Advertisement Show Where We Are Welcome

An advertisement is a beckoning hand, a token of invitation, a sign of welcome.

A business serving the public should most certainly advertise—beckon, welcome, and show an eagerness to serve.

The attitude of a business serving the public, yet which does not advertise, is not one of courtesy or appreciation.

A business which uses the expanding factor of advertising is on a fair way to reach its fullest possible potential development.

To The People In And About Jarvis

You will have a better service, not to say better values, if every retailer in Jarvis will advertise his business every week in the Weekly Record.

The Jarvis Fair, two weeks from today, Oct. 5 and 6.

See The Exhibition of The Flying Machine at The Norfolk Fair

October 12, 13, and 14

When you are deciding on which fair you will go to this fall, don't fail to include Simeoe in the list. It should be the very best fair ever held by the Norfolk Agricultural Society in its long and noteworthy history.

You will see a fine display of horses, good cattle, sheep and poultry; an apple exhibit that is unequalled in the province. On the second and third afternoon there will be trials of speed in the horse ring. At 1.30 and 4 p.m. each of the last two days, Captain Thomas Baldwin, one of the most experienced aviators of the United States, will give exhibitions in his aeroplane.

There will be reduced fares on the railways and plenty of room for automobiles.

Send to the Secretary for a prize list giving full particulars.
