can spend on each room to furnish the house according to your ideas.

And if you get these furnishings from me, it will be surprising if the TOTAL COST is not even LESS THAN YOU FIGURED ON.

I carry the largest stock of house furnishings in the counties of Norfolk and Haldimand. You have a wide range in every line from which to make your selection; superior buying facilities make it possible to give you HIGH CLASS GOODS at REMARKABLY LOW PRICES.

Bring your problem to me. You will find that my experience and advice will mean satisfaction to you and incidentally "dollars saved."

Ask for Business.

ONLY one's most intimate friends go to one's home uninvited, and the extent of one's calling list is determined by the number of one's calls.

In business the same facts hold. Every Merchant in Jarvis knows scores of families here and in the country round about, whose custom he does not possess.

Mutual acquaintance is the first step towards getting these families as customers, and acquaintances must surely be developed by invitations or calls made through the medium of advertisements in The Jarvis Record.

To the Merchants of Jarvis

Show your desire for business by asking for it. A merchant who does not ask for business is supposed not to want business very keenly.
