Mine-Sweepers Drew Their Fire, and Two-Hour Duel Finished the Defences.

A FRENCH LOSS

Submarine in Attempt to Sink the Goeben Was Sent Down by the Moslems.

Lodon Cable. Despatches from various sources indicate that the operations of the Anglo-French fleet against the Dardanelles and at Smyrna have been temporarily suspended. The newspapers caution the people that the taking of the Dardanelles is likely to be a slow affair, in the accomplishment of which the allies must pay the price. It is reported that the Turks are placing machine guns on the principal heights surrounding Constantinople on both the European and Asiatic sides of the Bosphorus.

On Tuesday night the mine-sweepers which are continuing work in the Dardanelles were discovered by the Turkish land batteries, and a hail of shells was directed against them, the Turks being assisted by powerful searchlights. The ships covering the mine-sweepers had much difficulty in Outlook for Settlement Grows discovering the enemy's guns because the latter were moved continually by means of powerful motor cars. When eventually the guns were located by the flashlights a duel ensued, lasting for two hours, and the batteries were

The attempt apparearly was made some time ago, although no announcement has been made of it heretofore.

"The attempt had as its object the sinking of the Turkish craiser Sultan Selim (formerly the German cruiser Goeben)," the correspondent says Rear Admiral Guepratte told him. "The submarine was submerged and succonfully navigated the straits up to the ner where the Asiatic coast juts out Nagara.

Through some miscalculation, which is quite natural when a sub-Tharine is trying to tread a tortuous channel without the aid of a periscope, the hull struck the rocky shore, compelling the boat to rise to the surface. Immediately the submarine appeared the forts opened fire, sinking her. Only a few of her crew escaped, and these were made prisoners.

"Regarding the present situation in the Dardanelles, Rear-Admiral Grepratte said the waters of the straits are clear as far as Kephez Bernu, to that Austria's proposal has been rewhich point all vessels of the fleet can safely navigate. The main mine fields. however, are between Chanak Kalessi and Killd Bahr, where also are the main coast defences.

"When these are removed the rest will be easy, although the assistance of land forces will be needed. For the final success of the undertaking not a shadow of doubt exists. The French fleet thus far has sustained no

French Discovery a Great Aid to the Wounded.

Paris Cable-Whatd is describe as the greatest surgical discovery since Lister's antiseptic is now at the service of the French wounded. It is an antitoxin discovered by the well-known Severe Frost Reported to Have bacteriologists, Professors La Chainche and Vallee, the use of which discovery is likely to supplant the antiseptics in preventing infection of the wounds. The antiseptics, though killing the disease, also weaken and benumb the tissues, thus delaying the cicatrisation of the wound, whereas the new serum, called polyvalent, because effective against all malignant germs, actually Turks in Northwest Persia Massastimulates the tissue surrounding the wound and promotes rapid healing.

The discoverers, who are in charge of the Alfort National Veterinary school, have twenty-five horses under treatment, from which they get forty thousand five-cubic-centimetre does monthly. Extensive experiments show a decrease in the pain and fever a few hours after the injection accompanied by a rapid cessation of inflammation. Where the injection is made before the infection develops the wounds invariably heal without complication.

Italy, the paper says, was not satisfied with the promises and disclaims responsibility for the war. The arrival of special trains in the Province of Goerse with 4.000 Austrian troops and artillery, caused a near panic on the unofficial bourse at Triesta.

Further evidence of the popular sentament for intervention is found in the announcement to-day that the lead. ers of the Republican party are organizing an anti-neutrality agitation to protest against the negotiations, which are neld to be contrary to the Ottawa Despatch -- Although only aspirations necessary to complete the national unity of Italy.

To Prove Himself Sane, is Postponed a Week.

New York Despatch - Harry K. Thaw's legal battle to prove that he is sane and entitled to his freedom, has been postponed for one week. Instead his attorneys planned to-day to bring up before Supreme Court Justice Bijour the issue under which they contend that Thaw's commitment to the Matteawan Asylum was illegal. For that purpose they had obtained a writ FOUND 40 PEARLS of habeas corpus, which temporarily superseded a writ previously granted, to enable him to submit to a test of his mental condition.

It was expected that, after an argument over the question of jurisdiction, the hearing on the new writ would be referred to Justice Page, before whom Thaw was tried and acquitted on a hearge of conspiracy, and German will no longer be taught in who ruled that Thaw must be sent back to Matteawan unless prevented Governor Spry vetoed the state-wide by legal process.

The purpose of this new move was to enable Thaw's counsel to take his case before the Appelate Division on an appeal from the decision of Justice Page, if it proved adverse to The by-law reducing the number of Thaw.
