Legal Queries.

 On account of there being no Solicitor in Jarvis, The Record has opened a Legal Column, and has made arrangements whereby our subscribers can obtain answers to legal questions. The questions must be sent to us and the answers will appear the following week.

Address letters to Legal Editor and sign your name in full, but the latter is not for publication, unless requested. Write plain and brief on one side of the paper only. Answers will be given in order received at Record office.

Transient Traders.

I have been advised that the question of who is a transient trader has Red Cross Doll, and also the girls Goderne recently arisen in Jarvis several times who sold the tickets. and therefore decided to bring to the attention of the readers of The Becord a case recently tried in Toronto. A farmer and fruit grower at Grimsby shipped a carload of apples to his Ag-ent at Cobalt who sold the apples from a car on the railway track to all comers. The farmer was prosecuted as a transient trader and the dismissil of the case by the Magistrate was up-held on the hearing of a stated case on the ground that a farmer selling his own products is not a "trader" and that a farmer's occupation is not a trade, though it may be a business. A further ground given was that rhe words "goods, wares and merchandise"

THE SILVER WEDDING

Just twenty-five years ago to-day You launched your bark for life Upon the matrimonial sea As husband and as wife. In sunshine and in storm you've sailed That see like sailors true,

With just enough of shadows grey To make the sky more blue. You have shared each others burdens Richard Doughty Wise helpmates you have proved, This world's a pleasant place to live When hearts by lave are moved. If cares you've had, they've left small trace

Or imprint on your brow, byon "Old Father Time's" most kind, To him we sel must bow. True friendship is a mored thing. Not to be bought or sold, And to persons true friends like you Is worth far more than gold. Your cheerful dispositions have Helped lengthen out our days, May we all take a lesson from

Through all these years you've work ed for Him. And tried to do the right. In this, as in all other things, You've done it with your might. Your many friends have met to-night Their greetings to extend And wish you many happy years,

May jogs your ways attend, The absent ones who are far away. Who are so near and dear. From this eventful eve though barr In mind and thought are here. May bealth and happiness be yours, And muchine light your way. And may it be as bright as on Your Silver Wedding Day .
