It will be news to many that a newspaper known as the Globe was published in Toronto before the paper founded by Hon. George Brown was established in 1844. Mr. Chas. E. Bright, of Brampton, has in his possession a copy of the Globe dated Toronto, May 2, 1850, and labeled Vol. 1, No. 6. How long that paper continued publication Mr. Bright is unable to say, though it was published by his great-grandfather, John Carey. The contents of this four-page weekly are interesting, and even historical. Several columns are taken up with a speech by Lord John Russell in the British House of Commons, discussing the necessity of Upper and Lower Canada. One of the advertisements is H. Piper, whose firm has continued to the present, and one of the articles he offers for sale is "still worms" which apparently were part of the equipment of distilleries, which then abounded in the country.—P.M.

Have Called Minister

For several weeks the Presbyterian church here has been hearing ministers with a view to selecting one for this church. The call has been extended to Rev. W. D. Blake, of Pt. Dover, who was the first minister to preach for a call. He was here three Sundays. Mr. Blake is an earnest speaker and his sermons showed much spirituality and thought. The call is being largely signed by the members.—Cayuga Advocate.

Lieut. Quanbury Dies

Mrs. Quanbury was on Tuesday the recipient of a telegram from Ottawa, informing her that her son, Lieut. John H. Quanbury had succumbed to his wounds. The father, Mr. Christopher Quanbury, is on the ocean, proceeding to England. We are sure the sympathy of the community is with Mrs. Quanbury in her distress. The deceased young officer will be remembered by all who knew him as an especially bright and capable youth.—Simcoe Reformer.

Simcoe Soldier Wounded

Pte. Wesley Gurr, who has been in the trenches for a year, has been reported as wounded. He left Simcoe in May, 1915, and was drafted with reinforcements for the first Canadian contingent in June of the same year, arriving in France the next month. Twelve other Simcoe men were included in the bunch, among whom were Ptes. Jack Cook, killed a few weeks ago; Ptes. Astford, Coates, Fradley, Heath and Tiekner, the last named being invalided home after seven months being spent in the hospital. Pte. Gurr is perhaps twenty years of age and during his absence his mother has died.—Reformer.

An Honest Man

Last week Mr. Alex. Mitchell heard a gentle knock at the door and in answering it he found a gentleman asking for information. Having seated himself on the porch Mr. Mitchell wanted to know his wishes, and the gentleman said I believe I owe you something. I have not seen you for 20 years and was in rather bad luck when I left here. My name is Stevenson and you have acted like a gentleman to me and now I am in good circumstances I mean to pay you. How much is it? Mr. Mitchell said he believed he did owe him a trifle but had no idea how much it was and as his books was covered up with hay in the barn it would be rather hard to get at them. Mr. Mitchell asked him how much he thought it was? He said about 25 or 30 dollars. Mr. Mitchell said "all right, whatever you say." The gentleman then said, "here I'll give you fifty, you deserve it." That's the kind of honesty that is appreciated even after a lapse of 20 years.—Advocate.

Officers Released

The reduction of officers in connection with the battalion hits the 11th. By the new order, the junior officer, assistant adjutant, signaling officer and the chaplain are "let out." That is they are given the option of resigning or going back to the ranks. This affects Major Cowles, Lieut. Carmichael, Lieut. Campbell and Chaplain Lyon. In the case of Major Cowles the new order strikes particularly hard. Major Cowles was chosen as second in command by Lieut. Col. Baxter, and during his illness and death the Major was in charge of the Battalion. He resigned a good position in Dunnville with the sole expectation of going overseas. He has done excellent work recruiting and in the organization of the regiment and to be turned out in this manner doesn't effect much credit on the military authorities.

Capt. Lyon may yet attain the chaplaincy. But the order stated that unless already gazetted, the chaplain was discharged with Capt. Lyon was the life of C company, having charge of it from the first, drilling it and bringing it up to a marked degree of proficiency. He resigned command only after he went to camp to be given the chaplaincy. His work in recruiting in his home battalion apparently counts for nothing with the powers that be. These men may obtain posts with other battalions, but it is this sort of muddling that puts a damper on recruiting nearly as much as Sam Hughes and Camp Borden.

What might have been a serious accident occurred early on Monday morning while David Featherston's driving his son Chester to his work Canabero and were nearing Dunnville an auto headed in the same direction and driven by Dr. Walker, of that place, smashed into them. The occupants were hurled into a deep ditch and escaped with a few bruises and a good shaking up. The horse was caught by kind friends but the buggy was completely demolished. The auto was badly damaged also.—Advocate.

The platform attractions at the Exhibition this year will be of a very high class. The very best acts obtainable have been secured. There will be acts of skill and comedy and plenty of them. Dio's Dog and Pony circus will be worth the whole price. Rome two or three Bands each day will provide the best of music, while the International Fireworks Co. of London will put on a special programme of fireworks each and every night. If space is required application should be made to the Secretary at once. Entries should be made as early as possible. Information of all kinds from the Secretary, A. M. Hunt, London, Ontario.
