The Late Slade Baker.

On Sunday morning, Slade Baker passed away at the residence of his son-in-law, John V. Durham, in Vancouver, in his 82nd year.

He was born in the Township of Woodhouse, but lived the greater part of his life on the old homestead. He was a devoted husband, a kind father and a friendly and obliging neighbor.

In politics he was a consistent Conservative, and a great worker in the party. He was a member of the Methodist Church for a great many years and was a willing and earnest worker.

His wife predeceased him about a year ago. He leaves a family of eight children, five sons and three daughters; also one brother, John Baker, of Woodhouse.

The funeral took place on Tuesday from the residence of his son Clyde to St. John's cemetery, Woodhouse, and was largely attended.—Simcoe Reform.

That Barrel Chair.
A woman there was, and she wrote for the press, as you or I might do. She told how to cut and sew a dress and how to cook many a savory mess, but she never had done it herself, I guess, but none of her readers knew. She told how to comb and dress the hair and how out of a barrel to make a chair—"would adorn any parlor and give it an air—we thought the tale was true. Oh, the days we spent and the nights we spent, with hammer and saw and tack, in making a chair in which no one would sit, in which no one could possibly sit, without a crick in the back.

Comparisons Are Odious.
"Oh, dear," lamented a lady on her return from a fashionable reception, "I have made such a terrible blunder! Lady X. introduced a man to an artist, and, trying to be clever, I commenced to air a theory I have read about—that it is impossible for an artist to avoid drawing faces more or less like his own. This artist disagreed very politely, but I wouldn't give in and finally told him his own drawings proved it. I have discovered since that he draws nothing but pigs and sheep!"—London Tatler.

Soldiers' Steps.
Soldiers are marching across Europe, but they do not keep step. They vary both in the length of the step and the rapidity of their pace. The British infantry step 31 1/2 inches, the longest of all the steps. Germany keeps step with Switzerland, they each do 31 inches, whilst 29 inches is the pace in the armies of Italy, France and Austria. The Russians take the shortest step, 27 1/2 inches, and only do 112 in a minute.

A Precaution.
Husband (going to his rich uncle's funeral)—Put a couple of large handkerchiefs into my pocket, dear. The old gentleman promised to leave me $50,000, and I shall want to shed some appropriate tears.
Wife—But suppose, when the will is read you find he hasn't left you anything?
Husband—In that case you had better put in three.—London Mail.

What will you do for these?

MAGNIFICENT soldiers and sailors from every part of the British Empire are laying down their lives for you and yours. Perhaps some of your own blood are amongst them.

An urgent appeal has gone forth from the Marquis of Lansdowne, President of the British Red Cross, for funds to provide medicines, appliances, comforts, and hospital equipment of all kinds to alleviate the sufferings from wounds and sickness of sailors and soldiers from all parts of the Empire. This appeal is endorsed by their Majesties, the King and Queen, and every British possession is setting aside, by official proclamation as a day of public giving to aid in this splendid cause, which stands in severe need of assistance owing to the tremendous demands upon Red Cross work.

"Our Day" For Sailors Oct. 21 and Soldiers Oct. 21

Ontario's Quota is set at $500,000

We can and will raise this amount as a token that Ontario feels for our wounded heroes and will not see them languish in their pain and suffering for the want of medical and other comforts. Do your part and make "Our Day for Sailors and Soldiers" a tremendous success in your locality.

"We shall be truly grateful to you for assistance in relieving the sufferings of our wounded soldiers and sailors from all parts of the Dominions."
Lansdowne, President British Red Cross Society.

"This is the first appeal of the Motherland to Canadians in this present war. It calls upon our humanity as well as our loyalty."
John S. Hendrie, Lieut.-Governor of Ontario.

Give to the Red Cross

Every cent collected goes to British Red Cross headquarters, where it is officially and wisely spent. No money is wasted in expenses, even this advertising space is donated by the publishers.

Give a day's pay. Do your part. Give liberally and loyally. Give your money, because these brave ones—our sailors and soldiers, are giving their lives for us. Collectors on October 21 will solicit your subscription—or make it through your Mayor or Reeve.
