Varency

The Girl's Day off the Varency Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. R. Parkinson last Thursday with thirty-five present. After the business in connection with the Institute was completed and the report from the District Director's meeting, held at Caledonia, was given, the girls furnished a good programme, consisting of vocal and instrumental music and readings. A vote of thanks to the hostess and the singing of the National Anthem, brought the meeting to a close, after which a dainty luncheon was served by the girls.

The Annual Business Meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Mitchell on May 1. A good attendance is requested as the election of officers is the main item on the slate.

Wheat and clover prospects are excellent.

Mr. S. F. Saunders is suffering from an attack of pleuro-pneumonia.

The death of Mr. John Nicol which occurred at the home of his daughter Mrs. Alex. Mercer, Hamilton, on the 1st inst., in the 80th year of his age, leaves another gap in the almost depleted ranks of the pioneers of this section.

Deceased emigrated to this country from Eglingshire, Scotland, when a young man, settling in Port Dover, where he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Nicol, sister of the Rev. Peter Nicol, of Simcoe. Soon after coming here he decided to give up the carpentry trade, at which he had previously been employed, and engage in farming. After a few years spent in operating various farms in this locality he purchased the farm now owned and occupied by Mr. Doc Parkinson, where he resided until shortly after the death of Mrs. Nicol, which occurred about six years ago.

Two sons and two daughters were born to them all of which were present at their father's bedside during his closing hours. They are Charles of Walpole, Rev. John L. of Swift Current, Sask., Mrs. Alex. Mercer, of Hamilton and Miss Annie, of Buffalo, N.Y.

Interment took place in the Knox Church Cemetery, Jarvis, on the 14th inst., after which service was held in the church, Rev. Mr. Russell, of Eglingshire Church, Hamilton, officiating.
