Dear Mrs. Jacques,
Received a pair of socks this a.m. with your address enclosed and slip of paper asking the one receiving them to write. Thanks very much for them. They are fine, just the ideal thing for a soldier.

I can't tell you where we are as the censor wouldn't stand for it. We are having it very quiet along here. All kinds of wet weather. We had a couple of frosty mornings the first of the week. My home is in Ontario near Kincardine. I was in the West when the war broke out. That's how it is that I am with a Western Battalion.

Thanking you again for the socks and hoping to hear from you soon.

Yours sincerely,

PTE. J. B. FARRELL
