CAME FROM ZEEBRUGGE.

German Scout Vessels in North Sea Sink British Mine Sweeper.

AMSTERDAM, Feb. 15.—The Telegraph says the German scout vessels in the North Sea are believed to have gone out of Zeebrugge, as it is known that some vessels which formerly were not at that port have been lying there under steam.

The British mine sweepers gave a good account of themselves when they were attacked, and inflicted damage on three of the enemy.

In the battle that followed the German attacks one of the British ships was separated from its companions, and has not been accounted for. It is understood that this vessel is the one which Berlin identifies as the "cruiser Arabia," stating that it was sunk by a torpedo.

The naval expert of the Daily Chronicle thinks that "the answer is to be found in the fact that the British warship Arabia is an unusual type of vessel, which might easily be mistaken for something else. She is an oil-driven vessel. A number of ships of this class began to appear on the high seas in recent years."

In addition to the British ship Arabia, another British vessel was sunk by a German torpedo boat in the North Sea, according to an official Admiralty report given out in Berlin Saturday night. The report, which is forwarded for publication by the Overseas News Agency, follows: "The Admiralty reports, relative to the sinking of the British cruiser Arabia, that a second English ship was sunk, which was hit by a torpedo. A German torpedo boat rescued the commander of the Arabia, also the surgeon, one officer, one non-commissioned officer and twenty-seven men. During the return, however, the surgeon and three men died because of long exposure in the sea."

THREATS TO ROUMANIA.

German Ambassador to Bucharest Opens Editorial Campaign.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—A despatch to The Daily Mail from Ungheni, on the Roumanian frontier, says: "Baron von Dem Bunsche-Haddenhausen, the German Minister at Bucharest, who was entrusted with a special mission to Roumania by the German Government, has returned from Berlin, where he was received in audience by the Kaiser and has opened his campaign in his newspaper, Roumanie, by threatening Roumania."

"The Germanic powers," he says in his paper, "show how to strike swiftly and energetically."
He asks on which side Roumania is going to range herself, and declared that Germany wishes to know immediately.

The Times Bucharest correspondent, in a series of delayed despatches dated from Jan. 26 to Feb. 1, tells of purchases of wheat by the belligerent powers in Roumania. It appears from these despatches that Germany in a formal note to Roumania demanded the same rights for the purchase of cereals as accorded Great Britain, and proposed to purchase at the same price charged the British all the remaining stocks of Roumanian wheat and 10,000 wagon-loads of maize.

Roumania conceded equality of privileges, and, according to the newspapers, the Germans purchased by secret contract 400,000 tons of wheat for the purpose of preventing the realization of its sale to the British Government.

The Roumanian Government, the despatches add, will forbid the export of this wheat.

JUST A GREAT WAREHOUSE.

Holland is Overrun With German Merchants, Agents, and Spies.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—The Daily Mail recently sent an investigator to Holland, as it had previously sent one to Scandinavia, to ascertain the effect of the British blockade.

This investigator contributes a three column article to The Daily Mail this morning, the gist of which is that the correspondent, after patient and careful enquiry, has come to the conclusion that Holland is being used by the Germans as a warehouse from which goods are taken daily to the German factories, cities, and troops.

He asserts that the Netherlands Overseas Trust, established under a pledge to control the imports so that Holland would import only for her own needs, has been a failure.

"The Dutch cities," he says, "are swarming with German merchants, agents, and spies, trading freely. Dutch commerce is inextricably entangled with German interests and German capital."
The correspondent supports his contentions by statistics and other evidence.

EXPLOSION IN PORT.

Russian Bombardment of Erzerum Has Marked Effect.

PETROGRAD, Feb. 15.—The advance of the Russian forces in the Caucasus continues. Yesterday's official report states that in actions near Erzerum the Czar's troops, advancing through deep snow and with the temperature sometimes 25 degrees below zero, Fahrenheit, have forced almost insurmountable passes and continue to make progress. They took some dozens of officers and over 700 Turkish regulars prisoner and captured seven guns and in addition machine guns, ammunition wagons, and an ammunition store and many cattle.

