In spite of the unfavorable weather of the past month most of the farmers who engaged in wheat growing in this vicinity were able to harvest crops far above the average. One man who has completed threshing reports a yield of 32 bushels to the acre, and another farmer in this neighborhood have 38 or 40 bushels to the acre safely in their barns. The wheat, moreover, is in almost every case of the highest quality.—Gazette.

REQUIEM.

The death of Miss Isabel Henning occurred at the home of her brother George Henning, at Little Current, Manitoulin, on Friday, August 28. The deceased was born near Nanticoke, and was a daughter of the late John Henning. She was for many years a resident of Jarvis.

Miss Henning was a staunch adherent of the Anglican church, and held the office of President of the A. Y. P. A. of St. Paul's church here for a number of years.

The funeral took place from the residence of her brother, Mr. Wm. Henning, Walpole, on Tuesday, Aug. 24th, and proceeded to Christ Church, Nanticoke, for service and interment. Rev. J. Hirst Ross, of Jarvis, and Rev. J. H. Brandt, of Nanticoke, performed the last and rites. Mr. Ross' few well chosen words spoke of the beautiful christian character of Miss Henning.

She leaves to mourn her loss three brothers, James, of Hamilton; George of Little Current, and William, of Walpole.

The floral tributes were very beautiful and numerous, while many sorrowing friends paid their last sad respects to one who was universally loved by all who knew her.

The greatest display of Pure Linens ever made by this store will be ready Thursday.

FRUIT NEWS

Burbank, Gage and Bradshaw Plums also Triumph Peaches are now at their best for canning. The thrifty housewife will put up more fruit this year than ever before—Plums with their numerous varieties present a change for table dessert which is not possible with any other variety of fruit. Peaches are especially favorable as a home-canning and preserving fruit—easily preserved and delicious when served on the table. Grocers are quite willing to book orders ahead and house holders should see their dealers in good time as this year is a home-canning year if ever there was one.

W. Murray

A quiet wedding took place on Saturday, August 21st, at Moor street Presbyterian Church, Toronto, when Miss Louise Murray, M.A., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Murray of Toronto, became the wife of Mr. J. F. Murray, M.A., of Nanticoke, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Edgar Dewey, B.A. The young couple were attended. The bride wore a given gown by her father and wore her wedding costume of blue tulle and a hat with cascade of lily of the valley and orchids.

The bride has spent two summers in Europe and was one of a party who had escaped when the war broke out.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Murray left for East Aurora, N.Y., and other eastern points. On their return they will reside in Scarboro, Ont.

Diamond Wedding

A very pleasant event took place at their residence, Hill view Farm, Rockland, on Sunday, August 29th, when a happy company united with Mr. and Mrs. George Irwin, Sr., in celebrating the 50th anniversary of their marriage.

The home was gorgeous with flowers, tokens of love from their many friends. The happy couple were delighted to have present the following children and grand children.—Alvy Irwin and Miss Ida Irwin, who reside at home and lovingly care for their parents; Mr. and Mrs. Ansley Irwin, of Simcoe; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McCarter, of Simcoe; Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Patterson, of Simcoe; Mr. and Mrs. George Irwin, Sr., of Jarvis; There were also present, Mrs. William Irwin, Rockland, sister of Mrs. Irwin and Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Kitchen, Benton, brother and sister of Mrs. Irwin. Letters of regret and congratulation were received from their eldest son, John, Wyatt and Stanley residing at home; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wylie and children of Sarnia; and Mr. and Mrs. Lou Wylie and children of Yorkton, Sask; also Dr. and Mrs. Russell Colman and son, Mac, of Kindersley.

Besides four sons and two daughters mentioned above there are eight grand children and ten great grand children living.

A most sumptuous dinner, congratulatory addresses were made by a number of the family and relatives in reply Mr. Irwin feelingly spoke of a kind Providence who had dealt so mercifully with them all throughout their many years—with one exception, one daughter having passed away in infancy—an unbroken family above urged them all to so live that they might make an unbroken family above Mr. Irwin in converse with Mrs. W. Irwin, proved himself an accomplished bible student. They presented to very interested listeners all the life of Moses and God's dealings with his chosen people.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin are pioneer settlers in Townsend having reached the ages of 89 and 87 Mr. Irwin was born in county Fermanagh, Ireland, and came with his parents to Canada when but a boy of fifteen. Mrs. Irwin was born near Bloomsburg, and a wide circle of relatives and many friends in Norfolk county. Since their marriage they have resided at Rockford, where they are held in the highest esteem not only by the Methodist people, but by the entire community. Owing to the sacredness of the day, it was impossible to hold a formal reception, nevertheless a number of friends and relatives called during the afternoon and evening to offer their best wishes and congratulatory messages during which time sacred and lighted music was rendered and de- lighted bride and groom, who though physically afflicted have retained all their mental faculties and all agreed that a most delightful and profitable day had been spent.
