The Young Men's Barraca Class of our S.S. entered the young ladies of the Royal Daughters class with their teachers to an oyster supper and other good things provided at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard on Friday evening of last week. A tip top time is reported.

Norfolk Recruiting

The Simcoe Reformer says—
When the first contingents were enlisted here they were but only the old country men, recent arrivals in Canada, who are going to the front as a glance over the list of the recruits in the 133rd Battalion will demonstrate. The native born, and the every best we have to offer, are enlisting. The war is coming now to all our homes and places of business as it has done here before in one or two places in Norfolk. And we are only well started. The four hundred men signed up as the result of five weeks' work are an earnest of what is coming. Men for the 133rd Battalion are going to be found and found here in Norfolk. Make it in reality as well as name—"Norfolk's Own."

The Farmers' Club.
