DAD, HERE'S TO YOU!

"We happened in a home the other night and over the parlor door saw the legend worked in letters of red. 'What is home without a Mother?' Across the room was another brief, 'God bless our Home.'"

"Now what's the matter with God Bless our Dad?" He gets up early, lights the fire, boils an egg, and wipes off the dew of the dawn with his boots while many a mother is sleeping. He makes the grease, the milkman and baker, and his little pile is badly worn before he has been home an hour.

"If there is a noise during the night dad is kicked in the back and made to go down stairs to find the burglar and kill him. Mother darns the sox, but dad bought the sox in the first place, and the needles and the yarn afterward. Mother does up the fruit; well, dad bought it all, and jars and sugar cost like the mischief."

"Dad buys chickens for the Sunday dinner, carves them himself, and then draws the neck from the ruins after everyone else is served. 'What is home without a mother?' Yes, that is all right; but what is home without a father? Ten chances to one it is a boarding house, father is under a slab and the landlady is the widow. Dad, here's to you; you've got your faults—you may have lots of 'em—but dad, you've had one comfort;—you've always read The Jarvis Record."

The Record will be sent to any address in Canada from now till January 1st, 1917, for the sum of $1.00 to NEW subscribers only. 50c extra on papers going to the States. Get your name on the list at once.

BE A BOOSTER.

Do you know there's lots of people settin' round in every town, Growlin' like a brood chicken, Knockin' every good thing down? Don't you be that kind of grouch, Cause they ain't no use on earth. You just be a booster pooster, Crow and boost for all you're worth.

If your town needs boostin' boost'er Don't hold back and wait to see if some other fellow's willin'— Still right in this country's free, No one's got a mortgage on it. It's just yours as much as his. If your town is shy on boosters, You get in the boostin' biz.

If things just don't seem to suit you And the world seems kinder wrong What's the matter with a boostin' Just to help the thing along. 'Cause if things about stop agoin' We'd be in a sorry plight, You just keep that horn a blowin'— Boost'er up with all your might.

If you know some fellow's failin's Just forget 'em cause you know That some feller's got some good points Them's the ones you want to show. 'Cast you leaves out on the waters, They'll come back, a sayin' true, Mebbe too, they'll come back "but-tired" When some feller boosts for you.
