Successful Entertainment

The Xmas Tree Entertainment of the Union Sunday School, S. S. No. 17, on 20th Dec., was a decided success.

Mr. G. L. Miller acted as chairman in his usual good style.

The program consisted of songs, recitations, dialogues and drill by the young people of the school. The Tree was well loaded with presents for the children and the scholars of the Junior and Intermediate classes received prizes according to attendance during the year.

The proceeds amounted to $14.70 and goes to the Muskoka Free Hospital.

At The Polls

Nomination meeting was held Friday evening last with a poor attendance. After some delay 12 names were nominated for Reeve and 12 Councillors. Three of these nominated for Reeve withdrew their names and R. W. Smith was elected to the office by acclamation. I. W. Holmes, the past Reeve, feeling that he had given his share of time to the village for which he is gratefully thanked by the Ratepayers, declined to hold his former chair, but has consented to take a seat in the council. There are six names before the public for councillors namely—

I. W. Holmes, J. A. Burwash, Andrew Miller, Dr. R. G. Howell, Rich. Walter, and N. R. Pond. Messrs. O. J. Newell and C. S. McCarter have withdrawn from the Council.

The election will be held on Monday next, Jan 1, 1917.

Mrs. Baxter, of Cayuga, wished the Red Cross Auxiliary to announce that there shall be another shipment of socks the first of January and a request that all socks be in by that date. The work will be continued although the battalion is broken up, as the Red Cross has promised that the socks will reach the Boys of our original 114th Battalion. Mrs. Baxter has received an acknowledgment of the previous shipment, saying that the socks were most acceptable as the camp was a sea of mud.

Sandusk

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Deal, of Pt. Dover spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Peacock, of East View.

Mrs. R. Pond, of Jarvis, is visiting in this locality.

Mr. Lloyd Atkinson, of Sheddor, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. L. Atkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Pond and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Hill and family spent Xmas day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Shoup.

Miss Glanfield is spending the holidays at her home in Jarvis.

On Friday Afternoon in spite of the snow storm about a score of the parents and young people of Sandusk were highly entertained at the school house by a concert given by the teacher and pupils of the school. The programme was such as to excite the laugh in merry hearted and bring a smile to the sober minded. Apparently all enjoyed it and some we think are laughing yet. The onlookers became curious to know what all the little corner of the school room which was curtained off really contained. A band of little girls carrying dolls of every description sallied forth, as a flock of dunct chickens would wabble out. The Chairperson said he wondered what next the teacher would do for at the school fair she had converted the whole school into a band of Indians, now she had them into chickens etc. A class of boys sang "Polly Wally, etc." apparently standing on their heads, as nothing was seen of them but their feet. A Japanese love song was sang by the teach, attired in a Japanese costume. An appropriate closing to the concert was a recitation given by Doris Pond who represented Britannia and recited "An Old Piece of Bunting" after which the school sang, "God save our men." The chairman announced that Sandusk school had won the shield in the school fair contest. Great credit is due our teacher Miss Glanfield for her teaching and training ability and the keen interest taken in her work.
