He's a Winner

To win a prize out of a class of 9,300 chickens would be some distinction, but to pull several is surely a feat of which to be proud. That is done by Jack Martin, of Port Dover, has done. He has just returned from Syracuse, N.Y., where he attended the New York State Fair. He won for the tenth time the first prize for the best display of White Wyandottes. In the ten years he has competed for 60 prizes and won 52. He also won the silver cup given by the National White Wyandotte Association for the best display. The Manning Cup for the best tenbirds in the show was another trophy won by Mr. Martin. The show was the largest of its kind ever held in America, its closest competitor being the World's Fair at St. Louis, when 8,700 birds were exhibited.

Pte. Wilfred Wilson Now in France

In a letter received by Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson, of Villa Nova, from their son, Wilfred, who is now at the front, the soldier boy states that he is engaged as a sniper. He is somewhere in France. Wilfred is 19 years of age.

PTE. WILFRID WILSON

His brother, John, who crossed the Atlantic a month ago, is now in England and is a Senior Lance Corporal in the Royal Canadian Fusiliers. He is 21 years of age.

Both boys are proud to wear the King's uniform and are happy in their duty to King and Country.

We trust they will come through the great war unscathed and have a happy return to their beloved Canadian home. They are both well at the present time of writing.

Henry Hoffmann Badly Injured

Marjorie and Louise also Figure in Auto and Train Smash-up.

A letter just received by Lorne C. McCall, Colborne street, from Henry Hoffmann, gives the particulars of an accident which befell him and his two daughters, near their home in Redbank, Cal., in which Mr. Hoffmann received severe injuries and both his daughters were hurt.

Mr. Hoffmann had just resumed work at his office after having a small bone broken in his ankle, and was getting along nicely. He took his two daughters for a ride in his car and had to take a temporary road for a mile or two. While crossing a railway track they were struck by a Pacific electric train running 50 miles an hour. Their car was turned completely over, turned end for end and was badly bruised and shirked up. The two girls—Marjorie is about sixteen and Louise seven or eight—fell into the ditch beneath the car and escaped being crushed to death.

Marjorie's collar bone was broken, and Louise sustained a badly bruised eye. The car was smashed beyond repair.

Mr. Hoffmann is just now able to be about after being laid up for about five weeks.—Simcoe Reformer.
