USEFUL PRESERVING HINTS

Here's the Way to Succeed in Jam or Jelly Making.

- 1-Use ripe-but not over-ripe fruit. 2-Buy St. Lawrence Red Diamond Extra Granulated Sugar. 3-Cook well. 4-Clean, and then by boiling at least 10 minutes, sterilize your jars perfectly before pouring in the preserves or jelly.

Success will surely follow the use of all these hints.

We advise purchasing the Red Diamond Extra Granulated in the 100 lb. bags which as a rule is the most economical way and assures absolutely correct weight.

Dealers can supply the Red Diamond in either fine, medium, or coarse grain, at your choice.

There was a time before the present generation of scientists got work on the problem when the Basques, both in Spain and in France, were recognized as the last remnant of the original occupants of Europe...

The Persian royal palace is a most unattractive place. The courts are filled with painted pictures of cast iron in a kind of operatic Romeo costume and with boys of gilt iron offering vermilion cups to gilt eagles.

The Cause of Appendicitis Now Definitely Known

The commonest cause of appendicitis is constipation. Every doctor says so. When you require physic, don't use a cheap, drastic pill—get Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which are made from the private formula of one of the greatest physicians.

He was going to be all that a mortal should be. Tomorrow; No one should be kinder or braver than he. Tomorrow; A friend who was troubled, and weary he knew, Who'd be glad of a lift and who needed it, too; On him he would call and see what he could do. Tomorrow; Each morning he stacked up the letters he'd write. Tomorrow; And thought of the folks he would fill with delight. Tomorrow; It was too bad, indeed, he was busy to-day; And hadn't a minute to stop on his way; More time I will have to give others, he'd say. Tomorrow; The greatest of workers this man would have been. Tomorrow; The world would have known him had he ever seen. Tomorrow; But the fact is he died and he faded from view; And all that he left here when living was through. Tomorrow; Was a mountain of things he intended to do. Tomorrow; —Edward A. Guest in Detroit Free Press.

A minister who lives in a small town is noted for his sententiousness both in and out of the pulpit. As he was coming down the street one day a man accosted him with, "Sir, can you tell me how to find a sheriff's office?"

READING THE HAND.

Most Murderers, it is Said, Show Their Characters in Their Palms.

A French savant contends that the murderer has a distinctive hand. His face may not be hideous, but the hands are, and are self-condemnatory. Evidence on the latter characteristic is scanty and rests upon the investigations of the French criminologists; but, as to the former, it is a fact that some of the most brutal murders on record have been perpetrated by men whose countenances habitually wore a very mild expression.

Deeming was a pleasant man to speak to until crossed, but some of the authorities who examined his hands declare his broad thumb indicated the born murderer. The true ball-headed thumb gives to the first phalanx a round, bulbous appearance. It is short, and the nail is so abbreviated as to suggest that it has been gnawed. It is imbedded in the flesh, which rises on either side and beyond it.

Dumouliard, a wholesale murderer, had a hand remarkable for its thickness and length of palm in proportion to the fingers. He had a significant sign, common to most murderers—namely, almost entire absence of lines in the palm, save the three principal ones—the line of life, head and heart. These lines were very strongly defined. The line of the head—the center line extending across the palm—was violently cut by the line of life running upward from the wrist. Chironomy interprets this to foretell a violent death. His fingers were knotty and uneven at the nail phalanges.

Mirard's Liniment Cures Burns, Etc.

The Game of Life. Life becomes, as the stories more than once tell us, like a play which is acted or a game played with counters. Viewed from the outside, these counters are valueless, but to those engaged in the game their importance is paramount. What really and ultimately matters is that the game shall be played as it should be played. God, the eternal dramatist, has cast you for some part in his drama and hands you the role. It may turn out that you are cast for a triumphant king. It may be for a slave who dies of torture. What does that matter to the gods? His only business is to accept the role given him and to play it as well as he can. Success or failure is a thing he can determine without stirring a hand. It hardly interests him. What interests him is that one thing which he cannot determine—the action of your free and conscious will—Gibbert Murray.

DEATHWATCH BEETLES.

Their Uncanny Ticking and Their Trick of Playing Dead.

You've probably heard the deathwatch beetle oftener than you've seen him. He hides away in furniture or interior wood-work and keeps up a continual "tick-tick-tick" like a watch. Day or night you'll hear him pounding away. He's eternally persistent about it and ghostlike and uncanny, hence his name. He makes the little ticking noise with his head, pounding it on the wood. It's the way he has of calling his mate, and his mate answers him in turn. If you pounce on the wood where he is hiding he'll answer you just like he does his mate. You may wonder how he finds his way inside a piece of furniture. He gets there when he's in the grub or larva state, boring his way through wood, paper, or anything the grub can eat. The larva which eats its way through the leaves of a book is a cousin.

The deathwatch beetle has another trick besides that one of calling his mate by pounding his head on wood. When you touch one of the little creatures he folds his legs up beneath his body and makes believe he is dead. He will keep on playing possum even if you put him close enough to a fire to roast him.—Philadelphia North American.
