Seasonable Mints, No. 3

The real test of the farmer is, per caps in his ability to make the mos proftiable use of the various projucts of his farm and his foresigh n getting ready in every way practi-thle between harvest and seed time for the productive operations of the 10xt season." Thus states Mr. J. H risdale, Director, Dominoin Expermenta! Farms, in representing Seasenable Hints, No. 3, for November December, January and February, to the farming public of Canada.

careful persual of its sixteen pages will amply reward the stockman, the agriculturist, the horticulturist, the the poultry, tje tobacco grower and those especially interested in bees. A feature of this third issue is the advice under the caption "Shelter the implements." The enormity of the vast sum of money spent annually on ization. To equip an average farm with machinery costs about $1000, which under ordinary conditions will not do work for more than five years. To counteract this waste for unsheltered implements means waste, shelters should be built. A working plan of a shed 25x47 feet outside measure. of a shed 25x47 feet outside measurements is given, with directions necessary for its construction. A careful study of this plan, which, as stated, is capable of many modifications, will be helpful to those intending to build. To those, therefore, who would have a compendium of information, which outlines many necessary fall and winter duties pertaining to agriculte in all its phases, Seasonable Hints, No. 3, is available on application to the Publications Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, Canada.
