Dehorning is such a simple operation that it is difficult to explain why it is ever postponed until the calves are fully grown and necessary arifes of sawing them off. To do so secures a pencil of caustic potash at a drug store. When the calf is three days old locate the little knot which indicates the young horns, wet it and rub with the pencil, held in a gloved hand. This is all there is to the operation. It constitutes but a few minutes work and causes no pain to the animal.

HYMNI

NEWMAN-GATES.

A very quiet wedding took place at Marshville, on Wednesday, June 10th, when only the immediate relatives gathered to witness the marriage of Miss Carrie Gates, youngest daughter of Jas. Gates, youngest son of William Frederick Newman, of Jarvis. Rev. Mr. Ellis, of Fenwick, performed the ceremony. At precisely one o'clock, the bride entered the drawing room, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave the bride away. The bride looked very graceful dressed in white embroidered tulle. After the ceremony and congratulations the company sat down to a dining dinner prepared by the bride. The happy couple left on the six o'clock train for Toronto, and thence to Portland, Me., Rochester and other places. The bride's going away gown was blue serge suit, with black hat.

The many handsome presents received, showed the esteem in which the bride was held by her many friends. After their return home, the couple will reside in Jarvis. The Record joins with their many friends in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Newman a long and happy life, and welcomes Mrs. Newman back to her once home town.

Miller Re-union.

The first annual re-union of the Miller family was held at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Miller on Thursday last, June 17, the occasion being the birthday of Mr. Miller. Over one hundred of the family connection were present, and a most enjoyable time was spent by the large gathering. The day was a very delightful one from the weather standpoint and the happy occasion was thus successfully carried out and all, to attend and enjoy the outdoor life. Mr. Miller's five uncles were present, and all were hale and hearty even though they had each passed the four-score mile post in life.

Boundedly laden tables were the special feature of the refreshment portion of the day's enjoyment and all did full justice to the season's best delicacies. An extensive programme of sports and games was carried out during the day, the younger generation being particularly active in the line.

A very pleasing feature of the re-union was the birthday presentation by the company of a handsome gold Masonic ring and set Military Brushes to Mr. G. L. Miller. Mr. Miller was much surprised at this unexpected mark of good-will and friendship, and will wear the address accompanying the gift. The remainder of the day was spent in social intercourse and good fellowship one with the other.

At parting, it was unanimously expressed by all that the first annual re-union had been an unbounded success much of which was due to the untiring efforts of the genial G. L. and his affable and helpful help-meet, Mrs. Miller. The re-union will be held in June of 1916 at a place to be designated at a later date.

FOR THE RED CROSS FUND.

The Walter Hiton Co. of Toronto, has donated to Messrs. Miller Bros., The Busy Store, Jarvis, one Lady's Raincoat valued at $12.00, which will be sold at public auction at the Red Cross garden party at LePan's next Tuesday night, the proceeds to go to the Red Cross Fund. At the same time and place, a Gent's Raincoat will also be sold by the same means and for the same cause. Geo. L. Miller will wear the red cross hammer. See window on Saturday.

A SUCCESSFUL PARTY.

The strawberry festival and lawn social held in the Methodist Church park Jarvis, under the auspices of the Ladies' aid on Tuesday evening was a decided success, notwithstanding the extremely cool night. A big crowd was present and enjoyed the entertainment very much. The program given was an exceptionally fine one, each and every number being well received amid much applause. The Jarvis Brass Band also rendered a choice program of music during the evening. The Patriotic Quilt was put up at auction, and although the weather was unreasonably cool and quilts in demand, everybody appeared to be wearing fur-lined underwear judging from the poor bidding, and the beautiful autograph quilt was sold to Mrs. Wm. Parkinson, who had given her bid before going away on a holiday. The party broke up a little after 11 o'clock, the proceeds being about $18.00.

YOU CAN NEVER TELL.

I used to know a little boy that was his parents' pride and joy. When it would get along in May that kid would never run away from school and sneak away to some vacation with a grief to him. And Saturdays why that kid thought that Saturdays a fellow ought to be in school, and ought to be a student from nine till three.

He always had his lessons fine. Three times as good as I had mine. And always wore a collar too. And, I guess, my neck never knew a thing about the faint of a collar till I fell in love. And that kid couldn't swim at all. And didn't care for playin' ball. And folks that know him used to say, "He'd be our President some day."

And after that I'd his praises sung. They used to say that I'd got honey. It was his own idea of a new way to live. And that kid missed a heap of fun. But them that re-prophesied all got stone. Because I never have been hung. And that kid that had such a start. Now drives a City garbage cart.

White Space Worth Money

The Hupworth Progress has been purchased by W. H. Kitchin, of Alvin, Ont. In his first issue the new proprietor makes it clear that all notices announced in meetings and other ways, must be paid for. This is one of the difficulties in operating a newspaper. So many people also think of the fact that the newspaper has white space to sell, and to ask the editor to be assiduous in various objects with his cash and with his printing and his space, too, is overlooking business. Mr. Kitchin, in beginning will have some who will herald the collapse of his business, but persistence in his efforts will win success. The newspaper has no means to give away than any other concern.