A violent explosion was observed in one of the Erzerum forts after the Russian bombardment. The Turks were dislodged from a position near Khynyskala (50 miles south-east of Erzerum), and the Russians occupied the town of Khogy after an engagement.

In Persia, in the region of Hamadan, the Russians occupied the town of Dulak.

The Late Mr. A. R. Creelman, K.C.

ONE of the outstanding figures of the Canadian bar passed away in Montreal in the early part of the week in the death of Mr. A. R. Creelman, K.C., for eight years general counsel to the Canadian Pacific Rly.

Mr. Creelman was of Irish and Scotch origin, he being the son of the late James Rutherford Creelman and Isabella Christina Patterson Creelman. Born 66 years ago at Richmond, N. B., he was educated at the Grammar School there and at the Chatham (N.S.) Academy. He studied law with the late Hon. Adam Crooks, Q.C., was called to the Ontario bar in 1876 and to the bar of Quebec in 1902, and was created a Q.C. in 1889, by Lord Stanley of Preston, then Governor-General of Canada and later Earl of Derby. Mr. Creelman's talents carried him steadily forward in his profession, and he became one of the leaders of the bar in Ontario, being for years associated in partnership with such famous lawyers as the late D'Alton McCarthy, Q.C., M.P., the late P. B. O'Ster, Q.C., and Dr. John Hoskin, K.C. He remained a member of the Toronto firm of McCarthy, O'Ster, Hoskin & Creelman until 1901, when he was appointed chief solicitor to the Canadian Pacific Railway, taking up permanent residence in Montreal at that time. He was well known as one of the leading commercial lawyers in Canada, particularly expert in insurance law. In 1905 he assumed the title of general counsel, a post he held until 1913, when he resigned, but remained a director until the following year, a position he occupied for 4 years, having been elected in 1910 to take the place of Sir George A. Drummond. He was also a director of the Kingston & Pembroke Railway. Mr. Creelman was a member of the committee which raised an endowment fund for Upper Canada College in Toronto in 1900, and was appointed an honorary corresponding secretary of the Royal Colonial Institute, London, in 1906. He was a Liberal in political belief, but took no active part in politics. In faith he was a Presbyterian, being a member of St. Paul's Church. Mr. Creelman was devoted to clean and manly sport, doing much to further the interests of cricket, hockey, curling, bowling and golf, and in 1900 he was elected president of the Canadian Cricket Association.

Fatally Burned

Miss Ward, a daughter of Robert O. Ward, of Saskatchewan, formerly of this village, was fatally burned recently by the explosion of gasoline, a can of which they were warming near the stove. Mr. Ward is also very seriously burned, and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. J. Hoskin had the misfortune to have his leg fractured on Tuesday of this week through the upsetting of a load of hay.

HIS SPEECH WAS SHORT.

It Was Also Right to the Point, and the Jury Did the Rest.

A Chicago lawyer tells of a prosecuting attorney in a circuit court of an Illinois county some years ago whose early education had been defective, but who was so shrewd and "long headed" that few more dangerous antagonists could be found at the bar in that region.

At one time he had procured the indictment of a man for theft. The amount alleged to have been stolen was $5, and at that time the penalty for stealing $5 or more was imprisonment at hard labor in the penitentiary. For stealing less than that amount the punishment was confinement in the county jail without labor.

The evidence proved beyond dispute the theft of a five dollar note of the State Bank of Illinois, but the prisoner's counsel brought several business men to swear that it was not worth its face value in gold, but all agreed that in ordinary transactions it would pass for $5.

Over this testimony the prisoner's counsel quibbled for two hours while the prosecuting attorney listened in patience.

When his turn came he arose and delivered himself as follows:

"Gentlemen, I hope the learned counsel won't get offended if I don't talk but just one minute. All I've got to say is this: The prisoner don't pretend to deny that he stole our money, and all he asks of you is just to give him the privilege of stealin' it at a discount."

He sat down, and the jury sent the thief to the penitentiary. Case and Comment.

Distilleries as Munition Factories.

The Chronicle adds that the Government intends to prohibit the importation of barley for distilling purposes.
